A PASTOR UNIQUE

Speaks to Catholics, Freethinkers and Jews.

Pastor Russell Addresses Immense Audiences in London, Brooklyn and Elsewhere—Reaches Ten Million American Homes Through One Thousand Newspapers.

To hear Pastor Russell is the desire of many Catholics, Protestants and independent thinkers, who appreciate the published sermons of the celebrated editor, author and orator of the Brooklyn Tabernacle.

Pastor Russell usually speaks under the auspices of the unsectarian Bible classes of the large cities, in public places, where all may assemble on neutral ground, free from denominational prejudice, the pastor accepting only invitations where the seats are free and no collection to be taken, he in turn accepting no fee for his lectures.

Perhaps the most remarkable congregation on earth is that of the Brooklyn Tabernacle, over 20 nationalities being represented in its board of elders and deacons. Pastor Russell, when in America, orally serves his congregation on the first Sunday of each month. The Academy of Music, Brooklyn's largest auditorium, is now used on Pastor Russell's home days and is often insufficient to accommodate the ever-increasing crowd.

Pastor Russell, by his defense of the Bible as God's inspired revelation to man, has won the admiration of the vast majority of unprejudiced truth-seeking Bible students. He came into prominence in New England in 1877. Since then his field of activity has continually broadened, until now over 10,000,000 American families are served by the 1,000 newspapers now publishing his weekly sermons. He is the author of a work now in its fourth million.

Why He Became Independent.

He was reared under the strictest religious discipline as a Protestant. His instructors believed and taught the old style "Hell Fire" doctrine. To save his fellows from such a fate he went about his native city, inscribing upon walls and fences Bible texts calling sinners to repentance. During the next few years, while growing up into commercial life he devoted much time to the investigation of Buddhism, Confucianism and other oriental religions, to the end that they were found unworthy of credence. The thought, "Which is the true gospel?" became a living question in his inquiring mind, which continually reverted to the mixed condition and contrary claims of Christendom. He questioned,

"Should I try to find the truth? Why not lay aside such arduous study and win fame and fortune in a most promising commercial life now well started?" This he was about to do, but decided that he would first investigate the Scriptures and let the Bible speak for itself on fire and brimstone.

Amazed at the harmonious testimony proving an unexpected but satisfactory answer, he continued a "topical" Bible research and was brought to a complete confidence in the Bible as being inspired by an all-wise, all-powerful, all-just and loving Creator, worthy to be adored and worshiped. This was a beginning of a new ambition, and the question then was, What should he do and how he should do it. Determining, if possible, to reach every truth-seeker, whether Catholic, Protestant, Jew or Free-thinker, he found it necessary to stand free of all sectarian bonds and to inaugurate an independent work. His first effort was the preparation of a booklet entitled, "Food for Thinking Christians"—1,400,000 copies being delivered to the public free of cost.

Interested in Jewish Hopes.

Pastor Russell early discovered that hundreds of texts relating to the promises of Israel were as yet unfulfilled, and he became intensely interested in the history of the Jews, past, present and future—but especially in their future. An extensive tour of the Holy Land was accomplished in 1892. The bud of the coming Jewish nation had scarcely put forth at that time. However, great strides toward a Jewish polity have since been accomplished, and Pastor Russell predicts that the budding of a Jewish springtime will soon be recorded in history.

He revisited Palestine last spring and addressed the Jews in the largest hall in Jerusalem from Isaiah xl, 1, 2. Upon his arrival home, Pastor Russell announced that his next topic at the Academy of Music would be "Jerusalem." So unusual, so strange, to see a Christian minister dilating upon Jewish hopes that all Jewry waited in expectation of something—they knew not what. So great was the interest on this occasion that hundreds of Jews, as well as hundreds of Gentiles, were unable to obtain admittance to hear the speaker. This discourse was published in 15 New York Jewish newspapers and by the Jewish press of many cities in Great Britain, Russia and America.

Last October he addressed a Jewish mass meeting in the New York Hippodrome on "Zionism in Prophecy," and has since addressed Jewish mass meetings in the London Royal Albert Hall and in Manchester, Glasgow and the Chicago Armory. Since returning from Europe he has spoken in many cities. Invitations accepted for 1911 will take him to the Pacific coast and two separate trips to Great Britain. By continuous labors Pastor Russell has fully earned the appellation, "America's Ubiquitous Preacher."

New Scenic Road

A Denver special to the Pueblo Chieftain of last Sunday says:

"A scenic highway that would encircle the eastern range of mountains from Canon City to Fort Collins has been outlined by John H. Porter of the Boettcher-Porter company and has been approved by President C. A. Johnson of the Denver chamber of commerce.

"The road is to be 450 miles long. All but 150 miles is in fair condition. The proposed scenic highway would extend from Denver through Brighton, Longmont and Drake to Estes Park, thence to Moraine park, Gresham, Nederland, Hollinsville, Central City, Idaho Springs, Conifer, Baileys, thence by way of West creek, Woodland park and Divide into Manitou park and to Cripple Creek and Canon City. Mr. Johnson, who is also president of the Colorado Good Roads association, has decided to commend the plan to the board of directors of that association."
