

EDISON

We do not live by bread alone. Even a busy man gets bored sometimes. What we all want is a congenial method of relaxation-- something that will amuse us. The less effort required to secure the amusement, the better. For such a purpose the Edison Phonograph is ideal. It is right there and always ready--the ever-present entertainer.

It is just as good for entertaining your friends as it is for entertaining yourself, even though they do not like the same things you do. The marvelous versatility of the Edison Phonograph is only equaled by its marvelous ingenuity. Hear it at

Telling Lies

That's the title of an interesting duet sung by Ada Jones and Billy Murray --and even George Washington would have found it hard to stick to the truth, under the circumstances. It's the Edison Standard Record No. 10314 for February. Hear it today at your dealer's on the

COTTAGE GROVE MAN WANTS MORE CONVICTION

Cottage Grove, Ore., Feb. 15, 1910. Ed. Journal: My subscription to your paper expires today and I desire that you take my name off the subscription list.

Your paper seems to be tinctured a little too strong with beer to suit me; in other words it is hard to make believe yours is an independent paper. A year ago I thought I wanted to vote for Hofer for governor of Oregon, but then the same old thought, "A house divided against itself cannot stand" comes into my mind and when it appears to me that a man wants to support the liquor and moral element both so badly it is time to begin to lose confidence. I can admire a man on either side of the fence when he is sincere in his convictions but of the man who straddles, beware. No harm intended, but a little criticism that I think would be good.

Yours very truly, A. H. KING.

AMERICAN REPLIES TO STAYTON PROHIBITION

Albany, Ore., Feb. 12.--A few weeks ago through the columns of the Journal I stated a few facts concerning the Prohibition movement under the head of high license or outlawry. Offended by these facts, a narrow minded Prohi, of Stayton, takes my letter to task.

But it is the same old chestnut. The fanatical sect turn a deaf ear to truth. They will not reason or admit facts, but obstinately bawl their views.

My friend from Stayton says: "We and our forefathers, including the courts, have been trying to regulate the liquor traffic for more than a century, but to no avail." True enough! But how have they been working? Through Prohibition. No wonder they have failed, and unless they change their tactics, another century will still find them in the same old rut.

Mr. Prohi makes a rash statement when he defies anyone to find a saloonkeeper who will obey the law. Does he dare confront the present saloonkeepers of Salem, Oregon, with that remark?

I myself can challenge the statement by pointing to the saloons that were closed when Albany was forced dry. Any reliable man of this city will testify that as a whole the Albany saloonkeepers were law-abiding.

No, my friend, come out of the woods, take a trip to Salem; investigate the conditions in that city, and then journey to that pious city of Eugene. Investigate their conditions also--probably then you will understand me when I say high license or outlawry.

We all admit that much evil arises from the liquor traffic, but experience has taught us that the traffic placed under police control is more elevating, creates a higher code of morals, and is more Christian than when left to the sneaking methods of the Prohi bootlegger. If Prohibition is such a howling success as these paid brawlers claim it to be, why did the largest dry town in the U. S. go back to the license system? Simply because the citizens of Worcester, Mass., were tired of a system that was such a flat failure.

The privilege to eat and drink what one pleases is an inherent right of every individual, and no law created by man can justly deprive us of this blessing.

The Saloon League is nothing more than a gang of dollar worshipping reverends. The bigger the coin the louder they bawl, causing strife and bitter hatred wherever they go. Its up to the voters of this state to vote down this fanatical sect, then all join hands in union and pull for a bigger and better Oregon. THE AMERICAN.
