

School Teachers Are Stylish Dressers

They know style and quality in garments.—They are critical of the fine points of a costume. Many stores are unable to suit teachers because they know what is right. This store is always glad to serve teachers because the garments we show are right in every particular.

SOCIAL NOTES

Friends in the city will regret to hear of the departure from the city of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Sommersfield, 910 Broadway. They will leave Monday for St. Paul, where they will make their home in the future.

The Comstock grill room was the scene of many Hallowe'en parties last evening. Among the largest parties was that of one hundred North Dakotans and Aberdeen football boys who are in the city today. Many tables have been reserved for tomorrow evening's dinner as Fargo and Moorhead people wish to hear Richmond Roxburgh, England's eminent basso, who is at the Comstock this week.

The Elks will give their first dancing party of the season Saturday evening, Nov. 8, in the Elks' hall. Messrs. Frank McKone, W. B. Shotwell and Otto Morrow are the committee in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Wilde Tenth street south are spending the week end in Minneapolis. They will return Monday morning.

Among the novel Hallowe'en parties given last evening was that given by the Epworth League of the First Methodist church in the parlors of the Stevens. The evening was a most delightful one, the guests enjoying many novel Hallowe'en stunts.

Mrs. Katherine Wheelock entertained at a Hallowe'en party last evening. There were twenty guests present.

Mrs. John Boyer of Moorhead attended at a thimble bee this afternoon in compliment to her guest, Mrs. Emily Angell of Spokane, Wash.

Miss Maude Wise entertained the Dux Decum club last evening. The affair was in the nature of a Hallowe'en party and a surprise to the guests.

The faculty of the agricultural college entertained the students at a cleverly planned Hallowe'en party last evening at the armory. A program was given the first half of the evening, the Treble Clef club and

G-D Justrite RUSTLESS CORSETS

Give a Graceful Figure

There's an air of distinction to wearers of G-D Justrites. They are wearing the best there is in corsets and have the feeling of being well dressed.

Some women do not look stylish and they never will—until they wear a G-D Justrite.

The figure-moulding quality of the Justrite is truly marvelous. Have your next corset a G-D Justrite and you will see the difference between a figure-moulding corset and an ordinary corset. Justrites cost no more than the other kind.

Every pair rustless and guaranteed to give satisfactory wear.

Style 583—Topless model. The demand for a corsetless figure above the waist has been fulfilled in this model. Extremely low above the waist line, allowing absolute freedom of the body. Careful designing prevents the top of the corset pressing forward. The lower portion of the figure is well taken care of and gives shapely lines. Six supporters. Made of heavy coutil, sizes 18 to 30. Price.....$5.00

Front laced at $1.00 to $15.00.

the college quartette rendering several pleasing numbers. Miss Katherine York gave a reading which was much enjoyed entitled When the Folks are Gone. After the programme dancing and games were enjoyed.

Many Thanksgiving parties are being planned now that November is at hand. The largest Thanksgiving party to be given Thanksgiving week in the Metropolitan German to be given at the Knights of Columbus hall Tuesday evening. The Knights of Columbus will have charge of the party. The Bachelors and Beneficiaries will give their Thanksgiving party Friday evening, Nov. 28, and Mrs. Gilbert Haggard will preside. The Club does not plan to give their Thanksgiving party Friday evening. The date of the party of the Century Club has not yet been announced, but it will give some element of the same week. The croft party is scheduled for Monday evening following Thanksgiving day.

The Eta Chi Omega sorority entertained a number of friends at a Hallowe'en party last evening at the Charles Schwarz home on Fourth avenue south.

Mrs. E. S. Talcott and daughters Ruth and Esther, of Bismarck, are visiting friends in the city this week.

STATE WEDDINGS

A pretty wedding occurred at Drayton, N. D., on the evening of Oct. 23, 1913, between Nellie, daughter of Mrs. D. McCauley, and Mr. W. E. Brown, in the bonds of wedlock. The bride is one of the most popular and accomplished young ladies of Drayton and the bridegroom is the editor of the Minto, Man., paper.

Rev. F. A. Meyer of Fairmount officiated at the marriage of Miss Katharine H. Hause and Fredrick of Wadsworth, N. D., at St. Joseph's Catholic church near Great Bend, Tuesday evening, Oct. 28. After the ceremony the bride and her friends repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a reception was held during the afternoon and evening.

The pretty wedding was solemnized at the hotel, and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Anderson, of Gwinnett, Oct. 29, when their daughter Hilda Alida became the bride of Axel E. Stollund, Rev. J. Edor Larson officiating. Mrs. Larson played the organ and Miss Agda Ostlund acted as bride's maid and Fred Anderson as best man.

Miss Florence Brown and Albert Waddington, W. H., were married at Webster Saturday evening at o'clock at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Waddington, Rev. D. Mitchell, pastor of the Congregational church, performed the ceremony in the presence of the relatives and a few friends of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Wolfred Waddington, brother and sister of the bride and bridegroom, acted in the brigade of attendants.

Last Thursday evening in the village church of W. H. and Mrs. F. S. said the words that joined for life Peander Torgunrud and Miss Clara Helgeson. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of friends and relatives.

Miss Lydia Rickford and Bernard E. Cunningham were united in marriage by Judge Carleton at Cooperstown at 7 p.m. Saturday evening. The marriage ceremony, which was witnessed only by near relatives, the bridal party motored to the home of the bride's parents near Jessie, where over a hundred guests gathered for the wedding reception.

Announcements of the marriage of Odie N. Stenehjem, of Arnegaard, to Miss Anna Lund, of W. H., were made in Chetek, Wis., have been received in Williston. The marriage took place on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 15.

STATE EVENTS

The "hard times" party, which was given last evening in the university gymnasium under the auspices of the State Government, was a decided success. The gymnasium was crowded with students bent on having a genuine old-fashioned good time, and they were eminently successful. The social part of the evening's programme was the receiving line, which was so ghostly in character and appearance as to strike terror to the heart of many. The various sororities and fraternities added largely to the programme of fun by the stunts they put on for the education of their fellow students. The hard times was carried out in the party-colored costumes, which many of the students had the temerity to wear, the spirit of the fashion of fashion decisive. The spirit of the former days was abroad in the land and the student seniors put on their dignity for the time and mingled informally with the

In the call for the convention, officers of the association voted the following: "Come filled with enthusiasm to plan for a great campaign of state co-operative work. The immediate success of those seeking equal rights for women and the securing of our own full enfranchisement will depend largely upon the record Illinois women make in the use of their franchise. We must be ready to register their names prominently in the records of women voting in suffrage history. We must plan to effect and enforce legislation of justice."

The general topic of discussion will be "The Responsibility and Use of the Ballot." Three hundred delegates and the same number of alternates are expected to attend.

United States Sen. Lawrence Y. Sherman, Lt. Gov. Barratt O'Hara and Wm. McKinley, speaker of the state house of representatives are expected to be among the men speakers. Leading suffragists of Illinois, among them

Third: His domestic life is such that his wife secured a divorce from him on the grounds of improper relations with other women, and also that his conduct to the home was "unbearable," "insulting," and "domineering."

Fourth: A writ of attachment was secured by his wife to compel him to pay the alimony granted by the court.

Fifth: To avoid payment of alimony he tried to deed all his property to the tract society over which he has absolute control.

I could mention other facts about this so-called "Peter Russell" but enough has been said to show that he is not a safe leader to seek the least. To anyone wishing to know the truth of the above statements, I will be glad
