ACT QUICKLY

Delay Has Been Dangerous in Pullman

Do the right thing at the right time.

Act quickly in time of danger. In time of kidney danger Doan's Kidney Pills are most effective.

Plenty of evidence of their worth. T. A. Ireland, the undefeated crack rifle shot of the Northwest, residing at 218 Mill St., Colfax, Wash., says: "About two years ago kidney trouble made its appearance in my case. My sight became poor and black spots often came before my eyes. Pains in the small of my back began to bother me and were so bad that I was practically helpless. The kidney secretions were highly colored and passed irregularly, disturbing my rest nights. I used over eighty bottles of medicine from one physician, but did not improve to any extent. I became nervous and felt miserable in every way. One of my relatives advised me to use Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a supply. To my surprise, I improved soon after using them and I am glad to say that I was completely cured. I shall be pleased to answer any inquiries about my experience."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Ireland had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

and this was followed by the business session. Considerable time was given to a discussion of a proposed change in the matter of synodical meetings, some of the members of the synod favoring a delegate system, each of the Presbyteries represented in the synod to elect two or more delegates, who would be required to attend the annual session. Under the present system some of the section of the large synod are not represented at the meetings.

Rev. Spaulding Speaks

The synod Wednesday refused to accept the resignation of the Rev. M. E. Dunn of Everett as synodical superintendent of missions, and raised his salary from $1500 to $1800 by unanimous vote.

Rev. W. A. Spaulding of Portland, in an address Wednesday evening, in dealing with the interest of the church at large in the Pullman church, dwelt upon the wonderful field here for work among young people, who, upon leaving college, go to all parts of the United States, extending the influence of their particular field. He paid tribute to the great work of Rev. Dr. Hayes. Rev. M. E. Dunn of Everett spoke on the relationship of the church to young men and young women.

Temperance Legislation

A round table discussion on pending temperance legislation in the Northwest states was held Wednesday afternoon, Rev. S. Earl DuBoise of Portland leading the discussion relating to Oregon; A. T. Hemphill of Weiser discussing the Idaho campaign, and the Rev. H. F. Given of Spokane dealing with the status of the Washington campaign. Each leader outlined the work being done in his state and each predicted a dry majority at the November elections. Interesting accounts of unique and telling campaign methods were enumerated by the delegates.

Rev. A. F. Kirkpatrick, Burlington, spoke on "The Church's Practice and Policy."

Meet Next Year in Idaho

The synod will meet next year with the Idaho Presbytery, either at Nampa or Weiser, the place and date being left to the Idaho moderator, the clerk of the synod and the synodical superintendent of missions. The committee named to draft a program for next year's session includes the moderator and clerk of the Idaho Presbytery and the clerk of the synod.

The meeting of the synod adjourned yesterday afternoon, the greater part of the delegates leaving on the afternoon train, although several remained for the men's banquet, which was held Thursday night in the church basement, under the auspices of the ladies of the church. President E. A. Bryan of the State College presided at the banquet as toastmaster, and responses were made by the Rev. W. A. Spaulding of Portland, the pioneer of the synod, the Rev. H. F. Given of Spokane, and others.

At the business session Thursday afternoon Rev. A. T. Hemphill of Weiser and Rev. J. S. Colvin of Nampa were named as trustees for the Anti-Saloon League of Idaho. The Rev. William P. White of Albany and the Rev. W. A. Spaulding of Portland will serve in a like capacity in Oregon, and the Rev. John Downie of Seattle and the Rev. R. L. Hay of Tacoma were selected as trustees of the Washington Anti-Saloon League. These men will cooperate with the officers of the Anti-Saloon Leagues in the different states. The Rev. A. T. Hemphill of Weiser was elected to the vacancy on the committee of narrative and state of religion, and the Rev. W. A. Stevenson of Bellingham will fill the vacancy on the committee on evangelism. The Rev. G. C. Wilson of Spokane was selected as the third member of the committee on Sunday Schools and Young People's work. These members are appointed for three years, one vacancy on each committee occurring every year.

It was decided to maintain a standing committee on reforms, and the Rev. Ralph Atkinson of Seattle, the Rev. A. W. Wilson of Mt. Vernon and the Rev. F. E. Dunn of Everett were selected as committee members.

The synod voted to assess each of the 3700 members of the United Presbyterian church in the territory represented by the synod 20 cents, which will constitute a synodical fund, out of which will be paid the advance of $300 in the salary of Synodical Superintendent of Missions M. E. Dunn.

Endorse Work of College

The synod enthusiastically endorsed the work of the State College of Washington, especially commending the short course for ministers, which is made a part of the summer sessions, and the resolutions adopted extended the thanks of the synod to the Rev. W. G. M. Hays and the Rev. L. L. Totten, pastor and assistant pastor of the local church. The synod commended by resolution the enterprise of the Pullman congregation in erecting a magnificent church edifice, so appointed as to bring them in closer touch with the students.

Thursday morning the visiting pastors were taken on a sight-seeing trip to the college campus and state experiment station, and many expressions of surprise at the scope and thoroughness of the educational work of the institution were heard. The devotional service this morning was led by the Rev. M. E. Dunn of Everett.

The democrats have never had a stronger, better balanced, or more acceptable ticket than that which will appear on the official ballot on November 3 for the ratification of the voters of Whitman county. The men selected come from all parts of the county, are men who have long lived within the county's confines and who have had many years of experience and acquaintance with the county, its people and its needs, and with the requirements of the offices to which they aspire.

Nominee for State Senator

Charles R. Hill, well-known attorney, pioneer of the county, former chairman of the county central committee and well-known citizen of Colfax, heads the ticket as candidate for state senator from the Eighth district to succeed Oliver Hall. He has been endorsed by some of the best business and professional men of the county and has the almost united support of the two farmers' organizations, the Grange and the Farmers Union. Both of these organizations are opposing the election of Hall, the republican nominee, because of the latter's well-known attitude on appropriations, which have raised the taxes of Whitman county to an unprecedented figure, and the fact that he is the leader of the "standpat" or non-progressive element of the county.

For Representatives

For representatives in the Seventh district the democrats have nominated L. C. Miller and Martin J. Maloney. Mr. Maloney is one of the best known democrats of the state and will wield more influence in the state legislature than any man who will be sent to Olympia from Eastern Washington. He knows every need of Whitman county and has had years of experience as a legislator, and will be a power at Olympia next winter. The people of this county can not afford to miss an opportunity to secure the services of this veteran to represent their interests at the state capital. Mr. Miller is less well known, but is a pioneer, comes from a family of legislators, is a farmer, owns land here and knows the needs of the county and the farming interests, and is a clean, competent and efficient man.

The dope was badly upset when Idaho was able to win from Gonzaga University of Spokane only by the small score of 5-3 Saturday, in what was characterized by many who saw it as the most loosely played game ever seen at Idaho. The entire Idaho team seemed to be sloughing, and they were unable to carry the ball over Gonzaga's line, contenting themselves with a safety and a field goal, and allowing themselves to be scored against. Whether it was just an off day for Idaho, or whether they were coached to play poorly to cover up their real work, is very problematical. Certain it is that their form Saturday can be no indication of what it will be later in the season.

When the Aggies of Oregon took the Multnomah Club into camp Saturday in Portland they betrayed the fact that they have one of the best teams in the conference, and a well-balanced one, too. The Lutz-Huntley forward passing combination worked successfully, and these men must be watched continually. O. A. C. seems to be equally good at open play and straight football, and they have plenty of first class substitutes. Lutz is punting very creditably.

Oregon simply outclassed Whitman Saturday, although Hoover, the Missionary quarter, dropped one over from the field for three points. Every backfield man on the Lemon Yellow team made a touchdown, and Parsons drop-kicked one also. Oregon has a scrappy as well as a heavy and fast team—indeed it would be hard to imagine a team led by Johnny Parsons being anything but scrappy. This doughty little half-back, with Malarkey, the former Columbia Prep star, was the star of the game. Hoover shone brightest for the Whitman team, though Neiswanger, Botts, Slover, and Post showed up well, and Whitman may even yet prove a hard aggregation to beat.
