CREATION DRAMA IN AUDITORIUM THEATRE

Chicagoans Astonished—Seats Free and No Collections.

PASTOR RUSSELL IS HERE.

In Forenoon Discourse He Discussed That Part of Creation's Drama Which Relates to the Typical Feature of the Passover Lamb—Typically, He Says, It Has Spoken the Divine Plan For Centuries—Blessings For Christian Church—Blessings For Jewish Church—And For All Nations and Kindred, Tongues and Peoples. Kingdom Soon to Be Established.

Chicago, Ill., Apr. 5.—Pastor Russell is here for the purpose of inaugurating his Photo-Drama of Creation at the Auditorium Theatre, the name of which is a guarantee that the Drama of Creation is in every respect first class.

One of the remarkable things in connection with this Drama, which is now running in thirty cities and witnessed by about 30,000 people daily, is that the best seats are used—and all seats are free and no collections lifted.

Asked for an explanation, Pastor Russell declared that the Photo-Drama of Creation merely presents the Gospel of the Bible, which ought always to be free. He said he has no objection to other people taking up collections, but has found no authority in the Bible for doing so himself.

The Photo-Drama of Creation, he said, is financed by Christians who by it desire to re-establish faith in God and in the Bible as a Divine revelation.

Pastor Russell's address was in the forenoon. The Drama was presented afternoon and evening and is to continue for some time. The text of the Pastor's discourse was:

"Christ our Passover is slain for us; therefore let us keep the feast." (1 Corinthians 5:7, 8) He said:

For thirty-five centuries God's holiest people, Jewish and Christian, have with more or less directness, and more or less understanding, celebrated the Passover. But while many have recognized the form, few have looked deeper—into its real import. Those who see the real meaning of the Passover have great cause for gratitude toward God and for confidence in the Bible, "the Word of God, which liveth and abideth forever." To understand the Passover means to understand the Plan of God in respect to humanity.

St. Paul reminds us that God's first intimations respecting His glorious purposes of mercy toward our race were given to Abraham. After God had tested his faith and obedience, He called Abraham His friend, and revealed to him in part things to come, the essence of the Divine Message of Peace was, "I will bless all the families of the earth through thy Seed"—thy posterity. (Galatians 3:8) This, God's sure Word of Promise, was afterward confirmed with an Oath, because the time would be long, and therefore it would be necessary that the heirs of salvation should exercise faith in it.

The First Passover in Egypt. Pastor Russell reviewed to his hearers the institution of the Passover. He reminded them that the children of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob were in bondage to Egypt, and God commanding Pharaoh to let them go, sending chastisement after chastisement upon the Egyptians, to compel his obedience. God's mercy in lifting one plague after another merely hardened Pharaoh's heart, until the final, the tenth plague. By this plague all the first-born of Egypt died in one night; while the first-born of the Israelites living in Egypt escaped because passed over. The Passover, therefore, memorializes the favored of God.

The first-born of Israel were subsequently exchanged for the tribe of Levi, which thereafter was counted especially the Lord's—some of the Levites serving as priests, sacrificing at His altar, and some of them doing in inferior service—assisting the priests in the work of instructing and blessing all the other tribes. Moses and Aaron were members of this priestly tribe, all of whom became leaders of God's chosen people in their subsequent experiences, particularly in their crossing of the Red Sea and, later, in crossing the Jordan—both typical events.

The Pastor explained that before the first-born of Israel could be passed over, a certain sacrifice was necessary, according to the Divine arrangement. A lamb without blemish was sacrificially killed, and its blood used to sprinkle the door-posts and lintels of all the dwellings of the Israelites.

Each family or group repeated the same picture, sprinkling the blood of the lamb upon the door-posts and lintels, roasting the flesh, and later eating it with herbs and unleavened bread—ready for departure from Egypt for the land of Canaan. As the morning broke, the journey out of Egypt began. Later, all the host crossed the Red Sea, the waters of which returning engulfed the Egyptians, who had started in pursuit of them.

The Antitypical Passover. The meaning of all this to the Christian is that God has promised deliverance from the power of Satan and the slavery of sin to all who are truly His people. These were under bondage when God sent forth His Son, Jesus, to be their antitypical Lamb—to die, "the Just for the unjust," and thus to give His flesh for the life of the world. As a result of that redemptive work, the Father highly exalted Him to the ly because he had suffered a strain in London. Ketonen went into the ring a favorite, but it must be said that he was a sad disappointment to the many friends that he has made in Duluth during previous matches. It may be that the fact that Ketonen was advised by wire shortly before the match that he had been signed up to meet Mike Yokel at Salt Lake City the later part of the month had something to do with Ketonen's fear of injury. But that has nothing to do with his contest with Carr, and if Ketonen deliberately quit through fear of receiving a lasting injury, he is not entitled to a match with Yokel or with anyone else.

KETONEN QUILTS IN MATCH WITH CARR

Carr's Strength Shows.

At the start of the match it looked as though Ketonen was going to give Carr a great battle. It was not long, however, before Carr's great strength combined with his wide knowledge of the game, showed that he would be more than able to cope with the great speed of Ketonen. Two times during the early moments of the match, Carr got behind his opponent. Then came a long session in which both men were on their feet and Ketonen was underneath again. It was at this point that the big surprise came. Ketonen put a double wrist hold on Carr and attempted his famous side roll. Carr, however, had a perfect defense for this trick of Ketonen's and the first thing Waino knew the Minneapolis cave man had picked him up bodily and had laid him to the mat.

Then Ketonen quit. Hurt, he may be, but it is our opinion that Ketonen, as many men who wrestled Carr in the past, became afraid of his great strength. Certainly there was no comparison between the two men. We thought that it would be an even match. There were those who claimed to know something about the wrestling game who had been free to state that Ketonen would have a cinch.

The Great Co. It.

It was in the semi-windup that the real match of the evening occurred. In this contest the old favorite Karl Lehto defeated Henry Cadreau of Canada, in straight falls. Lehto deserves a word of credit for his performance in Duluth in any previous match. He better versed in the finer points of the wrestling game than ever before. Karl Lehto showed that he ranks with the best heavyweights of the country. Lehto won his first fall in 7 minutes and 20 seconds and the second in 14 minutes. In the house, which was composed largely of those who have seen Karl work in the past, were to be heard many expressions of admiration for the clever work of this wonderful Finn.

The curtain raiser between Jimmy Gordan and Benny Meyers, was won by the former in 7 minutes. Tug McDonough refereed all the bouts.

N. D. IND. TELEPHONE CO. HOST TO CHESS PLAYERS

Through the indulgence of the N. D. Independent Telephone Co., the chess players of Fargo were enabled to play eight games of chess by wire with Bismarck chess players Saturday. Of the eight games started, only four were finished, Fargo resigning two, Bismarck one, and one drawn. The others were held up on account of mistakes in the scoring.

The thanks of the entire chess circle of the city is extended to the N. D. Independent Telephone Co. for making such an undertaking possible.

YALES WIN TWO IN THREE

The Yales won two out of three from the Excelsiors on the alleys Saturday evening. The Excelsiors took the first game, the Yales grabbed the second, and both teams rolled their best in the third game to win the rubber, the Yales losing out a victory. Walcott of the Yales got high score for the evening, with 176 in the second game. The Indians will clash with the Harley Davidsons tonight.

NEW WAY OF RUNNING THE SPEED CONTEST

Minneapolis, April 6.—Several distinct changes in the methods of conducting the speed program at the Minnesota State Fair this fall, supplemented by the usual liberal amount of purses, are certain, in the opinion of the fair board, to insure the best racing card ever scheduled on the Hamline track. A total of $20,000 has been hung up by the management, to be divided among twenty harness and six running classes—a prize large enough to attract the best stables in America.

Radical changes have been made in the rules governing the racing, in favor of entries winning the smaller end of the money, to encourage the entry of a larger number of animals than ever before. This year the purses will be divided into five monies, instead of four monies, as was done last year. The division of money will be in the proportion of 45, 20, 15, 12, 8. This year there will be a graduated purse deduction from money winners, as opposed to the flat rate of a year ago. In 1913 the deduction was a flat 5 per cent of the money won for all winners. This year the deduction will be in the proportion of 6 per cent from the first, 5 per cent from the second, 4 per cent from the third, 3 per cent from the fourth, and 2 per cent from the fifth. These rules are expected to favor the winners of smaller money much more than ever before, and a much larger number of horses is expected to enter and start for both early and late closing events.

Another concession is the new rule by which one-half of the entrance money will be refunded to all starters which finish the race ahead of the flag, but are outside of the money. In this way a fuller field is assured the race horse fan. In another departure, substitutions in the early closing events will be permitted at the time of the second and third payment, although the substituted horse must be eligible at the time the substitution is made.

A special this year will be the Saddle Horse Stake for a purse of $1,000, which is to be run off Friday, Sept. 11. This is to be conducted in circuit with the Iowa State fair as well as the Wisconsin and Illinois fairs, if plans now being laid do not fail. It is expected to be one of the bright features of the entire program.

The entries for the early closing events close Monday, June 1. The dates of payment for the early closing events are: One per cent, June 1; one per cent July 1, and one per cent August 17, a three per cent fee being necessary.

The only change in the early closing events compared with those of last year, is in the "Twin City Pace," which has been taken out of the 2:05 class and placed in the 2:05 class. The early closing events are as follows: Trotting, 3 year old and under, $1,000; 2:25 class (half mile), $1,000; 2:16 class, Minneapolis purse (mile), $3,000; 2:09 class, Hamline purse (mile), $2,000; Pacing, 3 year old and under, $1,000; 2:25 class (half mile), $1,000; 2:13 class, St. Paul purse (mile), $3,000; 2:05 class, Twin City purse (mile), $2,000.

Entries for the late closing events must be in by August 17.
