DELIVERANCE TO THE CAPTIVES.

Luke iv, 16-30—Aug. 25. "He came unto His own, and they that were His own received Him not." John 1, 11.

The Childhood Home of Jesus was Nazareth, although He was born in Bethlehem. The people of Nazareth would of course feel a certain sense of pride in their fellow-citizen whose fame was spreading throughout all Galilee and Judea.

They could scarcely believe the reports that they had heard; how could it be that so soon after leaving home Jesus had become so famous and so powerful? He never did such miracles in all the years that we knew Him, said they. They did not, of course, understand that He received His power as a special benediction when He was thirty years of age as a result of His consecration of His life to the Divine service, symbolized by His immersion in Jordan.

The Synagogue at Nazareth. At length He came to Nazareth. It was on a Sabbath day, and usually He had done the congregational reading of the Holy Scriptures. This was therefore just what they wished and they expected Him to do on His return. He went into the synagogue and read the lesson for the day.

Thus far all went well; but when Jesus began to comment upon passages of Scripture there were whisperings of disapproval, and finally an outbreak of wrath against Him. "And they thought, this young man has quite lost his head since He left us! We know indeed that the people of Nazareth have a mean name throughout the county; that ours is reputed to be a mean city of little learning; but who would expect that one of our own citizens would return and tell us to our faces that we are not worthy of having an exhibition of His power. They drove Him out of the synagogue with angry demonstrations. They led the way toward the brow of a hill that they might push Him head.

SERVICES AT SMYRNA. The Rev. Asbury Smith, P. E. will preach in Smyrna U. A. M. E. Mission tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock, the Rev. G. W. Graham, of Bethel A. M. E. Church in the afternoon at 3 o'clock and the Singing and Praying Band will conduct prayer meeting services at 6 o'clock. The Rev. Dr. Albert Price, pastor, will preach at 7:45 o'clock.

METHODISTS ARE ACTIVE. Harrison Street Methodists will hold the last open air meeting of this summer, tomorrow evening. At 10:30 o'clock there will be preaching in the church on the subject, "Righteousness and Happiness." The Rev. George White Dawson, will be in charge of both morning and evening service.

SERVICES AT KINGSWOOD. The Rev. G. R. Neese, will preach in Kingswood M. E. Church, tomorrow at 10:30 o'clock. Sunday School opens at 2 o'clock. Mr. Neese evening subject at the 6:30 o'clock service will be "Heaven and where is it?"

over. For a little way Jesus went, but then He turned and passed through their midst, overawing them by the dignity of His presence.

What were the words that thus angered them? At first we read: "All bare Him witness, and wondered at the gracious words that proceeded out of His mouth." What made the declaration of course? It was the plain declaration that because they did not appreciate Him enough, because they did not believe in Him fully, therefore, it would not be God's will that He should perform any miracles for them. He backed up His statement with illustrations from the past which angered them still more. He said that in Elijah's day there was a famine in the land, and that Elijah was not sent to the widows of Israel, but to a widow across the border, in a Gentile city. Again, Elisha was not sent to cleanse the lepers of Israel, but did cleanse a Gentile, Naaman. Instead of the people of Nazareth getting angry and resenting these things, they should have said, "To have the power of our faults and help us to overcome them. If God has blessings, surely we, as Israelites, may have our share if we will but come into the right attitude of heart."

The Lesson From Isaiah. The lesson for that Sabbath was from Isaiah lxi, 1-3. It was an excellent text, and the sermon on it was from the very ablest of all teachers. How He hoarers should have rejoiced to know that they were living in the day of the fulfillment of these words! He had been anointed by the Father with the Holy Spirit, that He might declare good tidings to the poor. Surely many of them were poor and needy!

We read further that Jehovah sent Jesus to heal the broken-hearted. Oh, how those words ought to have appealed to all in that audience! How they would have appealed to any that were broken-hearted! The difficulty probably was that they were hard-hearted. Satan has hardened the hearts of many.

SERVICES AT ELSMERE. The Rev. Edwin J. Hopkins, pastor, will preach in Elsmere Presbyterian Church tomorrow morning on the subject, "Realizing the Presence of God as we face the future." Mr. Hopkins evening preaching topic will be, "Do I love the Bible—Test three." This is the fourth sermon in the series on "The Changed Life." Bible study and prayer service Wednesday evening, 8 o'clock. Sunday School will meet at 9:45 o'clock.
