For the Family Medicine Chest

Green Bay, Wis., Mrs. Wm. F. Bubolz says: "I always use Foley's Honey and Tar for our children as it quickly breaks up their colds with no bad after effects, and they like to take it."

In this season of coughs, colds and croup, every family medicine chest should be supplied with a good cough medicine that can be relied upon when needed.

Such a family cough syrup is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. This standard medicine has been on the market for years and in many sections was found in every home in the days when doctors were not so handy and when money was scarce.

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is an excellent medicine for coughs, colds, raw or inflamed throat, hoarseness, tightness and soreness of the chest, croup and whooping cough. It is an absolutely safe remedy, containing only healing ingredients, and free from any harmful drugs.

DRIVING THE PEOPLE FROM GOD AND BIBLE

Are "Doctrines of Demons" Responsible?

Satan's Successful Method—Why God Permits Darkness For Light—Faith and Love Tested—Responsibility of Preachers—God Slandered—Truth Soon Triumphant.

PASTOR RUSSELL

Pittsburgh, May 9.—Pastor Russell gave two addresses here today. We report the one from 1 Timothy 4:1, 2. It is a severe arraignment of education and especially of ministers, notwithstanding its moderate language.

The Pastor declared that we are gradually awakening to the fact that the world does not love God, and that few of the churches recognize Him as the gracious Heavenly Father. Although the Bible tells us that God is Love, that His mercy endureth forever, and that from Him comes every good and perfect gift, nevertheless the doctrines of demons instilled into our minds from childhood have hindered us from appreciating these statements.

Back in the Second Century, when Bibles were very expensive and few people could read, Satan laid the foundation for gross errors. The clergy began to claim that the bishops were successors to the twelve Apostles, thus implying that their teachings were of equal authority. Nobody was allowed to preach unless authorized, or ordained, by these so-called Apostolic Bishops. The result was the separation of the Church as the clergy—the public being called children of the Church.

Conditions During the Dark Ages. Later the Apostolic Bishops, with Emperor Constantine, started creed-making. Thereafter creeds took the place of Bible study; for the Emperor decided that the Nicene Creed was the standard of Orthodoxy, and that whoever differed from its teachings was a heretic and subject to persecution. This condition lasted twelve hundred years. When we consider how much error could be brought into the Church in twelve centuries, it is no wonder that our creeds are more than half error, and that the doctrines of demons so leavened the whole mass that it became injurious to spiritual health.—Matthew 16:6, 11, 12; Luke 13:21.

Then the authority of the Apostolic Bishops began to be questioned. The Bible began to be sought and studied, but all who did this were esteemed heretics. Finally the people insisted that they be permitted to read the words of Jesus and the original Twelve. The pseudo-apostles (Revelation 2:2) were forced reluctantly to give the people the Bible in the vernacular. Both Catholics and Protestants warned the people that the other's edition was especially wrong. The object was to prevent Bible study.

The same spirit is manifested everywhere yet. Whoever agrees with the creeds is tolerated by his own class. Whoever presents the Bible without sectarian bias is branded a heretic; and vilification heaped upon him is reckoned service to God, however false.

What Are "Doctrines of Demons"? Doctrines of demons, the Pastor explained, are various falsehoods designed to misrepresent God's dealings and character, and thus to hinder God's Message from taking effect in human hearts. The Almighty could have prevented Satan from practicing deception and slandering the Divine character. But it is not God's purpose to use force in gathering the Church. He sent forth His Message, that those hearing should have opportunity of responding voluntarily.—2 Peter 1:4.

Personally and through his demon host, Satan seeks to misrepresent God's Message. (2 Corinthians 4:4) He induced us to believe that before man's creation God had made a great place called Hell, supplied with fireproof devils and fuel to last to all eternity, and then made man, knowing that nearly everybody would go there. Additionally, we were taught that we would be rendered indestructible in order that our torments might last eternally. No human mind ever invented such doctrines. They are the work of demons, to separate us from God and His Word, through preachers, evangelists, and the creeds handed down from the past.

Satan began this opposition to God by telling Mother Eve that her sin would not bring death, as God had said; and he has continued the statement until the whole world are convinced that when men die, they are more alive than ever. This is the fundamental doctrine of demons, upon which are based all the false doctrines that have troubled us. The Bible says, "The dead know not anything"; "The wages of sin is death."

REALISTIC ACTING.

With a Difference of Opinion as to Who Was Doing the Playing.

Edwin Forrest, a giant in build and strength, was feared by the smaller people of the stage. On one of his "Damon and Pythias" nights the part of Lucullus was assigned to a member of the Selwyn family who was ambitious to shine in the reflected light of the great Forrest.

The rehearsal went along calmly. "Here," said Forrest to his Lucullus, "I seize you."

"Certainly, sir," was the reply of the youngster, who was every moment more and more delighted with his prospect of personal contact with the god of his idolatry.

"Here I put you off in the first entrance," continued the tragedian.

"Quite right, sir," chuckled Selwyn.

THE MIGHTY FORREST LEAPED UPON HIM.

who was much relieved by his progress in the difficult one's favor.

"You must give yourself up to me entirely," next cautioned the master.

"Never fear, sir," Selwyn replied, with a confident smile.

The eventful moment arrived duly. Selwyn was exquisitely dressed for the scene, and his evasive associates stood about admiring him. At the cue for his entrance he strode upon the stage in all his beauty of youth and togs. He spoke his modest speech with assertive emphasis. Suddenly the mighty Forrest leaped upon him with tigerish ferocity, seized him, shook him, threw him violently from side to side, released him only to pounce upon him again with increasing ferocity, swabbed the stage with him, held him at arms' length to a loud accompaniment of applause from the gallery and at last flung him into the entrance whence he had emerged in pride and left him a soiled, sore, perspiring, disheveled, bruised and disgusted heap of humanity—what there was left of him.

"Well, Selwyn," observed one of the company, "I see you have been playing with Forrest."

"No," groaned the poor wretch, struggling to get upon his feet; "Forrest has been playing with me."—George Pomerooy Goodale, in Detroit Free Press.

Character.

Character is like bells which ring out sweet music and which, when touched accidentally even, resound with sweet music.—Phillips Brooks.

A Little Too Attentive.

Cuneo is a place whose inhabitants are famous in Italian legend for their Boettian stupidity. On one occasion, it is said, when illuminations were called for to celebrate some great anniversary they illuminated the town at noon, and on another occasion, wishing to pay a special compliment to King Carlo Alberto, they made arrangements for giving him a clean pair of sheets every half hour throughout the night. It is added, however, that his majesty repudiated that attention with adequate and appropriate language.

Then They Must Be.

They were watching the dancers as they went through the various steps of the fascinating figure.

"What superb teeth Miss Higgins has!" exclaimed the young man as he gazed after the young woman in question.

"Yes," replied the girl jealously, "but they are false."

"False!" cried the man, in surprise. "Why do you think so?"

"Because," said the girl, "she told me that she inherited them from her mother."—Boston Herald.

A Story of the Zoo.

Strange things happen in the zoo if you only gnu, dears. We only tell you the bear facts. We wouldn't lion an account. Visits to the zoo have tortoise many things, which we put to good purpose. Why, one day we saw a wolf lion a calf, and then again we have seen the wolves lion their backs with their calves up in the air. But the poor little hippopotamus is suffering terribly. They noticed him growing thin. In fact, he seemed to be tapping away to nothing. They are going to try to cure him by putting upon his hip a pot of mustard.

A 70-Year-Old Couple. Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Carpenter, Harrisburg, Pa., suffered from kidney trouble for many years but have been entirely cured by Foley Kidney Pills. He says: "Although we are both in the 70s we are as vigorous as we were 30 years ago." Foley Kidney Pills stop sleep disturbing bladder weakness, backache, rheumatism and aching joints. Haley & Miles.

THE WORD HELL.

A Little Book That Contains Some Startling Information.

A little book selling at only five cents, postpaid, is having a very wide circulation—running up into the millions. It contains some very startling information respecting the meaning of the word Hell. It claims to demonstrate, both from the Hebrew and the Greek of our Bible, that Hell is NOT a place of eternal torment, but merely another name for the TOMB, the GRAVE, the STATE OF DEATH. It affects to show that man was not redeemed from a far-off place of eternal torture, but quotes the Scriptures proving that he was REDEEMED from the GRAVE at the cost of his Redeemer's LIFE and that the Scriptural Hope, both for the Church and the World, is a resurrection hope based upon the death and resurrection of Jesus. The book is certainly worth the reading. The information it furnishes is certainly valuable far beyond its trifling cost. Order it at once from the Bible and Tract Society, 17 Hicks Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Whole Family Dependent. Mr. E. Williams, Hamilton, Ohio, writes: "Our whole family depend on Pine-Tar-Honey." Maybe someone in your family has a severe cold—perhaps it is the baby. The original Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is an ever ready household remedy. It gives immediate relief. Pine-Tar-Honey penetrates the linings of the Throat and Lungs, destroys the Germs, and allows Nature to act. At your Druggist, 25c.

Time on Board Ship.

Time in the navy is marked not by hours, but by bells, just as in the merchant marine. The system of marking time by bells is very easy to understand once it is explained. Every four hours, 4, 8 and 12 o'clock, the ship's bell is struck eight times. At the end of the first half hour after each four hour period the bell is struck once, an hour afterward twice, and so on till the four hours are up, after which the preceding routine is begun over again. For instance, one bell in the forenoon is 8:30 o'clock, two bells 9 o'clock, three bells 9:30 o'clock, etc. In the afternoon one bell is 12:30 o'clock, four bells 2 o'clock, etc.

Danger to Children.

Serious illnesses often result from lingering coughs and colds. The hacking and coughing and disturbed sleep rack a child's body and the poisons weaken the system, so that disease cannot be thrown off. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has eased coughs, colds and croup for three generations; safe to use and quick to act. There is no better medicine for croup, coughs and colds. Haley & Miles.

CONVERSATION.

The great secret of succeeding in conversation is to admire little, to hear much; always to distrust our own reason and sometimes that of our friends; never to pretend to wit, but to make that of others appear as much as possible we can; to hearken to the what is said and to answer to the purpose.—Benjamin Franklin.

Some Forms of Rheumatism Curable

Rheumatism is a disease characterized by pains in the joints and in the muscles. The most common forms are: Acute and Chronic Rheumatism, Rheumatic Headaches, Sciatic Rheumatism and Lumbago. All of these types can be helped absolutely by applying some good liniment that penetrates. An application of Sloan's Liniment two or three times a day to the affected part will give instant relief. Sloan's Liniment is good for pain, and especially Rheumatic Pain, because it penetrates to the seat of the trouble, soothes the afflicted part and draws the pain. "Sloan's Liniment is all medicine." Get a 25c. bottle now. Keep it handy in case of emergency.

Bad Habit.

"My little son began writing poetry when he was very young," said the proud mother.

"Well, why didn't you punish him then for it?" was the neighbor's only reply.—Yonkers Statesman.

Emmett People Praise Simple Mixture.

Many in Emmett praise the simple mixture of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., known as Adierka. This remedy is the most THOROUGH bowel cleanser ever sold being even used successfully in appendicitis. ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour or gassy stomach. ONE MINUTE after you take it the gasses rumble and pass out. Adler-ika cannot gripe and the INSTANT action is surprising. Haley & Miles. (6)

Net Income.

Teacher—Tommy, what is net income? Thomas—Fisherman's luck. teacher.—Buffalo Express.

For baby's croup, Willie's daily cuts and bruises, mamma's sore throat, grandma's lameness—Dr. Thomas' Eucletic Oil—the household remedy. 25c and 50c.

Best Thing for a Bilious Attack.
"On account of my confinement in the printing office I have for years been a chronic sufferer from indigestion and liver trouble. A few weeks ago I had an attack that was so severe that I was not able to go to the case for two days. Failing to get any relief from any other treatment, I took three of Chamberlain's Tablets and the next day I felt like a new man." writes H. C. Bailey, Editor Carolina News, Chapin, S. C. Obtainable everywhere.

White Man With Black Liver
The Liver is a blood purifier. It was thought at one time it was the seat of the passions. The trouble with most people is that their Liver becomes black of impurities in the blood due to bad physical states, causing Biliousness, Headache, Dizziness and Constipation. Dr. King's New Life Pills will clean up the Liver, and give you new life. 25c. at your Druggist.

Notice of First Meeting of Creditors.
United States of America, District of Idaho, ss.
In the United States District Court in and for said District, Southern Division.
No. 782 in Bankruptcy.
In the matter of James W. Barrett, Bankrupt.
To the creditors of James W. Barrett, of Emmett, in the county of Canyon, and district aforesaid, a bankrupt: Notice is hereby given that on the 20th day of May, A. D. 1915, the said James W. Barrett was duly adjudicated bankrupt; and that the first meeting of his creditors will be held at Boise, Idaho, on the 5th day of June, A. D. 1915, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at which time the said creditors may attend, prove their claims, appoint a trustee, examine the bankrupt, and transact such other business as may properly come before said meeting.

Dated Boise, Idaho, May 20th, 1915.

Too Hospitable.
"Well, doctor, how did you enjoy your African journey? How did you like the savages?"
"Oh, they are very kind hearted people; they wanted to keep me there for dinner."—Filegende Blatter.

Don't be a "Grouch."
Many persons acquire a reputation for crankiness and grouchiness when their dispositions are not to blame. Peevishness, irritation, morbidness, biliousness, melancholia, most often are the result of impaired digestion and torpid liver. Foley Cathartic Tablets make you light, cheerful and energetic. Haley & Miles.

Impudent.
