

FAMOUS PASTOR RUSSELL TO BE IN CITY SUNDAY

Pastor Russell of London and Brooklyn tabernacles, famous author and lecturer, and president of the International Bible Students' association will deliver an address at the Moore theatre Sunday at 3 p. m., his topic being "The Battle of Armageddon."

Pastor Russell has won distinction as an unusually brilliant student of Bible prophecy, and because of his published belief that the Scriptures foretold the close of the gospel age with a terrible war in 1914.

Since the war came on time, thinking people the world over have desired his interpretation of the momentous events, and he has lectured widely to meet this demand. His previous interpretations give his present lectures peculiar interest.

The pastor claims to be an optimist of the most pronounced type, but he declares that, following this struggle, and largely as its result, the Bible prophecies indicate that an even greater conflict will ensue, resulting in social revolution and anarchy, and finally ushering in Christ's kingdom.

Pastor Russell is well known as an independent Bible teacher and has won a unique place in the religious world during the past 40 years.

His antagonism to the teaching of a place of fire and brimstone as the eternal home of the wicked has gained for him the title of the "Anti-Hell-Fire Preacher."

As a religious writer he has the distinction of being the author of a series of books on Bible study having a circulation now said to exceed eight millions.

During the past year his picture-story of the Bible, "Creation," has been presented throughout this country and Europe, and created a sensation, as it is the first successful effort to present a systematic course in Bible study by means of motion pictures.

Many thousands witnessed the production here last spring when daily exhibitions were given for several weeks at the Moore without charge for admission.

Sunday's lecture will be free. There will be no collection.

DARDANELLES IMPREGNABLE?

VIENNA (Via Berlin), June 11.—Forcing of the Dardanelles is now impossible, according to Capt. Von Muck, of the German sea raider Emden, who escaped with other members of the crew when the famous vessel was sunk.

Von Muck was a lieutenant on the Emden and has just reached here after having been in the zone of Turkish operations.

"The Turks lost heavily when the allies began their bombardment of the Dardanelles, but the warships are now worn out," said Capt. Von Muck in an interview here. "Forcing of the Dardanelles is impossible. The Turks are ideal soldiers and are fighting splendidly."

Will Austrian Submarines Steal Into Venice Canals?

Unique Naval Battle May Be Fought in Historical City on the Water.

THEM OF GREAT BEAUTY AND HISTORICAL INTEREST, MAY BE THE SCENE OF ONE OF THE MOST UNIQUE NAVAL BATTLES OF THE WAR.

Most of the city is built on an elaborate system of piling, with the water lapping against the stone steps and walls of the buildings.

Altho in the majority of the canals and lagoons the water is only a few feet deep, yet in parts of the Grand canal and the Giudecca canal submarines of the enemy, if they dared, might creep in and torpedo many of the historical buildings that have made the city famous.

The Giudecca canal, where some of Italy's 70 torpedo boats and 25 submarines are now moored preparing for the struggle with Austria, separates the long, narrow island of Giudecca from the city of Venice proper.

The canal is nearly a quarter of a mile wide.

But Venice is wonderfully fortified and Austrian submarines and torpedo boats would find it almost impossible to slip into the lagoon of Venice in the center of which the city lies.

They would have to pass the Litorale di Malamocco, a strip of low, sandy land dotted with forts that is stretched before the city.

But Pola, the Austrian naval base on the Adriatic, is less than 150 miles away and Venice is taking no chances.

The forts on the islands surrounding the city are ready and patrol boats are constantly on the watch in the lagoon and at the entrance to the larger canals.

THE DENTAL WAR IS ON!!

But the Regal Dentists Side With Neither Faction We Are Absolutely Independent

We are going about our business in a calm, reasonable way, performing the most difficult dental work at the lowest prices and doing it absolutely without hurting our patients a bit.

Meanwhile Seattle's leading dental comedian continues his sorry attempts to make disparaging remarks about us. We don't care to mix in this mud-slinging and vilification. We hold our profession in too high esteem to resort to such brass-band, clap-trap devices to attract attention to ourselves.

We stand on our merits as dentists and the quality of work we turn out.

And remember this: We positively will not be underbid on price and no one can go above us on quality.

It is impossible for you to get unsatisfactory work done at our office, because—

In the first place, every operator is a thoroughly competent man, and is licensed by the state of Washington to practice. He has passed a thorough, searching examination to prove that he is competent and knows his business. Furthermore, his license hangs right on the wall in front of his chair where you can examine it, if you desire to do so.

And in the second place, with each piece of work turned out of this office you get a written guarantee that your work will be satisfactory—and our guarantee means something—it is signed not only by the operator who did the work, but also by Dr. L. R. Clark, Manager of this office.

So we say again, it is impossible for you to get unsatisfactory work done here.

Prices positively the lowest in the city for equal quality work.

SPECIAL!—Teeth Pulled FREE! Each morning from 8:30 to 10 we will extract teeth absolutely free of charge.

We are doing this to demonstrate that we can and do positively pull teeth without the least pain.

REMEMBER Every operator in this office is registered and licensed by the state of Washington and his license is right here for you to see it. Why take chances? Also remember this—if you have your work done here, you'll save a good deal more than a dollar, and the dental trust, whatever that is, of course will lose just that same amount if you don't spend it with them.

BRITISH FLAG ON MINNESOTA?

Mall and Robert Dollar companies the flags of other countries.

The Minnesota is expected here July 5, after being repaired for injuries to her hull, received when she ran aground in the Japanese Inland Sea.

American vessels carrying crews of Chinese and other foreigners may be forced to employ Americans in the future and to sail under different colors, according to some shipping men, in order to comply with the new seamen's law, effective November 1.

The Great Northern liner Minnesota, which probably will leave dry-dock in Nagasaki today, may be caused to fly the British flag, it is said, and vessels of the Pacific
