Four Hundred Orphans Driven About the City by Big-Hearted Elks.

CELEBRATE PURPLE DAY AT LIBERTY PARK TODAY

No End of Good Things Will Be Provided to Make Enjoyment Complete.

Four hundred orphans were the guests of the Salt Lake lodge of Elks on a glorious joy ride given last evening as a certain rouser for the big celebration of Purple Day to be held today at Liberty park.

The guests of the Elks on the automobile ride included all of the orphans of the Kearns-St. Ann's orphanage and of the Orphans' Home and Day Nursery and a few others.

The trip was without mishap, save for a slight bump of one of the automobiles by a street car.

The automobiles began to line up at the Elks' club at 5 o'clock in the afternoon and left for the city at 6 o'clock.

The children were taken over all the good roads in the city, were shown all the beauty spots and the most interesting business section.

All sorts of pleasures were crowded into the two hours that the children were in the automobiles.

Famous Pastor Talks "Hereafter" Is Subject

Let us take God's word more, our warped judgments less. Trouble always arises when we undertake to help the Almighty solve questions.

John Calvin's doctrine of the hereafter does not stand with Calvinists today, and it should not stand.

When men get to the end of their might, they begin charging everything to God in the way of their blunders.

In the many creeds there is some truth, although it is surrounded by error.

I doubt if at heart the world is getting any better. With knowledge comes greater responsibility. If there wasn't a corresponding growth of means for suppressing evil we hardly could live in the world as it is today.

Universal peace is a great, good thing, and we all should be for it, but I think it will not come until the dawn of the Messiah's reign.

God has prepared a great plan full of glory that we have failed to comprehend because we have not studied the scriptures.

Higher critics have thrown away the Bible because they have thought the Bible harmonizes with creeds. They will come back to the Bible, as I have done, when they are ready to take the Bible as it is, and let God be his own interpreter.

Of all the theories ever advanced of the hereafter and of all the untenable theories I should say that the theory of the great Protestant people is the worst.

If it is impossible to accept the theory of purgatory in the hereafter, how much harder is it to accept the theory of everlasting punishment.

The world will never come to a full understanding of the grace of God and the reign of the Messiah until the world becomes a student of the Word of God.

There are people in Salt Lake who are as much in darkness as the truth and the Bible as any heathen in darkest Africa.

I may offend some people, who do not want the truth, but the ones who want the truth and know the truth will not take offense. For the first class I do not care. It is the truth we are seeking.

Natural man has fallen, and it will take the full power of the grace of God to lift him up.

The Rev. Charles T. Russell, Noted Divine of Two Continents, Talks to the People of Salt Lake

In many ways the world is growing a better, while in many ways it is not, and possibly is growing worse. Responsibilities multiply with the knowledge of the ages, and in this age, but for the increase of means for suppressing crime and the like I doubt if we could tolerate life.

These are the words of the Rev. Charles T. Russell, pastor of the Brooklyn and London tabernacles, noted preacher, lecturer and writer, Wednesday at the close of an afternoon meeting in the Knights of Columbus hall.

Continuing he said: "Yes, there is a well-defined movement toward a series of all creeds and denominations. This is being done largely by abandoning their own creeds and getting together on the creeds of the Bible and its teachings.

"I have many signs of better conditions, but I doubt if at heart man is any better now than in the dark ages. For this reason universal peace is not possible until the Messiah's reign. It is right to stand for universal peace, but the tendency of the race is not in that direction, and the evil passions of men are being made more and more rampant.

"In this way Pastor Russell defined his belief.

Movement Toward Union

Continuing he said: "Yes, there is a well-defined movement toward a series of all creeds and denominations. This is being done largely by abandoning their own creeds and getting together on the creeds of the Bible and its teachings.

Before an audience that filled the Salt Lake theater, Pastor Russell, whose Sunday sermons are printed in the Standard and which are read by more than 12,000,000 people every Monday, spoke last evening at the meeting.

The meeting was conducted on the order of a religious gathering. Music sheets were distributed, and led by the pastor in singing two hymns, "The Solid Rock" and "Happy Day." Professor Russell sang as solo one of the other familiar church hymns.

Pastor Russell was introduced. Although carrying his three score years and more, he is a hale, hearty man, and speaks with much vigor. His voice only moderately strong, carried to every corner of the house. His sermon was couched in simple words, easy of understanding. In style, it might be said his address was in the form of a parable.

Topic: "The Hereafter"

In part, he said: "My friends, man's life is made up of beliefs. My topic tonight is 'The Hereafter.' I am here because we all are going to a hereafter. What that hereafter will be largely is determined by our beliefs. The world is advancing in its knowledge and we must consider things with that in view. I take it that all creeds or beliefs were advanced in honesty and good faith by the men, our forefathers, did not gather all of the truth in the creeds they made, nor make it honest, true and we should not overlook it. However, I contend that we will do well to adhere less to the creeds of our forefathers and look for a better interpretation of the Bible as our guide.

"I have sympathy with the great class of learned men who are departing from the Bible and its true teachings. I can see how, where and why they have advanced in their knowledge and we must sympathize with these men because we have come to believe there is something wrong with the great fabric of creeds and beliefs and they have not found the real cause and still are off the track. I have sympathy with the great class of learned men who are departing from the Bible and its true teachings. I can see how, where and why they have advanced in their knowledge and we must sympathize with these men because we have come to believe there is something wrong with the great fabric of creeds and beliefs and they have not found the real cause and still are off the track.
