LOCAL AND GENERAL

Jonas Folk, West Ormand street, is ill.

Mrs. Godfrey Merrbach is very ill at her home on Mt. Pleasant street.

Elijah Skidmore, of Borden Mine, is recovering from an attack of pneumonia.

Miss Irene Oden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Oden, is ill with pneumonia.

Davison Armstrong, president of the Citizens National Bank, is in New York City on business.

Miss Caroline Van Ormer, of Schellsburg, Pa., is spending some time with her grandmother, Mrs. H. B. Shaffer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Murphy and babe, of this place, are visiting Mrs. Murphy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Warnick.

R. Annan, President of The First National Bank of Frostburg, is again able to attend to business after an illness of a week or more.

Emanuel Hershberger, one of the best known farmers of the Grantsville district, was doing some marketing in Frostburg on Wednesday.

Jacob Glatfely, one of the most popular farmers of the Grantsville district, was doing some marketing and shopping in Frostburg several days ago.

Jesse Miller, Eli Miller, Frank Murray and J. J. Lowry, were among the Somerset county, (Pa.) farmers who transacted business in Frostburg this week.

Mrs. J. S. Roberts and children, of Spears, Pa., and Mrs. W. S. Colmery, of Swissvale, Pa., are visiting Mr. Thomas Humberston, on Mechanic street.

Warren R. Walker, attending Carnegie Technical School, Pittsburgh, Pa., is home for the Easter holidays with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. R. Wilker.

By keeping in touch with the "Query and Reply Department" of The Spirit, you can get much valuable information that is of much interest to most people.

Miss Gertrude Stewart, teaching school at Mt. Winans, near Baltimore, is enjoying the Easter holiday season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Stewart, West Loo street.

Druggist Shea's collection of live rabbits, which can be seen in his front window, are attracting lots of attention. The children, especially, like to watch the antics of the "bunnies."

Mrs. Wm. Davis and three little daughters, Misses Lucille, Gwendolyn and Ethelyn, of Shaft, left yesterday to spend Easter holidays with Mrs. Davis' sister, Miss Inez M. Johnson, Baltimore.

A dog belonging to one of William McKenzie's neighbors, both living on North Water street, bit the latter's little daughter, Alice, 5 years old, five times recently. That kind of a dog ought to be killed.

George Saulsbury, of Baltimore, vice president of the Continental Life Insurance Co., and Carl C. Twigg, agency director, were here Tuesday on a business visit to Rudolph Nickel, the company's local representative.

The Spirit acknowledges receipt of two complimentary tickets to the second National Printing, Publishing, Lithographing, Paper, Advertising, Stationery and Allied Trades Exposition to be held in New York April 18th to 25th.

The cold snap last week helped out the maple sugar crop considerably in the vicinities of Grantsville and Salisbury, and the cold spell of this week will doubtless produce more of the sweet stuff for which Garrett county, Md., and Somerset county, Pa., are famous.

Miss Evelyn Benson passed through Cumberland, Tuesday, on B. & O. train No. 5 for Pittsburgh to spend the Easter holidays with her sister, Mrs. Otto Frey. Her father, J. N. Benson, of this place, left here the same day to join her at the Frey home. He will be away until Easter Monday.

Chas. Wegman, who had been confined to his home on West Main street with a bad case of la grippe, was able to get down town to vote on Tuesday. He was laid up for a week or two, and he is still suffering with weak eyes, caused by the malady which he is now recovering from.

We hear a good deal of argument about town as to which is the better eating, the gentleman shad or the lady shad. Both are good enough, and the difference so far as their meat is concerned, is largely in the imagination. What most people want to know about shad, this season, is why they remain so outrageously high in price, and why nearly all of them shipped to Frostburg this spring are under the average size.

When it comes to a real neat, clean, newsy, well edited, artistically printed weekly newspaper, all other towns in Maryland have got to take off their hats to The Frostburg Spirit, and every person who has ever seen and read it acknowledges the fact, just as practically all of The Spirit's exchanges acknowledge it. Really, now, don't you think any citizen of this town who lets the small amount of a little less than 3 cents a week stand between him and the home paper, keeping it out of his home, is a citizen of the crawfish type and opposed to new industries being built up in his town? Sure, Mike!

FROSTBURG WILL BE GREATLY FAVORED.

Pastor Russell's Photo Drama of Creation Will Be Shown in Frostburg in the Near Future—No Admittance Will Be Charged.

Most Magnificent Moving Pictures in the World—Four Sitzings of Two Hours Each Required to See Them.

The Spirit is authorized to say that Pastor Russell's great Photo Drama of Creation will be shown in Frostburg in the near future. This interesting bit of news comes from that prince of nature's noblemen, C. H. Ward, International Bible Students' Treasurer, of Cumberland.

Pastor Russell passed through Cumberland last Saturday, on the B. & O. Chicago Limited No. 5, and Treasurer Ward boarded the same train at Cumberland and rode as far as Meyersdale with the great Brooklyn pastor, who gave Mr. Ward the above information, which will be welcome news to the people of this town and vicinity.

The Photo Drama of Creation is the greatest thing in the moving picture line that has ever been conceived in the human brain, and the eight hours required to see it (four sittings of two hours each) are fraught with intense and awe-inspiring interest from the first moment of the great exhibition to the last. It is wonderful, marvelous, grand, and like all of the I. B. S. A. attractions, no admittance is charged and no collections are lifted.

How can such a thing, which has cost a vast amount of money to produce and has been filling the largest and best theaters in the country to overflowing—how, we ask, can such a wonderful production be shown free? You will find the answer in a few words if you read the Pastor Russell sermon on second page.

Pastor Russell is easily the greatest organizer the world has ever known. At any rate that is the opinion of many, and there is much evidence to back up the opinion.

It is something unusual for so great an attraction as the Photo Drama of Creation to come to a town the size of Frostburg, and there is reason to believe that The Spirit is partly responsible for its announced coming. Be that as it may, however, it will be the greatest thing that ever came to Frostburg, and everybody but the blind and those who may be too ill to attend, will see it.

Doctors Dined at Hotel Gladstone.

Dr. E. L. Jones, of Cumberland, entertained Frostburg physicians at dinner, at Hotel Gladstone, Wednesday, as a hospitable function wherein the latter might meet Dr. Jackson, a noted oculist, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Later all went to Lonaconing to attend a session of the Georges Creek Medical Association, where one of the principal addresses was delivered by Dr. Jackson.

State Normal School.

The Glee Club will render two concerts in the Assembly Hall—one on Thursday, and one Friday evening, 23rd and 24th insts.

Friday evening, the 17th, the Senior classes of Oakland, Friendsville and Lonaconing High Schools will be accorded an elaborate reception in Assembly Hall. The State Normal's Senior class will be assisted by the Junior classes in entertaining.

In basketball the Sophomores are ahead of both the Juniors and Freshmen classes.

In the Arbor Day observance the Seniors planted three Virginia creepers, naming one "Personality," another "Self-Control," the last "Dignity."

VEXATIOUS DELAY.

Tardy Liquor License Applicants Inconvenience Publishers and Endanger Their Own Business.

The Spirit is away late this week in getting to press, and all account of certain liquor license applicants who have been too slow and sleepy in getting their applications into the hands of the Clerk of the Court, whom the law requires to have published in the newspapers nearest to the places where said applicants have their places of business, due notice of said applications. Now, the law requires that notice of application must be published 20 days before the time set for granting the licenses, and those who fail to get their notices in the newspapers in time, are liable to be refused license.

Naturally, the newspapers like to get all the legal and other legitimate advertising they can, but no publisher is obliged to hold his paper back a day or two to oblige any applicant for liquor license who is too darned slow to have his application in on time. The tardy ones should remember that it requires a great deal more exertion and labor to get out a newspaper than it does to run a booze joint, and that delay in a newspaper establishment means working extra time, which costs extra money.

The long list of applications published in this issue of The Spirit should have been in the hands of the printers not later than Monday morning, whereas many of them were received long after the time our last form should have gone to press, thus causing an expensive and vexatious delay. Some of the "slow coaches" will lose their booze-selling privileges through their tardiness some time, and when they do, nobody but themselves will be sorry.

With the long-delayed license list to contend with, a big lot of job work and a 4-page extra edition to get out for some of our Methodist friends, ahead of our regular 8-page edition, much important news matter could not be gotten into type, and some valuable communications are for the same reason held over for next week.

Salisbury Sitzings

Death of Mrs. Viola Cochrane. April 6.—Word reached the people of Salisbury on Sunday, of the death of Mrs. Viola Cochrane, wife of James Cochrane, at the Columbia Hospital, Wilkensburg, Pa., where she had undergone an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Cochrane were, up to several years ago, residents of Salisbury, but removed to near Pricedale, Washington county, Pa., where Mr. Cochrane worked in the mines.

Deceased is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Garlitz, of West Salisbury, and the remains were brought to the home of her parents on Sunday evening. The funeral services will be held in St. Michael's Catholic Church, at West Salisbury, on Tuesday forenoon, and interment in the I. O. O. F. cemetery, Salisbury.

Mrs. Cochrane was aged 36 years, 4 months and 26 days, and is survived by her husband and one son, Robert, aged 17 years; also by her parents, Squire and Mrs. Wm. F. Garlitz, and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. G. B. Showalter and Mrs. James Dunn, of Salisbury, and John Garlitz, of West Salisbury.

The deceased was in ill health for several years, and finally tried the operating table, which terminated her life.

Smallpox Situation Improved.

No new cases of smallpox are reported at Boynton. The children of George Bowman have recovered, having had a light attack of the malady, but Mr. Bowman, it is said, has the genuine article. As the disease was in the Bowman house for some time before it was pronounced smallpox, and the children had been attending school, it will not be surprising if more cases break out in that community. The Salisbury Board of Health took prompt action to have the Church of the Brethren house of worship disinfected after the physicians pronounced the disease smallpox. Several of the Bowman family had attended church a short time ago at the house of worship mentioned.

Minor Mention.

On Thursday April 9, Mrs. Catherine Durst will celebrate her eightieth birthday, if she lives that long. Her friends are planning a postal shower for her, and the aged lady will, no doubt, appreciate it very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Swanger, of Boynton, were guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Swanger, of Garrett county, Md., from Friday until Sunday.

W. H. Witt has brought suit against the Grassy Run Coal Company to recover $1,000 damages alleged to have been done to his property in Coal Run, where the plaintiff alleges two springs were ruined by the mining of coal by defendant company.

Mrs. Savilla Boyer is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Dickey, at Avalon, Pa. She will remain several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Baucher, of Horning, Pa., are visiting relatives and friends in Salisbury for several days.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wagner, Wednesday, April 1, a son. COMMODORE.

"IS THE GOSPEL A FAILURE?"

Lecture by C. E. Heard Well Attended and Enjoyed—Speaker Was Both Logical and Eloquent.

Dr. Heard, of Vancouver, had a heart to heart talk with his hearers, Sunday evening, in the Frostburg Opera House. A close feeling of sympathy between the speaker and the audience was felt as they together viewed the sad failure that Christian people have made, trying to convert the world. He cheered the hearts of all, however, by assuring them that the purpose of the Gospel was not failing in the least; it was accomplishing the thing whereunto it was sent; and that a wonderful work is about to be performed in behalf of the world in general. We report briefly as follows:

What Is The Gospel?

"The word Gospel means 'Good Tidings.' We read in Galatians 3:8 that God preached beforehand the Gospel unto Abraham, saying: 'In thee and thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed.' This was the first promise of deliverance extended to the fallen race. It was indeed 'good tidings,' and hence is called the 'Gospel,' and is the Gospel message, in whatever form it may be written. In fact, we find that this oath-bound covenant to Abraham is the keynote of the Scriptures. The rest of the Bible is composed largely of the particulars as to how this Abrahamic covenant is to be carried out.

Gospel Not To Convert The World In This Age.

"Jesus instructed His disciples to preach the Gospel of the Kingdom to all nations for a witness, but never once in the whole Bible is it even hinted that the nations would all receive the Gospel and be converted. On the contrary, our Lord plainly stated that His followers would be hated by the world, and that seducers would wax worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived. This doesn't sound much like converting the world, does it? Jesus seemed to infer that the opposite would more likely take place. In fact, we sometimes wonder if in converting the Church to its ways. Our Lord asked: 'When I come again, shall I find faith on the earth?' Alas, we fear not much! Many Christian people of today are rapidly losing their faith in the Gospel which we were instructed to preach, viz, the Gospel of the Kingdom, the glad tidings that Christ is soon to set up His Kingdom in the earth, that through the resurrected Abraham and his seed all the families of the earth shall be blessed. Many Christians have lost sight of this, the real Gospel, and are merely using the Bible as a fine textbook on good morals.

The Gospel's Purpose.

"The Gospel is a grand success in the purpose for which it was intended. By means of the Gospel God did visit the Gentiles to take out of them a people for His name. This does not say that He wished to get all the Gentiles; many are called, but only a few are chosen. When a young man goes out to select a bride, to be called by his name, he is very careful whom he selects. So in selecting the Church, the Bride, not every one who says, 'Lord, Lord,' shall inherit the Kingdom of Heaven. Only a few are willing to give their all to the Lord, and accept Him as their real Master. The Church will be in all a little flock. 'Fear not little flock, for it is the Father's good pleasure to give you the Kingdom.' We read in Gal. 3:29, 'If ye be Christ's (belong to Christ), then are ye Abraham's seed and heirs according to the promise.' What promise? That through the spiritual seed of Abraham, shall all the heathen and all the families of the earth be blessed. What a glorious hope we have, who seek the Lord in this Gospel Age! So we see that the Gospel will have gloriously accomplished its purpose when it shall have selected the last member of this little flock, and when by its assistance the Lamb's Wife 'hath made herself ready.'

The Gospel Not A Failure.

"Thus, while the Gospel is not a failure, it has not converted the world. The world has been left in darkness. The majority of mankind has lived and died with no knowledge whatever of the way of salvation. In fact, the Bible clearly shows that the world will not receive the light until Satan is bound, so that he can deceive the nations no more, and the Lord's Kingdom comes and His will is done on earth. Then shall every knee bow and every tongue confess that He is God. Then shall the Spirit and the Bride (which is now being selected) say 'Come,' and whosoever will may then come and take of the water of life freely. Today no one can come unto the Lord, except the Father draw him. Then the water of life will flow freely. There will be no more death, no more dying, sighing, or crying. This earth will not be Paradise lost, but Paradise regained. The lion shall eat fodder like the ox, they shall lie down together in peace, and a little child shall lead them; nothing shall hurt or offend in all the earth, for all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the Lord. The desert shall blossom as the rose, and the waste shall be made glad. Every man shall sit under his own vine and fig tree. Surely Paradise will be a glorious place for man's eternal abode. It is well called 'Heaven on Earth.'
