ISRAEL SPARED OR PASSED OVER

Exodus 12:21-31—Aug. 10. "The Son of Man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give His life a Ransom for many."

The tenth plague, sent upon the Egyptians as a chastisement for their persistent injustice toward the Hebrews, was the death of their first-borns.

In the Scriptures death is always represented as being the enemy of man—the penalty of sin. The death sentence came upon our first parents because of sin; and through them, by the laws of heredity, it has passed to all their children—the human family.

What God brought upon the Egyptians in that night was, therefore, merely the same penalty that has been against all mankind for six thousand years.

The morning will be the dawning of the great antitypical Sabbath, the Seventh Thousand-year Day. Then Messiah and His Church, passed over from death to life by Divine Power, will begin the great work of blessing all who desire to come into harmony with God.

The Passover's Real Meaning. Israel's experience in being passed over has been allegorical. As a type they represented the experience of God's Elect-Spiritual Israel.

Spiritual Israel was represented in the first-borns of fleshly Israel, who were passed over in that night. The Israelite shows his faith in God and his confidence in this record of the Divine deliverance of his forefathers, when he celebrates the Passover.

Since any deliverance from the power of Sin and Death was of God's grace, and not an obligation of justice, He had a perfect right to determine long in advance that the blessings which He purposed to send should reach mankind through Abraham's Seed, or children.

At Kingswood M. E. Church, Fourteenth and Claymont streets, services tomorrow will be as follows: Preaching at 10:30 o'clock by the Rev. J. P. Outten. 2 o'clock, Sunday School, assistant superintendent in charge; Epworth League twilight services from 6:30 to 7:30 o'clock, under the leadership of Miss Lillie Bowers.

BIBLE STUDENTS' MEETING

next morning the Israelites went forth under the leadership of the first-borns, who subsequently became the priestly tribe, typically representing the Royal Priesthood, whose Royal High Priest is the glorified Messiah.

Soon He and His "Church of the First-Born" (Hebrews 12:23), glorified by participation in the First Resurrection, will be installed in the Kingdom for the blessing of all desirous of coming back into harmony with God.

Just as the first-borns of Israel, passed over, were not the only ones saved from Egyptian bondage, so the Church of the First-borns will not be the only ones saved from the bondage of sin and death, symbolized by that Egyptian bondage.

The Bible represents the six thousand years in which Sin and Death have held sway and enslaved many a night time. During this night God's people have been increasingly oppressed by Satan and his servants, typified by Pharaoh and the Egyptians.

The morning will be the dawning of the great antitypical Sabbath, the Seventh Thousand-year Day. Then Messiah and His Church, passed over from death to life by Divine Power, will begin the great work of blessing all who desire to come into harmony with God.

the vast multitude who ultimately will be saved from sin and death, and recovered to Divine favor and everlasting life in the Messianic Kingdom soon to be ushered in.

God did not forget or turn aside from His favor to the natural seed of Abraham in His selection of Spiritual Israel; for to them came the first opportunity, and from them were gathered the first members of this Spiritual Israel—the Spiritual Seed of Abraham.

Moreover, the Scriptures indicate that after the Spiritual Israel shall have been completed by the change from earthly nature to Heavenly nature, God's blessing will begin to come once to the natural seed of Abraham.

Let us not fail to note that the Divine favor toward the first-born of Israel was not without blood. Indeed, as St. Paul points out, the whole lesson of the Old Testament Scriptures is that "without the shedding of blood there is no remission" of sins.

As the Passover was typical, so was the lamb and the sprinkled blood. The lamb represented Jesus, the Lamb of God. His death was not for His own sins, but for the sins of humanity.

The Church is passed over in this night, especially saved in advance of the others, through the merit of His Blood. That the Blood covers more than the First-borns is shown by the fact that in the type it was sprinkled not merely upon the first-borns, but also upon the house, as indicating the Household of Faith.

EIGHTH STREET PARK MEETING

Services will be held as usual in Eighth Street Park from 6:30 to 8 o'clock tomorrow evening, under the leadership of George L. Norris, who is connected with the Wilmington Bible Union. The subject will be "New Birth, or What is a Christian."

It is sometimes said that the law places more safeguards around man's property after his death than during his lifetime. To a certain extent this is true, but like so many of the important things of life it is the proof found in the exception that conveys the strongest impression.

For instance in his lifetime a man—provided it cannot be shown that he is of unsound mind—may dispose of his personal property as he sees fit; his wife, in most States, has inalienable legal rights in his real estate with which he must reckon.

The law, however, makes no restriction as to the testator's selection of an executor, provided he name that person in a legally executed will. He may choose a man, or a woman, for that matter—a person in whom the testator alone may have confidence—and the courts will protect the choice.

On Wednesday at 7:45 o'clock, praise prayer and conference meeting will be held, lasting for one hour.

Remember, when your troubles come that others have the same. Perhaps within some humble home a Brother suffers pain; Is out of work, has mouths to feed And knows not what to do. Perhaps his bitter thoughts and need Have never come to you.

So just look up, there's one who knows Your every need and care, And the blessings he bestows Just give a thankful prayer. He'll lead you safely every day And all your burden take Upon himself, along life's way, Then trust for Jesus' sake.
