JEALOUSLY AND ENVY PUNISHED.

Numbers 12—Oct. 12. "Love envieth not; love vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, doth not behave itself unseemly."—1 Corinthians 13:4, 5.

St. Paul includes envy, and therefore jealousy, in his enumeration of the works of the flesh and the Devil—together with anger, malice, hatred and strife. These are works of the Devil in that they are characteristics of Satan. They are works of the flesh in that the dying process includes evil works, evil desires of every kind. More and more our race has become subject to these adverse influences as it has become weak, dying, unbalanced.

St. Paul urges the Lord's people to put off these Satanic characteristics and to adopt instead those which have the Divine approval, and which make us more and more Godlike. These are meekness, gentleness, peace, long-suffering, brotherly kindness and love. St. Peter indicates that those having these characteristics well developed will be granted an abundant entrance into the Kingdom.—2 Peter 1:11.

Today's Bible Study tells of a serious error made by Aaron and Miriam brother and sister of Moses, both his seniors. That Miriam was the leading spirit is fully justified by the outcome, which shows that God's punishment rested upon her, and not upon Aaron.

Moses had married an Ethiopian, or Cushite, woman. At this time she came to live with him in the Camp of Israel, and thus became, as wife of the leader, the first lady of the nation. Previous to this, Miriam had undoubtedly filled this office. It is but natural that she should feel the loss of her position and the influence which went with it, especially as she reflected that her sister-in-law was of an alien race.

This fact seemed to give Miriam's jealousy a religious footing; and she undoubtedly considered the fruits and her hostility to her sister-in-law was based, not upon jealousy, but upon a high moral ground, affecting the honor of God and of His nation, and the future possibilities of Abraham's seed in the Land of Promise. When we remember Miriam's prominence in the affairs of Israel, there is what might be called an excuse for her jealousy. No good people can harbor jealousy, envy, etc., without in some manner deluding themselves into thinking that the peculiar circumstances of their case fully justify their attitude.

Miriam became more and more convinced that God would not think of punishing especially one who had thus lost caste with herself. Her poisoned mind began to see evidences that the Lord had forsaken Moses, that otherwise he would not have fallen into what she considered a great mistake. She communicated her fears to Aaron, and the two doubtless thought seriously and prayed much respecting the sad fall of Israel's leader, and the necessity laid upon them to make good his dereliction. Apparently Aaron was a weak character, merely used and useful as Moses' mouthpiece. He showed much weakness on this occasion, as also when in response to the persuasion of the Israelites he made the golden calf and assisted in their idolatrous worship. Miriam probably assented at that time that was the only course to satisfy the rebellious spirit of the people.

The text implies that Miriam began to spread her seditious suggestions throughout the Camp. The people were to be prepared and the Lord helped of course, by the primary suggestion, that Moses was not the only leader of the people, that Miriam and Aaron were also prophets and in relationship with the Lord in exactly the same manner and degree as Moses. This insidious preparation would make ready for the expected time when God would smite Moses and Aaron, being her mouthpieces. And the Lord heard it.

The Lord nipped the conspiracy in the bud by suddenly calling Moses, Aaron and Miriam into His presence before the Tabernacle. All three obeyed the summons. Miriam doubtless plain language. Thus the ambitions which were the grounds of the jealousy, envy, conspiracy and evil speaking, God promptly set aside.

Additionally also God gave a punishment. As the Divine Presence, represented by the pillar of cloud, departed from them, Moses and Aaron belied that Miriam had been smitten with leprosy. Aaron recognized that this signified that he had upheld his sister in a sinful course, and that Moses was indeed the chief of God's people. To Moses he uttered a prayer for relief, acknowledging their sin and pleading for Miriam.

Then Moses cried unto the Lord, saying: "Heal her now, O God, I beseech Thee." God heard Moses and healed Miriam, but directed that she be treated as was every other person whose leprosy was healed. All seven days outside the Camp, under inspection, to see that no further symptoms of the disease appeared.

"The Law Was a Shadow." The Apostle explains that the various things commanded Israel under their Law Covenant were prophetic shadows illustrating things pertaining to Spiritual Israel. Thus leprosy, practically incurable, except by Divine interposition, was a type of sin; and the seven days of excommunication from the favored people represented a full and complete period of tests as respects a putting away of sin, a cleansing, a return to harmony with God.

Various lessons might be drawn from today's Study. But the one in which all can probably best agree is that jealousy, envy based upon selfishness, is amongst the most deceptive of sins and one serious in God's sight.

The Golden Text is St. Paul's exhortation to the Church. And the Church, we must remember, is that special class called out from humanity in general by the Gospel Message to become followers of Jesus and joint-heirs with Him. Their call is to sacrifice with Jesus all earthly rights and claims, and to be fully submissive to the Divine will in every-thing. Their Covenant is to be fully submissive to the leadership of the Savior, and loyal to every principle and arrangement of the Divine Program.

"This leaves no room for the works of the flesh or of the Devil. All these are to be put off, as displeasing to God. Instead of the fruits and a special address to be fully substituted, that thus Jesus' followers may ultimately attain to the fullness of Divine favor. The Church, especially consecrated to God, should remember that all their hopes of glory, honor and immortality are associated with the development of right characters and the opposition of the wrong.

And so it is with all the other symptoms of kidney disorders. This is where danger often lies. You should realize that these troubles often lead to dropsy or Bright's disease. An effective remedy for weak or diseased kidneys is Doan's Kidney Pills. Read the experience of a resident of Wilmington who has tested Doan's.

EXPERIENCE OF MOTHERHOOD

Advice to Expectant Mothers

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
