Tammany may be pretty bad, but it never framed up a scandal case against a United senator. - Ft. Worth Record.
Nor accused a man of being a Bond-holder.

If Senator Castillo is, as he says, the Socialist leader in Mexico, it is easy to establish the party affiliations of the other eminent statesmen who are now in the limelight. Huerta, of course, is a Republican standpatter. Carranza is an old-time Democrat. Villa is a free-silver Democrat, and Zapata, whose hand is against everybody and everything, must be a Theodore Roosevelt Progressive. - New York World.

With such a line-up, it is no wonder that there are so many mug-wumps in Mexico.

If that is all the trouble in Mexico it ought to be easy adjusted. Let Senor Castillo commit suicide appoint Huerta professor of some law school—have Carranza join Tammany appoint Villa Secretary of State and send Zapata to Africa to catch an elephant.

MESSIAH TO ASK FOR THE HEATHEN

The Redeemer Has Not Yet Asked For His Inheritance.

World-wide Dominion Promised Messiah—The Conversion of the Heathen Shortly to Be Accomplished—Messiah's Conquest of the Nations—The Arrows of Truth Will Reach Men's Hearts From the Quiver of Divine Wisdom, Justice and Love—Force to Be Employed in Putting Down All Opposition—Death to Be Destroyed.

March 8.—Pastor Russell's discourse today related to the fulfillment of Jesus' prayer, "Ask of Me, and I shall give Thee the heathen for Thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for Thy possession."—Psalm 2:8.

The Pastor declared that his text, taken from a Messianic Psalm, represents Messiah as making known to His people the Heavenly Father's decree rewarding Him for His faithfulness as our Redeemer and assuring Him of His exaltation to the Kingdom, with power to subject all things to the Father's will. This dominion has not yet come to Messiah. The Prince of Darkness still reigns.

The reason for this, the Pastor explained, is that our Redeemer has not yet asked for His inheritance. Knowing the Divine Plan, our Lord was content to wait until the due time, in harmony with another feature of that Plan which must precede the setting up of the Messianic Kingdom. That feature is the selection of the Church, the Bride of Christ.

The Pastor next showed that meantime the heathen have been suffering no loss. Born in sin, condemned to death, all of Adam's family have had experiences with sin and death, and have been going down into the tomb—the prison-house of death—there to remain until the Redeemer at His Second Advent shall call them from their graves. Then a fair trial will be given them, to determine their worthiness or unworthiness of life everlasting. It was part of the Divine purpose, he explained, that the earth should be filled with people; and hence the bringing forth of a progeny is part of the Divine will. The few years of this life, with experience of sin and death conditions, will be supplemented by the grand opportunities of the next Age.

Converting the World.
Then the Pastor contrasted God's method of dealing with the world in general with that which He adopted for the Church during this Age. In the next Age, force will be used, not merely moral suasion. Mankind will be compelled to be obedient. Numerous Scriptures were quoted to sustain this position. Among these Psalm 45:

This Psalm, the Pastor declared, is descriptive of Messiah's triumph during the Millennial Age—a picture of the conversion of the heathen. The arrows of Truth, which will go forth to the whole world, will reach the hearts of men and will smite them down. To illustrate the thought the speaker reminded his audience that when St. Peter preached that the Jews had crucified the Son of God, his hearers were "cut to the heart"—pierced with the lance of Truth.

The Pastor holds that this work of dealing with the world will begin with the generation living at the time of the establishment of Messiah's Kingdom. Ultimately it will include all that are in their graves, in the reverse order of that in which they entered. The last will come forth first—"every man in his own order," or class.

Referring to the Second Psalm, the Pastor applied it to the time of our Lord's Second Coming, when the Church will have entered into His glory as "the Bride, the Lamb's Wife," symbolically pictured as the New Jerusalem. From that Heavenly City, according to St. John, the Water of Life will flow freely, and whosoever will may partake. Meantime, the speaker declared, before the nations will be ready for that blessing, they must pass through a period of deep humiliation—"a Time of Trouble such as was not since there was a nation."

The extent to which the nations will suffer at that time will depend largely upon their own attitude, the Pastor believes. He bases his opinion upon the verse following his text. Those that accept Messiah's Rule heartily will be correspondingly saved from the breaking process. Hence the exhortation, "Kiss the Son, lest He be angry, and ye perish from the way."

The Glorious Outcome.
The Pastor concluded with a brief summary of God's Plan of salvation. First He has selected the Christ—Jesus the Head, and the Church His Body—through whom He purposes to bless all the families of the earth. This blessing will consist of a knowledge of Himself, His glorious character, and also of an opportunity for life everlasting. The Scriptures, he declared, do not authorize us to claim universal salvation, but distinctly speak of some who will die the Second Death. These will have demonstrated fully that they are not in harmony with the principles of righteousness, and therefore unworthy of life everlasting.

FAMOUS RELIGIOUS EDITOR.

The famed Bible defender, the venerable Pastor Russell of London and Brooklyn Tabernacles, has won unstinted praise from the press and public of many nations by forty years' unceasing activity as evangelist and writer. In the early part of his ministry smaller cities were frequently visited, but not so now, since his field of operation has become world-wide, and the urgent invitations to deliver free public lectures in the largest cities have become so numerous that even all of those cannot be accepted.

For the past several years Pastor Russell has made semi-annual foreign tours, and, through the press reports of his meetings held in large public halls of the leading cities, he has received much favorable comment and publicity.

Wonderful Drawing Power.
As a public speaker on Bible topics, Pastor Russell stands unrivaled—stands alone in a place created by his own individual work, a place not previously attained nor occupied by another.

The immense crowds that repeatedly assemble to hear him at every opportunity is conclusive evidence as to his drawing power. Last year, while conducting a series of Sunday meetings in the London Royal Albert Hall, Pastor Russell received written communications through the mail from more than six thousand persons, requesting printed copies of his sermons. So spontaneous a demand was both unprecedented and unlooked for. Another evidence of his popularity on the other side of the rolling blue is the publication of his weekly sermons in something over three hundred papers in England, Ireland, Scotland, Australia.

The Editor of Great Britain's foremost family paper, The People's Journal, has so aptly commented and acted on the matter that we can do no better than to quote here the heart-to-heart talk he gave his readers. He said—

A Wonderful Preacher.
"It is not the non-church-going tendencies of the Age that I want to talk to you about, although my theme is more or less closely connected with that subject. You have all, I think, heard of Pastor Russell, the wonderful American preacher, who has just been inducted to the charge of the London Tabernacle, known all over the United Kingdom and thousands of miles beyond, as the pulpit of the revered Spurgeon. Mr. Russell has achieved a position in the world of religious thought unequalled by any living Divine. And, curiously enough, he delivers his message to far more people 'outside' the church than could ever be brought together within the walls of the largest temple in the Universe. His sermons and writings have won for him a popularity an extraordinary popularity in America and I am credibly informed that Pastor Russell's printed books on religious subjects are excelled in circulation only by the Bible itself. Just think what this means. It means that millions of people all over the world have found something in Pastor Russell's sermons, essays and lectures which they have been unable to discover in any other religious writings apart from the Great Book itself."

A Weekly Talk.
"Now, to come to the crux of the matter. I feel sure that the vast majority of my readers will learn with pleasure that I have arranged for a weekly contribution from the pen of Pastor Russell. A 'sermonette' Mr. Russell himself calls it, but I have an idea it will be found to be something more, something fuller, than merely a condensed sermon. I have been reading a selection of the famous Pastor's religious writings, and you will find me as being more of the nature of quiet, discursive talks on serious subjects than sermons or pulpit deliverances of the conventional description. Pastor Russell is a clear, easily understood thinker; he eschews dogma and all subtleties of form and faith, and he says what he has to say on the great truths of religion and morals in plain but always beautiful language. He speaks and writes not only to the ordinary church-goer, as we accept the phrase, but to all intelligent men and women, and I for one can quite well appreciate the unparalled popularity which he has achieved in America—a popularity, I feel convinced, he will very soon equal in this country. Pastor Russell's talks will begin in the Journal next week, and I am hopeful that they will be an extremely popular feature of the Journal."

The Press of America.
Pastor Russell's popularity abroad does not deprive him of the honor of preaching to the largest congregation in America. Surprising as it may seem, his sermons are at present published in more than one thousand newspapers in America, reaching approximately ten million homes weekly. Last June and July, while making a trans-continental tour to attend the Bible Students Convention at San Francisco, Pastor Russell made several stops en route, and the reception everywhere accorded the "American Spurgeon" was most heart-cheering.

Many excellent accounts of his meetings were published. "The San Francisco Call," in making reference to what other papers were saying, interestingly summarized as follows:—
"Pastor Russell's given name has been lost to public record during the last ten years, in which he has been famous as the great 'Pastor'—plain Pastor Russell—who has swayed hundreds of thousands in this country and abroad.
"Do they come to hear him? Well, rather! So far it has been impossible to engage a hall large enough to hold the crowds. Dreamland Rink has been hired for this occasion. In Kansas City, Denver, Salt Lake and Los Angeles the Pastor and his faithful crew have taken the populace by storm. The newspapers have given him more space than a war correspondent and printed his speeches like a Presidential message."

Has Many Interpreters.
Pastor Russell recently returned from a "Round-the-World" Tour. His was a two-fold work, as he by appointment was to investigate certain matters pertaining to Foreign Mission activities, and also to deliver public addresses in Great Britain, Greece, India, Ceylon, China, Japan, etc. He is soon to leave on another Tour, which will include nearly all of the countries not previously visited by him. Thus the declaration that the "Gospel of the Kingdom" shall be preached as a witness to all nations in all the world will, by the end of this year, practically be fulfilled by him alone.
