MINISTER ASSAILS PASTOR RUSSELL

Rev. Dr. Wallace Radcliffe Arraigns Head of Brooklyn Tabernacle in Sermon.

NEW YORK EVANGELIST. Clergyman Talks on "Recent Mistakes About Hell."

"Recent Mistakes About Hell," a sermon preached at New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, Washington, D. C., last Sunday by Rev. Wallace Radcliffe, pastor of the church, contained a severe arraignment of "Pastor Russell," who, according to Dr. Radcliffe, "dishonors Christ, refusing Him divinity."

"It is a mistake to think there is no such place as hell," said Dr. Radcliffe. "If there were no hell, we would have to make one. Sin must have its recompensation in inflexible. There is nothing in the universe greater than justice."

"Hell is not a mere penitentiary. It is the natural and necessary dwelling place of sin; it is prepared for the devil and his angels. It is a mistake to comfort our sentimentalists with a few isolated definitions. You may have some confusion about hell and hades, but Gehenna remains. It is a mistake to limit its duration. Scripture is the only authority. From Genesis to Revelation it asserts its continuance. Its words 'eternal' and 'everlasting' are synonymous. If its hell is limited its heaven is also limited. It hangs eternity upon today. It teaches the persistence of character."

"To the wicked, heaven at any time would be hell. It is a mistake to enlarge the extent of hell—compared with heaven, it is small and limited. It is only a spot in the universe of God, a speck in the infinite azure of eternity—insignificant in the great contrasts with heaven. It is 'bottomless' but not boundless; a 'pit,' a 'lake,' but not an ocean. It is a mistake to literalize its Oriental descriptions, but also a mistake to empty them of all significant meaning."

"It is a mistake to exchange the orthodox definitions for the assertions of cheap scholarship or vapors of weak sentimentality. The church is confronted today with a re-voicing of worn-out theories in the persistent preaching of 'Millennial Dawn,' also known as 'Brooklyn Tabernacle' and 'International Bible Students' Association,' whose leader calls himself 'Pastor Russell.' "Its teacher was a haberdasher in Pittsburgh. The court adjudged to his wife a divorce with alimony for causes which caused the ungodly to laugh—a rather singular training for a Christian minister. His success is a triumph of printer's ink. He claims to have found a long lost key to Scripture. He pushes aside all past scholarship. The divine command, "Search the Scriptures" means only "Listen to Russell."

"He dishonors Christ, refusing His divinity until after the resurrection. To him Christ has not been, and is not, God. His atonement is that of a mere man's. His second advent has already taken place, and He with His risen saints are hidden on the earth. He has rejected the church since 1878, and Russell and his followers are the only church. He has nothing to say about the person and work of the Holy Spirit. "The man who dishonors Christ has no commission to His disciples to teach the meaning of His words." —Washington Herald, Oct. 14.

Household Economy How to Have the Best Cough Syrup and Save $2, by Making It at Home. Cough medicines, as a rule, contain a large quantity of plain syrup. If you take one pint of granulated sugar, add 1/2 pint of warm water and stir about 2 minutes, you have as good syrup as money could buy.

If you will then put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup, you will have as much cough syrup as you could buy ready made for $2.50. It keeps perfectly. And you will find it the best cough syrup you ever used—even in whooping cough. You can feel it take hold—usually stops the most severe cough in 24 hours. It is just laxative enough, has a good tonic effect, and taste is pleasant. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. It is a splendid remedy, too, for whooping cough, croup, hoarseness, asthma, chest pains, etc. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in gualacol, and all the healing pine elements. No other preparation will work in this formula. This recipe for making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup is now used and prized in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada. The plan has often been imitated but never successfully. A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

ARMY IN PRIME SHAPE.

Backfield Expected to Give Yale Trouble—Devore Stars. The Army team had another hard, short scrimmage yesterday afternoon at West Point, in preparation for tomorrow's game with Yale.

Both before and after the scrimmage there was a signal practice, which showed that the team has the few plays it will use against Old Eli at fingertips. The team continues to show improvement on offensive work. Keyes' presence in the back field after an injury that has kept him out for three weeks, has greatly strengthened the Army's attack, and with Hobbs also going at top speed, the pair will be a hard proposition for Yale tomorrow, along with Eisenhower, who is developing into a splendid back.

It is thought that Head Coach Graves will depend on this trio for line smashing and end runs in the Yale game, as all three are fast and powerful, though not heavy. In every scrimmage Devore is showing that form which marked him as a star tackle last fall. His tackling has not none of its deadness and he continues to play star football. He received a hard kick in the leg in yesterday's practice and was yanked out at once by the coaches limping, but no doubt will be in good shape for tomorrow's game.

The team was drilled in several new formations yesterday and the practice on the whole was encouraging. There were several former Army stars coaching yesterday, among them Hammond, Pullen, Rockwell, Sultan, Wood, Arnold and Dean. All three last named were of last year's Army eleven.

HUNT DUCKS IN AEROPLANE.

Aviators Bag Four and Say It's Great Sport.

A new foe to ducks and a new duck-hunting vehicle—one that has all kinds of thrills to the sport—was brought into existence yesterday. It is the aeroplane, and Lincoln Beachy, and Lieut. L. H. Brereton, U. S. N., proved how successfully it can be used for a gunning trip.

Just for the novelty of the thing yesterday Beachy and Lieutenant Brereton thought they would try duck hunting from Beachy's machine, with which he has been making flights around Washington during the past few days. So yesterday afternoon they jumped into the air machine, started it off and made a beeline for the marsh land along the Potomac river below Alexandria. Beachy piloted the machine and Lieutenant Brereton carried the gun and did the shooting.

The first duck they spied they chased through the air like a dog does a rabbit. The faster the startled bird flew the faster the aeroplane followed. The bird seemed dazed for a while by the strange, loudly humming machine which was chasing it. When within 50 yards of the duck Lieutenant Brereton blazed away and sent the Mallard to the earth.

Around and around the aeroplane sailed again until another duck was spotted. Again the chase and again the duck sank the loser. The army officer also killed this one from the air machine. The hunt continued until four ducks were killed.

Lieutenant Brereton is a son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Brereton, of this city, whose home is at Murray Hill.

TO CARRY PENNANTS.

Annapolis Holy Name Society to be Well Represented.

The Holy Name Society of St. Mary's Church, who will send delegates to Washington Sunday for the big parade, will carry pennants with the initials "H. N. S." Annapolis.

The local society will be conducted by Rev. Father Joseph B. Daley, and will be in charge of vice-president Anthony Davis. About one hundred delegates from St. Mary's are expected to be in line.

The parishioners of St. Mary's Church connected with the Society will leave Annapolis at 12.20 p. m. in special cars over the W. B. & A. Electric Line and will be in charge of Father Daley, and officered by the president, Mr. Rasmus Clausen; Vice-President; A. C. Davis, Secretary, W. H. Wilson, and Marshal Jos. H. Wayson. Quite a number of ladies will accompany them to review the parade, and Annapolis will have its quota of representatives at this annual demonstration, whose object is to stamp out, or at least, greatly lessen the profanation of the holy name of God.

It is the desire of the committee that all those contemplating making the trip should communicate with them before noon Saturday, so that proper accommodations may be provided as to rates, time tables, etc.

The parade of the Societies of the Holy Name at Washington Sunday afternoon promises to be even a greater demonstration than that of last year. It is expected that there will be some 20,000 men in line, with twenty-five bands. Baltimore promises to send 12,000 members of the Society, of whom 6,000 will be in line with at least twelve bands.

There will be, in addition, large delegations from Frederick, Cumberland, Hagerstown and Annapolis. The parade will consist of three divisions, consisting of the Baltimore, the Western Maryland and the District of Columbia divisions. The parade will be reviewed from the New Willard Hotel by a party of high church officials.

Cardinal Gibbons has been invited to be present, and Mgr. Archbishop Bonzano, the Papal Legate, will be in the reviewing stand. Bishop Corrigan, of Baltimore; Mgr. Starr, of Baltimore; Mgr. Russell, Mgr. Macklin, Dr. Donlon, president of Georgetown University, and other prominent clergy of Washington will be on the reviewing stand.

The features of the gathering on the monument grounds will be the rendition by the massed bands of the Star-Spangled Banner and of the hymn, "Holy God, We Praise Thy Name." The exercises will include addresses by Judge DeLacy and Col. Jerome J. Joyce, the president of the Union of Holy Name Societies. The exercises will be concluded with the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, this ceremony being performed for the first time in Washington out of doors.

The parade will be in charge of Capt. P. J. Haltigan, as grand marshal, with Capt. C. E. Edwards, as chief aid, and Col. Gregory Kramm and Capt. John Foley as mounted aids. Col. J. P. Brady is to be grand marshal of the Baltimore contingent. He will be assisted by Col. Joyce, the president of the Society, and one hundred mounted aids.

Joy In Being Close to the Earth. The average autochthonous Irishman is close to patriotism because he is close to the earth; he is close to domesticity because he is close to the earth; he is close to doctrinal theology and elaborate ritual because he is close to the earth. In short, he is close to the heavens because he is close to the earth.—G. K. Chesterton.

Neither Meant Much. Grant Duff relates a conversation which prevents swearing in its most common light—the swearing for swearing's sake. "Oh, Mr. —, I wish you would not use such dreadful language. It gives me real pain," was the protest. And this the apology: "Pray, don't mind. I swear and you pray, but neither of us mean much by it."—London Chronicle.

Possible Career for Him. "Professor, I know my boy is rather slow, but in the two years that you have had charge of his education he must have developed a tendency in some direction or other. What occupation do you suggest as a possible outlet for his energies, such as they are?" "Well, sir, I think he is admirably fitted for taking moving pictures of a glacier."

No Satiety of Knowledge. We see in all other pleasures there is satiety, and after they are used their verdure departeth. . . . But of knowledge there is no satiety; satisfaction and appetite are perpetually interchangeable and therefore it appeareth to be good in itself simply without fallacy or accident.—Francis Bacon.

Invention Belongs to America. Gustavus Adolphus of Sweden, whose reign began in 1611, is credited by history with the invention of fixed ammunition. In his cartridge, bullet and charge were united in a paper case. It was not, however, until 1850 that the first successful metallic cartridge was patented.—by an American.
