PHYSICIAN'S HOUSE WRECKED BY BOMB PLACED AT WINDOW

Family of Dr. Carini in East Fourteenth Street in Peril.

THREATS IN LETTERS.

Eight Have Reached the Doctor, but He Paid no Attention to Them.

A bomb placed on the dining room window sill of the apartment on the third floor of the building at No. 215 East Fourteenth street, occupied by Dr. Antonio Carini and his family, exploded early to-day. It wrecked the dining room and broke several windows in the apartment. Miss Rose Carini, Dr. Carini's seventeen-year-old daughter, was cut on the head by a piece of glass.

It is thought those who placed it on the window sill intended it as an instrument of death. If Dr. Carini and his family had not retired earlier than usual there might have been loss of life.

It is the usual custom of the Carinis to sit in their dining room at night until 11.30 or after. In the family are the doctor and his wife, his two daughters, Miss Rose and Miss Liva, who is fourteen, and the doctor's nephew, Thomas Toglearini, a medical student, twenty-three years old.

PLACING OF BOMB FOLLOWS RECEIPT OF EIGHT LETTERS.

The bomb is believed by Dr. Carini to have been placed on his window by the sender of eight letters, each demanding the payment of large sums of money with threats of death in case the demand is ignored. The first of these letters was received on July 13, 1911. The last was received a week ago. Although they grew increasingly menacing the doctor ignored them all.

The building where the doctor lives is five stories high. On the first floor is a pool room, the second is being renovated., Dr. Carini occupies the third, the fourth and fifth are occupied by other families. The dining room window in which the bomb was placed opens out on a court, and a fire escape is within easy reach of it.

Dr. Carini believes the person who placed the bomb got into this court yard unseen and climbed the fire escape, placed the bomb with a slow fuse and was far away before the explosion came. He thinks the bomb was placed while he and his family were in the room.

PHYSICIAN IS NOTED FOR HIS KIND ACTS.

Dr. Carini told the police that he could not imagine who wrote the letters or placed the bomb. He never took the letters that preceded the bomb seriously because he did not think that the writer of them would follow up his threats with an act of such violence.

Dr. Carini is known in the neighborhood as a moderately well-to-do man, but his reputation for charity and philanthropy is greater than his reputation for prosperity. His friends said they could not understand why any one should attempt his life.

Detective Neggersmith of the Fifth street station is in charge of the case. The alleged poolroom on the first floor is guarded by a policeman from the Fifth street station, who warns all who enter.

DROPS DEAD IN BROADWAY AS HE RUNS TO AVOID TRUCK.

A soldierly looking man about sixty years of age, 5 feet 8 inches tall, with dark hair streaked with gray and a gray mustache, dropped dead this afternoon at the northwest corner of Broadway and Fourth street. He had just hurried across Fourth street to avoid an approaching truck, and on reaching the curb clasped his hands on his breast and fell.

Dr. Van Gilder of St. Vincent's Hospital said the cause of death was heart disease. The man was well dressed, had $12 in his pockets and wore jewelry, but carried no papers. The only mark of identification found in his clothing was Badge No. 78 of the Brooklyn Volunteer Firemen's Association.

COLD WAVE HEADS THIS WAY.

New England Gets a Special Warning From Weather Man.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The cold wave to-day had advanced into the Atlantic States from the Middle West and was being followed in the northwestern part of the country by decidedly warmer weather. The area of high pressure causing the cold wave was moving toward the New England States and the Weather Bureau issued a cold wave warning for the northern part of New England. Much colder weather in the Atlantic States to-night and warmer Wednesday in the interior was forecast.

Storm warnings were ordered on the Atlantic coast from Norfolk to Eastport, Me.

RAISE PRICE OF POTATOES.

BOSTON, Jan. 21.—An advance of ten cents a bag on potatoes was made today by wholesalers as a result of a threatened shortage by reason of the strike on the Bangor and Aroostock Railroad. No potato cars have been received here since Saturday, and while a few cars are reported on the way, it is expected that receipts will decline materially later in the week unless the strike is settled.

The abundant crop in Aroostock County last year has so far kept the price of potatoes low compared with the shortage prices of last year.

'MIRACLE WHEAT' REAL, 'DISCOVERER' SWEARS FOR PASTOR RUSSELL

But, Farmer Says, Brooklyn Preacher Had No Share in Promotion Concern.

The suit of Pastor Russell of the Brooklyn Tabernacle against the Brooklyn Daily Eagle was put on trial to-day before Justice Kelby in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn. Pastor Russell is suing for $100,000 damages for libel.

In his complaint he asserted that the Eagle had falsely stated that he had worked upon his congregation and upon readers of his published sermons in newspapers published all over the world to contribute money to him in order to qualify themselves to enter the Kingdom of Heaven more easily than a camel may pass through the eye of a needle.

The Eagle also charged, Pastor Russell alleged, that he had promoted the sale of "Miracle Wheat" by attaching some sort of religious significance to its alleged extraordinary productiveness, and said that the pastor had made as much as $250,000 in a single year by exploiting to his followers the need for placing all their surplus cash in his hands before the ending of the world, which he prophesied would happen Oct. 25, 1914.

The first witness called to-day by Frederick Sparks, lawyer for Pastor Russell, was Kent B. Stoner, a farmer of Finleyville, Pa., who told of his discovery of the wonderful propagating qualities of a stray clump of wheat he had found accidentally in his field. He said that in six years he had raised 300 bushels of wheat from this seed, and in 1910 began selling it for $1.25 a pound. It was fifteen times as prolific as ordinary wheat, he said.

He said that he had never known Pastor Russell and was sure Pastor Russell had no share in the Miracle Wheat Company, and that so far as he knew the parson had never profited in any way by its sale.

JACKSON FACES TRIAL ON NEW LARCENY CHARGE.

Convicted Real Estate Operator Gets Postponement of Action for Stealing $23,354.

Edgar R. Jackson, who was convicted of grand larceny in connection with real estate operations, was arraigned to-day before Judge Rosalsky in the Court of General Sessions on a second larceny charge growing out of the same transactions. This time Jackson is accused of the larceny of $23,354 from Dr. George T. Leeds of Yonkers and others. Jackson asked and obtained a postponement of forty-eight hours before pleading or filing motions.

Jackson was to have been sentenced to-day on his previous conviction by Justice Goff in the Supreme Court, but the Justice was delayed in coming to his court owing to the fact that he and the District-Attorney had appeared before the Appellate Division requesting the lengthening of his term.

The conviction was for the larceny of $5,000 from Mrs. Mary Griffith of Akron, Ohio.

Explosion Demolishes Windows of Broadway Structure; Fire Alarm Causes Congestion.

Striking garment makers and strikebreakers lounging in Broadway between Houston and Bleecker streets had a free show this afternoon, staged under the personal direction of George Hamilton, an employee of the Consolidated Gas Company. Hamilton's part in the proceeding was quite involuntary.

He was inspecting the gas pipes in a vacant loft on the third floor of No. 622 Broadway and in his work of looking for leaks used a torch. The torch found a leak and a quantity of gas in the room exploded, blowing out the front windows.

The explosion and a flash of fire caused a policeman to turn in an alarm. Soon the street was full of fire engines, hose trucks and other fire apparatus. Deputy Chief Langford investigated, found Hamilton, uninjured, in the loft, handed out a few lines of opinion about the general policy of looking for gas leaks with an open light and dispersed his forces.

In the mean time Broadway for two blocks had become congested. Street car traffic was suspended for fifteen minutes.
