Hunt Barnes Still in Ring.

Hunt Barnes of West Union, who will be eighty-nine years old on Oct. 12, if he lives to that date, and who by following the racing business since 1849, or for sixty-eight consecutive seasons, has long established the record of being the oldest racing man in the United States, returned the last of the week from Independence, where he drove in two races, winning third and fourth moneys respectively. He will drive in a race at the fair here tomorrow, and whatever good luck he may have will be rejoiced in by everybody in this community.—West Union Gazette.

Brothers Meet First Time in Fifty-three Years.

Waukon, Ia., Aug. 28.—When Joseph A. McDonnell came from Los Angeles, Cal., to visit his brother Miles McDonnell at Waukon, Ia., it was the first time the two brothers had met in fifty-three years. The last time they saw each other was in Milwaukee, Wis., in 1863. Joseph McDonnell went west and worked as a railroad contractor, helping to build the Mexican Central, the Santa Fe and other roads and is now retired and living in Los Angeles. The brothers are 73 and 76 years old respectively and were born in Canada of Scotch-Irish parents. Miles sits at the left in the picture and J. A. at the right.

Made Him "Cheese" The B. V. D's.

The mayor of Grand Junction, our old and tried friend "Butch" Metzgar, is getting a trifle finicky and particular in his old age. The other day three young "bloods" from San Francisco were traveling through that city in a big Packard, and stopped at the Dutton well on Main street for water. One of them sprang out of the car to the pump, dressed in exactly nature's garb and nothing else on earth but a suit of B. V. D's. In this negligee attire the "sport" was having very pleasant sailing through Iowa's champion corn weather—except that Butch didn't like the makeup. You know there's always somebody taking the joy out of life and Butch is one of them. He came along just as the B. V. D. artist was stooping over to drink. The place made for mother's slipper was prominently slanted toward the constellation of the Great Bear, whereupon Butch uncoupled and spread out his mighty right fin, as big as that of a sperm whale, and with a sweep as limber as a mule's leg, he landed on the posterior process with a sound that reverberated clear to Rip Van Winkle's Catskill couch. The front of the B. V. D's. went to grass—or rather dust—and, upon recovering, the motorist gazed fixedly about the region to locate the mule. In choice but forcible United States, Butch pointed silently to the delinquent pants hanging over the seat of the car, and gave the young blood just two flashes of lightning to encase himself therein—which was done. As the car pulled up the street the B. V. D. wearer was heard to remark that there were only two mean men in America—and the mayor of Grand Junction was both of them. Come on, Butch! Hain't you got no sympathy at all for sufferin' humanity these days?—Jefferson Lee.

IOWA WILL CELEBRATE.

Its Prosperity at Dubuque Beginning October 2d.

At Dubuque, Iowa, during the week beginning October 2nd, will be held a Prosperity Celebration and Industrial Exposition that will be to the territory for 100 miles surrounding Dubuque what the big state and world's fairs are to the communities in which they are held. Dubuque and the territory surrounding it has never had a celebration of the magnitude of one it is now going to conduct; but this year the business interests there have united in raising $50,000 to be used in putting on an event that will beat anything else held this year in Iowa or adjacent states.

This territory has been enjoying an era of unparalleled prosperity. Dubuque is arranging this Celebration in order to show to the world how this territory is going forward. The industrial, commercial and agricultural exhibits in connection with the Celebration will be worth going miles to see.

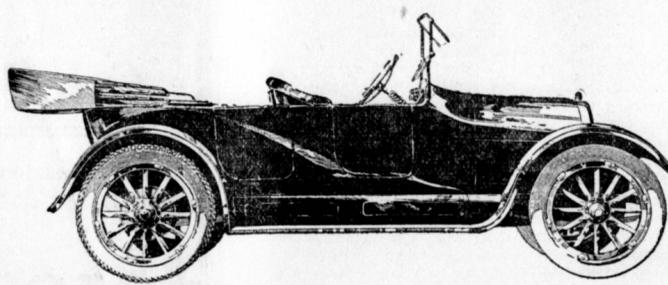

It will consist of two miles of merchants' and manufacturers' exhibits, an exact reproduction of the New York Hippodrome, in which the largest and best amusement attractions ever seen in the West will be shown. There will be floral, military, Mardi Gras and other parades. One of the famous bands—like Sousa's or Creators—will be in attendance, in addition to ten other bands. The streets and buildings will be illuminated, using over forty thousand incandescent lamps, and will be beautifully decorated with tons of decorations. Some of our most prominent orators and statesmen have already accepted invitations to attend and deliver orations. In fact not a stone has been left unturned to make it the largest grandest, best and highest-class Celebration ever seen in this country.

The Dubuque Commercial Club, who is giving the affair, has succeeded in securing the unanimous co-operation and working support of its citizens. It expects to entertain over one hundred thousand out-of-town visitors. Dubuque's slogan is "Come to our City and see miles of sights free. The City is yours. Come to Dubuque and enjoy a week of fun, frolic and merriment."

Rattlesnake Comes to Town.

Here is another rattlesnake story for you. Young Gough, who drives the Grand Hotel bus, went out last Thursday to hitch up and in the weeds a few feet from the kitchen door heard the buzz of a rattlesnake. He secured a rake and with it brought to view and dispatched the reptile, which was about three feet long and had six rattles and a button. A rattlesnake meandering around in the business center of a city of 3,000 population! That's astonishing, ain't it? The snake certainly couldn't have been around that neighborhood very long without being discovered. We have heard it surmised that his snakeship was brought to the feed barn near by in a load of hay or straw and this may be the explanation. Of course this startling occurrence shows the necessity of having a good supply of snake medicine handy and we presume the mail order houses are experiencing a boom in trade. It is well to be prepared.—Allamakee Waukon Journal.

Why Don't You Get a Car?

Stop putting it off. Don't hold to the old fashioned idea that an automobile is an expense. It is not. It's an economy.

Take this splendid new Overland, for instance. It costs only $635. It's a beauty. Large enough for your whole family; easy to run; your son and daughter can do it; has a big, powerful 31½ horsepower motor and is as complete as the most expensive cars in the world.

Also it uses very little gasoline.

Bring your family in today and see this Overland. It's the greatest value of the year.

MOMENTOUS TYPES OF GLORIES TO COME

Israel Was Typical of Blessings For Church and World

Many Significant Old Testament Pictures—Moses as Prophet and Mediator—Christ the Great Antitype—Law Covenant vs. New Covenant—Israel's First-Born—Church of First-Borns.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., August 20.—Pastor Russell spoke here today before the I. B. S. A. Convention. His text was, "Whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope."

PASTOR RUSSELL

(Romans 15:4.) A synopsis follows: Israel's experiences, services and sacrifices took on a new significance as the Pastor explained the Types and the Antitypes of the Bible. By comparing Scripture with Scripture he demonstrated that Natural Israel typified in some pictures Spiritual Israel—the Gospel Church; but in others the unsaved world of mankind, while their priesthood typified the Church. Again, the establishment of the Law Covenant under Moses and the ceremonies connected therewith were shown to represent the inauguration of the New Covenant under Christ, the great Antitype of Moses. First He will satisfy Divine Justice, represented in the books of the Law; and then, during His Millennial Reign, He will antitypically sprinkle the people with the blood of the "better sacrifices," thus bringing man into covenant relationship with God.

In studying these types, the speaker declared, it is necessary to keep them separate and distinct. Otherwise confusion will result. St. Paul tells us that the Law foreshadowed good things to come; that Israel's priesthood was typical; and that the Royal Priesthood were pictured by Melchizedek, uniting in themselves the offices of king and priest, our Lord being the Chief King and High Priest.—Heb. 7:17, 21; 8:1-6.

The establishment of the Law Covenant under Moses was shown to be typical of the establishment of the New Law Covenant under The Christ. As Moses was mediator of the Old Covenant, so The Christ will be the Mediator of the New Covenant, the great Prophet of whom Moses foretold (Deuteronomy 18:15, 19; Acts 3:22, 23.) This great Mediator will do for mankind what Moses was unable to do for Israel—forgive their sins and lift them up to human perfection—"whosoever will." The Head of this great Prophet and Mediator was raised up over eighteen centuries ago. Since then, God has been raising up the Body of this Mediator from amongst their brethren. Only the consecrated followers of Christ become members of this mystical Body.

When Moses was preparing to mediate the Law Covenant, he sprinkled both the tables of the Law and the Israelites with the blood of bulls and goats slain for that purpose. (Exodus 24:3-8; Hebrews 9:19-22.) There was a great concourse of people to be sprinkled. Therefore the blood of many bulls and goats was necessary.

Antitypical Day of Atonement.
Another type explained in detail was that of Israel's Atonement Day. Their high priest and the other priests represented the Royal Priesthood of the Gospel Age—Christ and His Church, the remainder of the tribe of Levi representing the Great Company of Revelation 7:9-17. Aaron, the high priest, offered the Atonement Day sacrifices and carried the blood into the Most Holy, where he sprinkled it on the Mercy Seat.

So our Lord Jesus, after His ascension, appeared in the antitypical Most Holy—Heaven itself—with His own blood, which He presented for those who would be of His Body, the Church; and He will again appear before the Mercy Seat to present the blood of the Lord's Goat class, which is "for all the people"—the whole world. The merit of the Church's sacrifice is all our Lord's; for it is really only another presentation of His own merit, through His Body, the Church. All this is the work of this Gospel Age, the antitypical Atonement Day.—Leviticus 16:3-16; Hebrews 13:11-13.

The Pastor showed that the bullock was a fitting representation of our Lord Jesus as a man; for He was perfect in mind and body, full of zeal and strength. The young bullock of sacrifice was a prime animal with much fat, which when offered made much smoke. This represented our Lord's heart devotion to the Father. The fat of the bullock was burned upon the Brazen Altar in the court of the Tabernacle in the sight all within the Court. Thus it pictured the appreciation of our Lord's loving sacrifice shown by all believers. The burning of the hide, flesh, etc., outside the Camp signifies that Jesus' sacrifice is a stench in the nostrils of the unbelieving world—those outside the antitypical Court. The third fire, the incense on the Golden Altar in the Holy, represented God's appreciation of our Redeemer's sacrifice.

The remainder of this highly instructive address explained in detail various Old Testament types, and showed their antitypical meaning in regard to the Gospel Church and its work, as well as to the work of the Millennial Age.
