FATHERS---

Looking back, it doesn't seem so very long ago when you were growing into manhood, does it?

Do you know how much you would have in this bank now, had you begun in your boyhood days to save but $2.00 a month?

Let your boys figure out this problem, the result will be an inspiration to them to save.

The wonderful workings of compound interest makes an interesting story and fathers should see that their boys have savings accounts at this bank.

ONE TRUE GOSPEL,
MANY PERVERSIONS

The Gospel of Social Uplift Among the Perversions.

Pastor Russell Also Points Out That the Gospel of Faith Healing is Another of the Many Substitutes For the Greatest of All Gospels.

Providence, R. I. Sept. 15.—In Providence Opera House Pastor Russell took for his text St. Paul's words, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from Him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another Gospel, which is not another; but there be some that trouble you and that would pervert the Gospel of Christ; . . . let him be accursed."—Galatians I, 6-8.

When we remember that there is but one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism presented in the Bible, we are astounded to find many faiths, many "Gospels," presented by many denominations, all bearing the name of Christ.

Although the Apostle was one of the pioneers of the Church, even in his day the brethren in Galatia had turned away to a perverted Message. No wonder, then, that the true Gospel had become almost buried under human tradition!

It will not do to say that we have many denominations, but only one Gospel. Denominations were not organized for amusement, but because the founders of each believed that they saw sufficient reason to justify them in forming a new sect.

Galatians' Perverted Gospel Prevalent Today.

The perverted Gospel which the Galatians were disposed to accept is very prevalent today, and is as much to be reprehended. The so-called Gospel about which St. Paul took them to task consisted of an admixture of the restraints of the Jewish Law and the Grace of God.

This perverted Gospel was that in addition to believing on Christ it was necessary to become Jews.

Many Christians are still making the same mistake; they do not appreciate the Master's statement, "If the Son shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed."

Pastor Russell charged that from the most prominent pulpits of Christendom the Gospel of Christ respecting the forgiveness of individual sin, the reconciliation of the individual heart, the individual begetting of the Holy Spirit and the personal walk in newness of life has been discarded.

"Many of the preachers, having had no such experiences themselves, were loath to talk about them. But salaries must go on and something must be said. The message of the hour, therefore, is athletics, manliness, position in society, attention to political duties, attainment of high positions in the world—and money withal!"

Far be it from me to teach inattention to the duties and responsibilities of life. The Gospel of Jesus, however, distinctly impresses upon all His followers that their consecration to walk in His steps means their separation from worldly ambitions and from giving of chief concern to the preservation of their earthly lives. It exhorts that these are to be considered secondary to the new ideals set before them in the Gospel of Christ.

Elect to Bless the Non-Elect.

At this point Pastor Russell struck to the root of his subject. He pointed out the almost complete failure to recognize the great "Divine Plan of the Ages"—hidden for 4000 years—and in the days of the Apostles made known. He recognizes that God is now conducting an Election according to fitness, and that after this He will use the Elect in the work of blessing the non-elect.

The followers of Jesus are not at liberty to adopt theories, either of their own or those of others in respect to the way in which the great work of uplifting the world is to be accomplished. They are collaborators with God—and not with men.—II. Corinthians vi, 1.

Pastor Russell then proceeded to outline the Divine Plan as recorded in the Scriptures. He showed that God's purpose is, first, to select the Church, and then to uplift all those of the non-elect awaiting the summons to "Come forth . . . to a resurrection by judgment," for "there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and of the unjust."—Acts xxiv, 15; John v, 28, 29, R. V.

The resurrection by judgment will prove to be successful beyond the fondest hope. In proof of this we have, for instance, the Scripture, "When the judgment of the Lord shall be in the earth the inhabitants of the world shall learn righteousness."

The greatest perversion of the Gospel of Christ is the Gospel of Purgatory and eternal torture. And the Gospel of Faith Healing is opposed both to the letter and spirit of Jesus' teachings. Not one of the Lord's disciples nor a Prophet was healed miraculously.

The miracles which Jesus performed were upon outsiders and were but illustrations of how He and His Elect, in Kingdom glory, will in the coming Age uplift and restore all the willing and obedient.

Hotpoint

THE SONG OF THE HOTPOINTER

There's only one iron,
In this world for us;
We use it and use it
Without any fuss.
It is clean, it is neat,
And doesn't corrode;
And it doesn't use "Stuff"
That's apt to explode.
Oh! it gives to the garment
The gloss of pearl,
For the shirt-waist man
Or the shirt-waist girl.
There are make-shift irons
With their "dope" and fuss,
But HOTPOINT irons
Are the irons for us.

ELEVEN DIE WHEN LAUNCH OVERTURNS

Apprentices at Naval School Thrown Into Lake.

Waukegan, Ill., Sept. 17.—Five apprentices at the United States naval school are dead and six are missing following the overturning of a thirty-six-foot launch in Lake Michigan.

The launch, manned by twenty-four rookies, most of them the newest at the station, many of whom could not swim, set out under Chief Gunner's Mate Negus. Some of the boys became seasick and Negus put about to make the shore. A stronger wind had come up and was kicking up the sea. When the boat turned so that the waves hit her broadside several of the rookies leaped into the water. This caused the boat to capsize.

More than 100 persons standing on the shore saw the accident and thought it was some kind of a maneuver the boys were being put through. In about ten minutes the first boy reached the shore and the crowd learned that it was witnessing a tragedy. Fourteen boys managed to swim to the land. The bodies of five were taken from the water shortly afterward.

SEVEN THOUSAND IN LINE

Grand Army Veterans Parade at Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Sept. 12.—Marching with faltering steps and tattered battleflags flying 7,000 veterans of the conflict between the states paraded through the streets of Los Angeles.

Here and there along the route bands of girls scattered blossoms at the feet of the marchers or quenched their thirst with lemonade.

Ambulances were stationed at intervals and rest stations were established in each block; but few of the old soldiers faltered and at the end of the one and four-fifths mile journey they passed the reviewing stand with a hearty cheer for their commander-in-chief.

HAYWOOD HELD FOR TRIAL

I. W. W. Leader Pleads Not Guilty to Conspiracy Charge.

Lawrence, Mass., Sept. 17.—William D. Haywood, general organizer of the Industrial Workers of the World, pleaded not guilty before Judge John F. Quinn in the superior court here to two indictments charging him with conspiracy in connection with last winter's textile strike in this city. He was held for trial under $1,000 bonds. No date for the trial was set.
