Good Roads Day

The Colorado Good Roads association is planning this year to have the good roads day observed on the same date in all the counties in the state, some time in April, when it is hoped that thousands of men and hundreds of teams will be seen at work on one road and that their labors will extend over a distance of more than 200 miles along the Santa Fe trail and the Rainbow route. The campaign for 5,000 members for the association is meeting with marked success. In all parts of the state meetings are being held each week. Last week Otero county headed the list with an accession of 100 members.

Good roads mean more to the farmer than to any other class of people and they should take a lively and permanent interest in the movement. A letter to W. H. Emmons, secretary, room 312 Chamber of Commerce building, Denver, will receive prompt attention and much literature bearing upon this important matter may be secured.

Divorce Ring Latest

That new social conditions produce new fashions is demonstrated by a recent incident in the divorce colony of Chicago.

A member of that colony, Mrs. Marina Parker, appeared at a gathering of her fellow members wearing a plain gold band ring on the little finger of her right hand, and when asked about it she explained that it was her "divorce ring." The wearing of such a ring by a divorced woman, she went on to say, will save her from many embarrassing inquiries. It will clearly indicate the wearer's matrimonial status, just as a white ruff on a widow's bonnet indicates hers, with the result that nobody need ask what might prove to be annoying questions. Moreover, as Mrs. Parker points out, the divorce ring is economical. All the divorced woman has to do is to have her old wedding ring cut down so that it will fit the little finger of her right hand. Nothing could be simpler.

G. O. P. Doings

The Republican state central committee has selected Colorado Springs as the place and March 27 as the date for the convention to select delegates to the national convention. It also selected Denver and August 1 as the place and date for the assembly which is to be held under the new primary law. Both convention and assembly will have 902 delegates, selected on a basis of two at large for each county and one for each 125 votes or major fraction thereof cast for John B. Stephen for governor a year ago last fall.

Novel Calendar

Perhaps no one refers to a calendar more frequently than the traveler. The first railroad to recognize this need of its patrons is the Denver & Rio Grande, which has just incorporated in its regular monthly folder a "Ready Reference Calendar" for the year, and to facilitate the finding of dates when approaching special rates will be in effect these dates are printed in red from month to month. This is an innovation which will certainly be appreciated by the traveling public.

PASTOR RUSSELL AT THE CHINESE PARIS

No Burning Hell For Heathen Mentioned In the Bible.

Rightly Understood the Bible's Message is One of Great Joy For All People—Tells That He Himself Was Once on Life's Sea Without Chart or Compass.

PASTOR RUSSELL

Shanghai, China, Feb. 7th. — The Committee of Foreign Missions Investigation seemed pleased with its reception here. Special honors were accorded General Hall and Pastor Russell, the former because of his official position as second in command of the United States Army, the latter as the Chairman of the Committee. We report Pastor Russell's discourse:—

Pastor Russell greatly enjoyed his visit to the Chinese Paris. It was an experience he had longed for from childhood. Early in life he had inquired respecting the fate of the heathen and had received the answer that "without faith it is impossible to please God," and that "there is none other Name given under heaven whereby we must be saved" than the name of Jesus, and through faith in His blood. He then inquired the fate of the unsaved, and got the answer of all "orthodox creeds," that such would be consigned for all eternity to a place where they would suffer indescribable tortures.

Supposing that the Bible was the foundation of these creeds he abandoned the Bible, and for nearly two years was on the sea of life without chart or compass, seeking after a true God not less noble and loving and just than the very best of His human creatures.

Feeling sure that a wise, just, loving God, having made man with mental capacity to appreciate Himself, would make a revelation of His character and His purposes, he sought for a book containing such a revelation of the Divine will as his heart and head could accept. Having abandoned the Bible, he sought the teachings of other sacred books of the world, only to find them still more disappointing.

Hungry for soul, he returned to the Bible, thinking possibly he had studied it before through the distorted spectacles of human creeds. His fresh investigations brought a blessing! Nowhere had he found so glorious a representation of the true, Divine character as in Jesus and His teachings! Truly, he said, "Never man spake like this man!" Finally he saw the great difficulty which had blinded himself and others to the Divine love and gracious plan of the Bible.

The Resurrection of the Dead.

This discovery was that the penalty for sin is not everlasting torture after death, and that the Bible does not so teach. It declares, "The wages of sin is death;" "The soul that sinneth, it shall die." (Romans vi, 23; Ezekiel xviii, 20.) He perceived that for six thousand years the world has been suffering the very penalty which God declared to Adam, "Thou shalt surely die"; "In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, until thou return to the ground from whence thou wast taken."

He sought the Bible remedy for all this and found that no remedy could be applied only as the Divine sentence should be settled for Adam by a substitute—that then only could the curse be removed. In full harmony with all this came the Scriptural presentation that the Only Begotten Son of God had left His spiritual plane of glory and become a Man, that "He by the grace of God should taste death for every man"; "Christ died for our sins, according to the Scriptures, and rose again for our justification."

Pursuing this Bible study he soon found that the hope of humanity centers in the resurrection of the dead: "As by a man came death, by a Man also comes the resurrection of the dead: for as all in Adam die, even so all in Christ shall be made alive—every man in his own order," or rank. (1 Corin. thians xv, 21, 22.)

Two Very Different Salvations.

The Pastor was glad as he thought of the hundreds of millions of patient Chinese who will have a share in the great redemption secured by the death of Jesus, and not only so, but their ancestors, thousands of millions, will also have a share, for "Jesus Christ by the grace of God tasted death for every man"; "He is a propitiation [satisfaction] for our sins [the Church's sins], and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world." Here are the two different salvations secured through the death of Jesus. Only one of these has yet been made effective—"ours"—not the world's. Ours is to be the First Resurrection, the world's is to be a subsequent one. The elect Church, of which Jesus is the Head, and his saintly followers the members, will reign for a thousand years, overthrowing sin and death, breaking the shackles of ignorance and superstition, uplifting humanity out of sin and degradation to full human perfection. The earth is to be man's Paradise, which will reach perfection by the close of Messiah's reign. All who then reject this light will be destroyed in the Second Death.
