We are still in the dark concerning the personnel of President-elect Wilson's cabinet, but there is some satisfaction this week in knowing that Joseph Patrick Tumulty will be continued as his private secretary.

The government has secured a conviction and jail sentence for all the officers, directors and representatives of the National Cash Register Company in the Federal Court at Cincinnati, and Judge Hollister has even denied a motion for a new trial.

The people of Florida are more or less worried and anxious just now because of the reported serious illness of Mr. Henry M. Flagler at his home in St. Augustine.

M. A. Wilkinson of this city and a man who stands high in the estimation of Palatkans, has been induced to announce his candidacy for appointment to the office of U. S. Marshal for the southern district of Florida.

If Senator Stringer will cut that $50,000,000 good roads bonding proposition of his in two in the middle, then subtract $5,000,000 more from the result and then cut the remainder in two in the center, there may be a chance of his getting something done for good roads in the next legislature.

Over at Bannell in St. Johns county where they distill turpentine, saw logs and raise Irish potatoes by the hundreds of acres and have a community that is getting rapidly to the front as the center of one of the most progressive farming sections in all Florida.

Old age as it comes in the orderly process of nature is a beautiful and majestic thing. It stands for experience, knowledge, wisdom, counsel.

any of our school kids can easily compute to mean $120,000 in real money. Besides, Mr. Boaz, who hails from North Georgia, is going to be a booster for good roads and every thing else which will contribute to the comfort and happiness and progress of his section; he is also a democrat of the progressive sort who might want to break into the Legislature sometime and help do things.

"Pastor Russell," the religious fakir with flowing locks and sanctimonious whiskers, who with the aid of the Times-Union and other don't give-dam papers of the country, is trying to build up an attractive religion by eliminating hell and all other disagreeable odors from its doctrines, addressed a gathering of people in Duval theatre, Jacksonville, last Sunday.

Look at some of these named here: He is made wisdom to us. That was an apt word to commend Christ to the Greeks who prided themselves on their wisdom.

But wisdom that made us aware of our wrongness, merely, would have been dreadful to us. It had made us despair. We needed some one to be righteous for us.

You will not fail to note how God brings our needs and their supply together. We, the needy, are "in Christ Jesus" if we are joined to Him.

Don't Minerva.

"Minerva—don't," says William Allen White in his Emporia Gazette. "You are just a little girl only in high school. You should be kept in simple girlie clothes, you should have your head full of your books."

Expert Coaching in Athletics. Proper coaching in athletics is half the battle; it teaches one how to use his bodily powers most effectively, with the least waste of strength.

A Saturday Sermonette.

"But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who, of God, is made unto us wisdom and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption."

In this world, God is said to have done two things: First, He has joined us to Christ, our head, just as the members of our several bodies are joined to our head, and share its life.

Some Poems Worth Reading.

On the Death of Lincoln.

[This poem by Walt Whitman, written at the time of Lincoln's assassination, is one of the tenderest, most pathetic and most beautiful in the English language and its publication in this time, soon after the birthday of the martyr president, will have deep interest to this united people.—Ed.]

O Captain! my Captain! our fearful trip is done, The ship has weathered every race, the prize we sought is won.

My Captain does not answer, his lips are pale and still, My father does not feel my arm, he has no pulse nor will.
