For County Superintendent

More than once the friends of Miss Carrie Stradal have urged her to become the Republican candidate for superintendent of the Trego county schools, but she has always declined the honor for the reasons that she wished to complete her college course and acquire some experience as a high school teacher. All this she has now accomplished and her friends are again urging her to become a candidate with the result that we are authorized to say that she will be pleased to accept the nomination. Miss Stradal is well qualified for the position by preparation and experience and is very favorably known throughout the county. If nominated and elected, of which there is little doubt, she will make a very capable superintendent. She is now teaching in the high school at Sharon, Kansas, and doing splendid work. We understand that Mrs. Philbrook-Jones will not be a candidate for re-election.

SEED CORN

The Farmer's Committee have bargained for a car load of White Hickory seed corn which is two years old, absolutely dry and sound and grown near Paleo. It is impossible to ship it in the ear because it is so easily shelled, so it will be shelled and graded and we will guarantee 90 per cent of it to grow. It will be delivered to the farmers at exact cost, not to exceed $1.50 per bushel and less if there is loss in shipment. Must immediately get the car load subscribed or we can not ship. See some member of committee at once or leave order at either bank.

Charles Folkers, Secretary Committee.

Glorious News

comes from Dr. J. T. Curtis, Dwight, Kan., he writes: "I not only have cured bad cases of eczema in my patients with Electric Bitters, but also cured myself by them of the same disease. I feel sure they will benefit any case of eczema." This shows what thousands have proved that Electric Bitters is a most effective blood purifier. Its an excellent remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates the liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Price 50 cents. Satisfaction guaranteed by Gibson.

PASTOR RUSSELL IN CALCUTTA.

Investigation of Missions in India in Progress.

Juggernaut and the Ganges Visited. Investigation Committee Go Next to Benares, Burning Ghats, Agra, Etc. Pastor Russell Addressed Large Audiences in Calcutta.

PASTOR RUSSELL

Calcutta, Feb. 18.—The foreign Missions Investigation Committee, appointed by the International Bible Students Association, is here. The Committee expedite their work by each member giving special attention to a different feature of the investigation. This is their third week in India and they have already traveled nearly two thousand miles. They are keenly interested in the heathen and in the Bible, but they declined to give in advance any hint of what their report will be as respects the missionary work here.

Pastor Russell, Chairman of the Committee, preached twice to-day to large and attentive audiences in our finest auditorium. One of his addresses, from Jeremiah ix, 23, 24, we report. He said:—

Your "City of Palaces" greatly impresses me, as doubtless it does all who visit it. But as I look at its splendor I am reminded of that portion of my text which declares, "Let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth Me, that I am the Lord, which exerciseth loving kindness, judgment and righteousness in the earth." Wherever we go we perceive that man, by virtue of his creation, is a worshipper.

I stopped enroute at Juggernaut; the very name called up the stories of my childhood which so greatly aroused my sympathies for the poor heathen. Missionary reports told of how in ignorance the natives would throw themselves before the great Car of Juggernaut, feeling it an honor to thus sacrifice their lives. And now, here am I on the Ganges River, of which in childhood I heard so much that thrilled my heart with sympathy—how mothers threw their babes into the Ganges, not because they had no sympathy with their offspring, but because they desired to sacrifice to and propitiate their gods.

"Now We Know In Part."

Now that I am here I do thank God that, although the heathen have not been converted to a true knowledge of the great Jehovah, they have, nevertheless, come under the strong hand of the British Government, which, whatever its defects, seeks at least to protect its subjects from the extremes of their own ignorance and superstition.

St. Paul wrote, "Now we know in part, but then we shall know even as also we are known." (1 Cor. xiii, 12) Alas! How every true Christian must realize how his own knowledge of God and that of his forefathers has so slightly exceeded the knowledge of the heathen, that he found it difficult to "glory" in his understanding of God. Only those who are adherents to the declarations of the Bible that "God is Love," that His mercy endureth ever, that He is like a pitying father, that He is a God of All Grace, the Father of Mercies, whose loving kindness we cannot measure—only such have the assurance which enable them to offset the horrible theories of our creeds formulated in a darker past, and which told us more horrible things respecting our God and His treatment of mankind than our poor heathen brethren ever imagined.

But now the better day is dawning! We are seeing the glorious outlines of the Divine character in the Divine Plan as never before! Our hearts first led the way and rebelled against the dictum of our fallacious reasoning. And now, in God's due time, when nature is yielding up her secrets and chemistry is making the world anew, behold the key to the Divine Word is thrust into our hands, unlocking its mysteries and explaining its parabolic symbols to our astonished faith!

Knowing Our God.

Our Redeemer declared, "This is life eternal, that they might know Thee, the only true and living God, and Jesus Christ, whom Thou hast sent." Evidently the great Teacher had in mind the thought of our text—not merely a knowledge about God, but an acquaintanceship with Him, such as can come only through a fellowship of spirit and an understanding of the Divine Program.

In our blindness of the past, assuming that all the non-elect would be consigned to an eternity of torture, we published in our missionary reports that ninety thousand every day go down into death, into Christless graves—and, by inference, into eternal torture.

Now we read God's character in fairer lines. Now we perceive that for a thousand years, the Elect, on the heavenly plane, invisible to men, "like unto the angels," will live and reign with Christ (Rev. xx, 4) for the blessing of the non-elect—for their uplifting from conditions of sin and imperfection back to the glorious heights of the image of God in the flesh.

FORD

WHAT'S BEHIND IT?

What is it that is selling 75,000 Ford cars in 1912? What is behind this enormous demand? Is it not unusually clever advertising? NO! Ford advertising never attempts to be "clever"—never aims at the spectacular—never dallies with the English language—merely states the facts of the case so that he who runs may read, and, reading, stop running and buy a FORD. Yet that is not the big factor.

Is it unusually clever dealers? No! Ford dealers rank at the top—are all wide-awake, keen, obliging, proud of the car and the good name of the firm. But there are many clever dealers trying to sell other automobiles.

What Is It?

Nothing but this—the guarantee of accomplishment. What sells these 75,000 is the 100,000 Ford cars already in use (one out of every five on the street). Satisfied buyers are the backbone of the Ford success.

COMFORTING WORDS

Many a Wa-Keeney Household Will Find Them So

To have pains and aches of a bad back removed; to be entirely free from an annoying, dangerous urinary disorders is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. To tell how this great change can be brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of Wa-Keeney readers.

A. J. Johnson of Wa-Keeney, Kansas, says: "I often had to arise at night to pass the kidney secretions and was also bothered by pain in my back. For a year I was afflicted in this way and the medicine I used had no effect. Finally I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Gibson's Drug store and their use cured me. I consider this preparation the best one to be had for kidney complaint." (Statement given April 13, 1907.)

THE CURE LASTED

On July 7, 1910, Mr. Johnson, said: "I have had no need of Doan's Kidney's Pills during the past three years. You are welcome to continue the publication of my former endorsement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

OLD FASHIONED FAMILY PEW

In That Rested the Strength of the Church, and It Should Be Restored.

One sometimes hears a deal of nonsense about the danger of creating a prejudice against religion in the mind of a child by making him attend church once a week. The danger would seem to be about one-tenth as great as that of arousing a prejudice against education by sending him to school twice a day. In both cases the remedy lies in the good sense of the parents and their estimate of the value of religion and education carefully instilled into the child's mind.

The strength of the church has been in the old-fashioned pew, with father at one end and mother at the other, and a stairway of more or less restless children. From that pew have gone out the upright, devout, consecrated men and women who have loved the church and maintained her worship and done her work in their several generations. For the sake of the church, and especially for the sake of the children, let it be restored.

If it be impossible for the children to attend both Sunday school and the church service, this writer would by all means teach them the catechism at home and bring them to church that they may learn to worship God in the congregation of his people.—Southern Churchman.

MONARCHS OF ENGLAND.

The first to rule over all England was Egbert, King of Wessex, who united all the various petty kingdoms and became King of England in 827. The greater kingdom was disrupted from 878 to 958, when the Danes ruled north of the Thames. In the latter year King Edgar reunited the kingdom and since that time it has never been partitioned. Between Edmund Ironside (1016) and Edward the Confessor (1042) three Danish kings ruled all England, Canute, Harold I and Hardicanute. The first king of Great Britain was James I. (1603). The first king of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland was George III. From the conquest of Ireland in 1177 by Henry II, the kings of England were styled Lord of Ireland until the assumption of the title King of Ireland by Henry VIII., and thereafter this title was used until the act of union in 1801. The imperial sovereignty of India was assumed by Queen Victoria.

LESSONS IN ETIQUETTE.

Those who have dined in restaurants or hotels habitually will find that they have fallen into many unpleasant little ways, permissible possibly toward a landlord, but not toward a hostess. They feel that they have the privilege both to criticize openly and to imply criticism either of the food itself or of the way in which it is served. Women who cherish the ambition of making poor, forlorn habits of hotels happy with "home cooking" have their hopes dashed by this ungracious habit. Let those, too, who have fallen into the habit of dipping a spoon or fork into a glass of water and then wiping it on a napkin before using it beware of those moments when they become deeply absorbed in conversation at the house of a friend or even at the home table. Could any habit be more insulting to a hostess?—Harper's Bazar.
