What Cuticura Soap and Ointment Have Done for Skin-Tortured Babies

Letters from Three Grateful Parents

Mrs. Egbert Sheldon, Litchfield, Conn., writes: "My little son began to have sores come out on his face, I had a physician treat him, but the sores grew worse, they began to come on his arms, body and chest. Then I called another physician. Still he grew worse. At the end of about a year and a half of suffering we had to give up. I got a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment and used them in the following directions. At the end of two months the sores were all healed. My precious child would have died."

H. M. Fogel, R. F. D. 1, Bath, Va., writes: "When my baby was two months old it got eczema on top of her head, on her face and inside her nose and mouth. It itched so frightfully that she would not rest and her mother was forced to sit in a rocking chair with the baby day and night. We got some Cuticura Soap and Ointment. In three days the crust began to come off and now the baby is cured without a mark. Cuticura seems a wonderful remedy for this disease and anyone having eczema should not delay in getting it."

Mrs. Freeman Craver, 311 Lewis St., Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "When my little girl was about eight months old, she was taken with a very irritating breaking out. I consulted our physician and found she was suffering from eczema. I used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I did as I found directions and she was cured. The Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. A liberal sample of each, with 25-page booklet on the skin, will be sent, post-free, on application to 'Cuticura,' Dept. J, Boston.

A Journal Want Ad. will beckon to you a desk, the skilled, competent helpers in any line of endeavor—bright, clear-minded men and women who will perform their labors with a willingness and zest that will show its effect all through your business or home.

REPLIES TO CRITICISM BY C. W. HUMPHREYS

Editor Pensacola Journal. Having seen the false statement in your paper concerning Pastor Russell's sermons, will say Mr. C. W. Humphreys had better read more than the headlines before he condemns the sermon. Pastor Russell does not deny the resurrection or the deity of Christ or the inspiration of the Scriptures. To prove this read I Thessalonians, 4th chapter, 14th verse; Daniel, 12th chapter, 2nd verse. The Bible says "Judge not, for it will be measured unto you again." R. M. ROSENER.

FAILED TO FURNISH ANY PROOF OF ASSERTIONS

Editor Pensacola Journal. In Sunday's issue of your paper I notice a letter signed by C. W. Humphreys in which the writer takes occasion to criticize the sermons of Pastor Russell as published in many of the leading newspapers, and in which he makes some assertions which, if true, must be considered as very grave charges against that eminent divine. Now with the first paragraph of Mr. Humphreys' letter no honest-minded person could possibly find fault. The sentiments expressed in that portion of his letter should be the sentiments of every person, whether making any pretension to Christianity or not.

In other parts of his letter, however, Mr. Humphreys seems to have lost that spirit of fairness and justice which he prides himself with possessing. In other words he does not accord to his brethren the full measure of liberty he claims for himself.

In the first place, Mr. Humphreys' letter is a mass of assertions without proof. He assumes certain things to be true relative to the teachings of Pastor Russell and ignores the fact that a great many people who may chance to read his letter may refuse to believe his assertions. Mr. Humphreys accuses Pastor Russell of teaching anti-scriptural doctrine, of denying the deity of Christ, and of seeking to destroy the foundations of Christianity. In support of these grave accusations Mr. Humphreys has not offered the least shadow of proof. This, it seems to me, is not just either to Pastor Russell or to the large number of people who profess to believe in his teachings. Mr. Humphreys should bear in mind the fact that an assertion is not proof and in making such grave accusations against Pastor Russell, or any other man, he should be abundantly supplied with all necessary proof and it should be given at the time when the accusations are made.

Doubtless there are many people who read The Journal who, in all probability, read the letter of Mr. Humphreys who believe in the system of theology taught by Pastor Russell. Evidently these are the people Mr. Humphreys expects to reach. Now it is the opinion of the writer that so far from having the effect intended by Mr. Humphreys and winning the people from a belief of that kind, it will have the opposite result of strengthening their belief in Mr. Russell's theory of theological faith. They will reason—and very justly so—that accusations of so grave a nature, unsupported by evidence, must come from an unreliable source and they will not consider them as worthy of serious investigation.

This is not written with any intention of antagonizing or reviling offenses to anyone, but with a view to presenting the question from another standpoint, and of calling the attention of the public to the fact that we must not be hasty in passing our judgment upon matters pertaining to our eternal life; neither should we be too ready to condemn our fellow-man without a hearing.

MRS. GEORGIA RICE SIMPLY MISUNDERSTANDS PASTOR RUSSELL'S SERMONS

Editor Pensacola Journal. I note in your Sunday issue a complaint from one C. W. Humphreys, of Milton, Fla., in re Pastor Russell's sermons. The charge is made that Pastor Russell denies the resurrection, the inspiration of the Bible and the divinity of Christ. I am very sure that Pastor Russell will not see this slander upon his name, but his many readers, who read his weekly sermons, will resent such an insult.

I have been reading the sermons for some time and find that your correspondent has made an error. I have said the reverse of what he did say. Pastor Russell's sermons are appearing in over one thousand weekly and daily newspapers in this country and Canada and reaching approximately ten million readers weekly. This seems to me a great mystery. It is a greater mystery will be realized when he learns that there is not a book in the world, in the English language, that has a greater circulation than "The Divine Plan of the Ages," Pastor Russell's writing, outside the Bible and the Bible only has a greater circulation.

Y. Pastor Russell teaches a resurrection and his recent Easter sermon is a proof. I find that it is about the only reasonable solution of the resurrection I have seen presented, but if your correspondent has a more reasonable presentation I am sure that it would be appreciated, but it would hardly reach all the readers of the Brooklyn tabernacle sermons.

Commenting on Pastor Russell's writing, "Bill Arp," in the Atlanta Constitution, said: "This wonderful book makes no assertions that are not well sustained by the Scriptures. It is built up stone by stone and upon every stone is the text, and it becomes a pyramid of God's love and mercy and wisdom. There is nothing in the Bible that the author denies or doubts, but there are many texts that he throws a flood of light that seems to uncover its meaning."

Your correspondent says that he seeks to destroy the very foundation of Christian faith. I know that is not so, for his life is devoted to work of publishing Scriptural knowledge and Christian encouragement and in dedicating his work he uses this language: "Dedicated, to make all see what is the mystery of the mystery which, from the beginning of the world, hath been hid in God." "Wherein He hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence, having made known to us the mystery of His will, according to His good pleasure which He hath purposed in Himself: that in the dispensation of the fullness of times He might gather together in one all things, under Christ." Eph. 3; 4, 5, 9; 1:8-10.

Your correspondent should inform himself really what the pastor does teach instead of making false charges and then "put us on our guard" with offering a single proof of his assertions.

We are living in a day when people do not take such assertions as C. W. Humphreys makes seriously, but are content to investigate for themselves. Thanking you for your valuable space, W. G. PORTER.

WILL CITY OFFICIALS HAVE THE TINY SHED ABOLISHED?

Editor Pensacola Journal: Without further dispensing with journalists dew (editorial or communicated), the calloused conscience of the average Public Utility Corporation is as difficult to arouse as it is to create enthusiasm with a subscription list at a church gathering.

Therefore, I beg your indulgence for asking directing the attention of the Passing Throng to the Tiny Shed, at the intersection of Palafox and Gregory streets.

Not, however, that the conscience of the Pensacola Electric company is calloused because it maintains the Tiny Shed as a transfer station for the ostensible comfort and convenience of its patrons.

Indeed, far be it from my purpose to so aver, even if I were possessed of evidence that a Monopolistic Corporation could have a conscience to become calloused.

It is a generally accepted axiom, however, that the last consideration of a Public Utility Corporation with a Monopoly, is the comfort and convenience of its patrons.

Also, it is generally conceded that the title of the Pensacola Electric company to a niche in the Monopolistic Hall of Fame can't be successfully contested. Therefore, maintaining the Tiny Shed for the alleged comfort and convenience of the Passing Throng, is but an observance of the recognized ethics of Monopolistic Corporation-dom. And, whether or not, the Tiny Shed is an architectural abortion marred by the superlative beauties of an exquisite landscape; whether or not, the Tiny Shed is adequate in its dimensions, to its purposes; whether or not, the Tiny Shed affords ordinary com-

Former Newspaper Man is Married.

The marriage in Pensacola last night of Mr. W. B. Crawford, former editor of the Pensacola News, but now a practicing attorney of Kissimmee, and Miss Enid Barlow, was an event in which the entire state press, as well as hundreds of other friends, will have a direct personal interest.

No finer fellow or truer friend ever graced the editorial sanctum than "Bill" Crawford, as his friends affectionately call him, and the little woman who has done him the one great honor of joining her destiny with his, is not only beautiful in face and figure, but her unusual qualities of head and heart make her a prize such as few men are so fortunate as to secure.

The entire Journal staff congratulate Mr. Crawford upon the wise and happy step which he has taken and they wish both him and his fair bride all of the good things of life that this world can possibly hold in store for them.

Why Not Potato Clubs?

Many sections of Florida have slept over their rights and have made no attempt whatever to organize corn clubs and in this way get the boys interested in agriculture. In regard to the corn clubs, it is now too late to remedy what has been neglected, but Florida boys might go the boys of other states one better and organize potato clubs.

Sweet potatoes are very profitable in Florida, especially in West Florida, where the land seems well adapted to their growth, which will make the proposition an attractive one for the boys if the grown-ups will do their part and offer a little encouragement and organize the clubs in the various counties.

The boys should have joined the corn clubs so as to have entered the competition for the national prizes with the boys of the other states, but for a money-making scheme the cultivation of an acre of sweet potatoes will prove more profitable and require less work and expense, and in this line will have no competition for, as a sweet potato producing section, West Florida has no equal.

According to the report of the commissioner of agriculture as many as four hundred bushels of potatoes may be harvested from one acre if it is properly fertilized and cultivated. Almost any boy in West Florida can prepare the ground and cultivate an acre of potatoes without any outside help, and the potatoes may be readily marketed at from fifty cents to one dollar a bushel. Agreeing that four hundred bushels is an extraordinary crop and taking half the amount, it will be seen that a boy could clear in the neighborhood of one hundred dollars from one acre.

Let the Inter-State Fair Association or the commercial bodies of the different sections offer prizes for the largest crops of potatoes grown by boys. Let a state organization similar to the national corn clubs be organized, only let it be known as the boys' potato clubs.

Any money given in prizes for the boys will be well spent and will help develop the agricultural possibilities of the state. Give the boys a show and we will have the greatest agricultural state in the Union.
