BROOKLYN ABERNACLE BIBLE STUDIES OLD TESTAMENT TIMES

SET AS A WATCHMAN

Ezekiel III—Oct. 1
"Hear the Word of My mouth and give them warning from Me."—Ezekiel III, 17.

Ezekiel ranks amongst the great Prophets. Most realistic were his visions and powerfully described a portion of his prophecy was written before the final serious troubles upon the kingdom of Judah, which resulted in the overthrow of Zedekiah's kingdom. The remainder of the book was written after the complete overthrow of the kingdom. The entire prophecy was given in Babylon, Ezekiel himself residing there and ministering as a Prophet chiefly to the captives, arousing their hearts to an appreciation of their situation and to a hope of return, in God's appointed time to their own land.

It would be a mistake, however, to suppose that Ezekiel's mission was entirely or even chiefly to the Jews of his time. Rather we are to understand, through St. Peter's statement, that he, with other Prophets of old, spoke and wrote things which they themselves and the people who heard them did not understand—things which God did not wish to have understood until after the giving of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost—things which would be "meat in due season" for the spiritual Israelites throughout this Age.

For instance, when Ezekiel tells the people, "The soul that sinneth, it shall die," he was delivering a truth applicable to the Gospel Church during this Age, and a truth which will be applicable to the whole world during the Messianic reign, but which was not applicable to the Jews at the time of the utterance. Why? Because the whole world at that time was lying in the Wicked One; as St. Paul explains, they were all under sentence of death already through Adam's disobedience. Hence they could not be put on trial for life, individually, until first they should be redeemed from the Adamic condemnation.

The blood of bulls and goats could never take away sin from the Jews; redemption could come only in the Divinely appointed way—through the death of the Savior; and the Savior had not yet come, had not yet brought life and immortality to light through the Gospel. And as for Israel's Law Covenant, it was merely typical of the New Covenant of the future.

INDIVIDUAL CUPS AT FIRST UNITED

The Rev. T. H. Hanna, D. D., will preach tomorrow at the United Presbyterian Church, Third and Broome streets, both morning and evening, with communion service at the close of the morning sermon. The individual Communion Service will be first used. The morning subject of sermon will be "My Blood Was Shed for Many—My Blood Was Shed for you." The evening subject will be "Phoebe, My Sister." This will be for the Woman's Missionary Society, who celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of the organization of the General Society and who will take the annual thank offering in the evening.

EVENING SERVICES RESUMED AT GREEN HILL PRESBYTERIAN.

Sabbath will be marked for the Green Hill church by the resumption of the evening services, which have been suspended during the summer months. The minister, the Rev. William M. Keffer, will preach in the morning on "The Christian Church" in the course of which sermon he will speak of the Inter-Church Federation proposed for Wilmington. THEIR MOUTHS AGAIN BY WAY OF BOASTING OR COMPLAINT.

This will be after God's favor shall have been restored to them and He shall be pacified toward them in respect to all of their idolatrous doings of the past. The pacification of Divine Justice is found in the redemption accomplished by the Lord and Savior.

Ezekiel is one of the prophets referred to by St. Peter as prophesying respecting coming "times of restitution"—"Blessings of Messiah's Kingdom" to be inaugurated at the close of this Age, as soon as the Church shall have been elected to be the Royal Priesthood and shall be glorified with the great Prophet, Priest, King, Mediator, their Head and Lord. St. Peter declares that these coming "times of restitution" are mentioned by "all the Holy Prophets since the world began," and Ezekiel's reference to them mark him as one of the Holy Prophets—Acts III, 19-23.

Viewing our study from this standpoint we perceive that Ezekiel stood for, or represented the Son of Man, the great Teacher, the Redeemer; he also represented the members of the Bride of Christ, whom the glorious Head may, from time to time, use as His mouthpieces.

It is worthy of note here that neither the Prophet nor those whom he typified ever commissioned to say to mankind that the sinner would be eternally roasted, nor suffer eternally in any condition. The extreme penalty for sin presented to us in God's Word is, "The soul that sinneth, it shall die." In other words, God declares that He will not give eternal life to the wicked, but only to those who will turn from sin to righteousness. Thus we read, "Turn ye, turn ye, for why will ye die?" And again, "He that hath the Son hath life, and he that hath not the Son shall not see life (everlasting), but the wrath of God abideth on him"—the wrath or sentence of death everlasting.

All of God's consecrated people of today are in duty-bound to make clear this feature of the Divine Program, that all willful sin will bring death, that all willful sinners, as St. Paul declares, shall be punished with everlasting destruction—not with everlasting torment (II Thessalonians I, 9). Every member of the Body of Christ is a watchman on the walls of Zion, even though today Zion be in Babylon, as were those typically addressed by the Prophet Ezekiel.

Absorption Process Makes Faces Young

(From The Home Maker)
Success has at last come to scientists who for years have sought some effectual method of removing the outer facial skin in cases of unsightly complexion, which would be both painless and entirely non-injurious. The new process is so simple the means so ordinary, so inexpensive, the wonder is that no one had discovered the same long ago. It has been amply demonstrated that common mercolized wax, to be had at any drug-store, completely removes, by gentle absorption, all the withered, lifeless cuticle, showing the youthful, roselike skin underneath. The mercolized wax is applied at night—like cold cream, but not rubbed in—and washed off in the morning. The absorption also cleanses clogged pores, increasing the skin's breathing capacity and capillary circulation, preserving the tone, color and natural beauty of the new skin.
