

City Churches of All Denominations Unusually Active as Fall Season Opens

METHODISTS' ANNIVERSARY

Eastlake Church to Observe Sixth Year Work Coming Week

NEED $2200 TO RID CHURCH OF DEBT

The sixth anniversary of Eastlake Methodist Episcopal Church, Thirtieth and Tenth streets will be observed the coming week.

The Rev. J. Howard Gray, who was pastor when the present church was built, will preach at both the morning and evening services tomorrow.

On Monday evening a union class meeting will be held to which the classes of the several Methodist churches in the city will be invited.

Wednesday evening will be devoted to a music by the orchestra in charge of Charles Cremo.

The anniversary exercises will be concluded Thursday evening with a cantata "The Prodigal Son," to be given by the choir with J. S. T. Boardman, as leader.

Great interest is being taken in the attempt to raise $2,200 to secure Mr. Gambrell's gift of $1,000, which will enable the trustees to pay off the entire indebtedness of $3,200.

An effort will be made Sunday to send up the mercury in the debt thermometer by voluntary contributions.

MORE EGGS if you will use Pratt's Poultry Regulator. Guaranteed or money back.

DR. MACNICHOIL IN PULPIT. The Rev. Dr. Macnicheil will preach both morning and evening in Asbury Church tomorrow.

METHODISTS WILL RALLY

Mt. Salem Congregation to Meet for Special Services on Sunday

BROOKLYN LAYMAN THE SPECIAL SPEAKER

Mt. Salem M. E. Church will observe "Rally Day" tomorrow both in the matter of the church congregations and the Sunday school.

The program is as follows: Selection, Orchestra; singing by school, "Be Not Idle;" prayer, the Rev. William Hamilton; singing by school, "Work Today;" selection, Orchestra; history of the school, Frank P. Gentile, superintendent; singing by school, "Lift the Banner Higher;"

remembrances, former superintendents; duet and chorus, "At the Gates of Gold;" address, Frank L. Brown, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; singing by school, "The Call of Christ;" address, the Rev. S. M. Morgan, pastor; offering; selection, Orchestra; singing by school, "Yes, the Lord Can Depend on Me."

An attractive souvenir program has been prepared which in addition to the views which it contains will also contain a list of the pastors and superintendents with their years of service, making it of historic value to those receiving them.

Miss Mary Carleton's address at Mt. Salem last Sunday morning captured the entire audience. Her story of Chinese life and of her purpose to return to her people with the story of Christ after her graduation at Goucher College next June, was interesting.

NEED OF STRONG MEN

Dr. Reed to Discuss Subject in Grace Church Pulpit

CHOIR HAS SPECIAL MUSIC FOR THE DAY

The congregation of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church last Sunday morning was especially noted for the unusually large number of men present.

The preaching of Dr. George Edward Reed, ex-president of Dickinson College, is more and more attracting the attention of the men of this city.

The attendance at the sessions of the Sunday school last Sunday was the largest and most enthusiastic since the fall re-opening. The occasion was especially noted for the unusual number of visitors present.

Morning:—Anthem, "Saviour, Again to Thy Dear Name, Shelley; soprano solo, "The Holy City," (by request), Adams; Miss Matthews.

Evening:—Anthem, "Abide With Me," Vogrich; quartet, "Thou' Your Sins Be as Scarlet," Doane.

BROOKLYN TABERNACLE BIBLE STUDIES OLD TESTAMENT TIMES

"SONGS IN THE NIGHT"

Psalm LXXXV—Oct. 29. "The Lord Hath Done Great Things for us Whereof we are Glad."—Psalm CXXVI, 3.

We are still in the night of weeping, sickness, sorrow, sighing and dying continue, and will continue until the glorious morning of Messiah's Kingdom.

At present these sons of God are comparatively little known or recognized amongst men; frequently they are considered "peculiar people," because of their zeal for righteousness and truth and for God.

Our lesson, the 85th Psalm, may properly have several applications. The first of these would be to Israel's deliverance from the Babylonian captivity, when Cyrus gave permission that all who desired might return to Palestine.

A secondary application of the Song is just before us. Israel has been in a far greater captivity to Christendom during the past eighteen centuries.

While the whole creation groans under its load of sin and sorrow, the saints here may sing and rejoice, even in the midst of all the sorrows of life, and even though they share the results of sin as fully or even more fully than do others.

turn of God's ancient people to Divine favor—to Palestine. St. Paul refers to this coming deliverance of Israel, in Romans xi, 25-29. The Deliverer will do more than merely gather them. He will do that which the Apostle says, "This is My Covenant with them, when I shall take away their sins."

Israel's Sins Not Yet Taken Away. Israel's sins have not yet been taken away, even as the world's sins have not yet been taken away.

The world is enslaved by Sin and Death, the twin monarchs who are now reigning and causing mankind to groan. We were born in this enslaved condition; as the Scriptures declare, "Behold, I was shapen in iniquity, in sin did my mother conceive me."

The great Deliverer is the antitypical Cyrus. Soon He will be victorious and will establish His Kingdom under the whole heaven. Soon the Church class, the saintly, "the elect," will be glorified, and then the time will come for the blessing of the non-elect—for their restitution to human perfection and to a world-wide Paradise which Messiah's Kingdom and power will produce.

He must reign until He hath put all enemies under His feet; the last enemy that shall be destroyed is death. Death will be destroyed, sheol, hades, the grave, will be destroyed, by the resurrection of the dead therefrom, "Every one in his own order."

"Songs in the Night He Giveth." While the whole creation groans under its load of sin and sorrow, the saints here may sing and rejoice, even in the midst of all the sorrows of life, and even though they share the results of sin as fully or even more fully than do others.

They have experienced reconciliation to God. (2) They have submitted their wills to His will. They obtained this new relationship by the way of faith in the Redeemer—faith in His blood of Atonement. They entered by the "strait gate" and "narrow way" of consecration to God—surrendering their own wills and consenting to do the Divine will to the best of their ability.

This submission of the will to God and the realization that all their life's affairs are in God's keeping and under His supervision gives rest to the heart. They have a rest and peace in this surrendered condition which they never knew when they sought to gratify self-will and ignored the right of their Creator to the homage of their hearts and the obedience of their lives.

Similarly, these have joy and peace and songs of thankfulness to God because to them He grants a knowledge of His Divine purposes, and shows them things to come. These see beyond the trials and tribulations of the present time—they see the glories that will follow the present time of suffering.

These see that the Church, the saintly few of all denominations and of all nationalities are prospective heirs of God's heirs of glory, honor and immortality and association with the Redeemer in His glorious Kingdom. This encourages them. They see also the outlines of the Divine Program for the blessing of all the families of the earth. When they thus perceive that God is interested in their dear ones who are not saints, and interested in the whole human family, very few of whom are saints, it causes them rejoicing.

CONFERENCE ON FAITH AND ORDER

Bishop Kinsman Member of Episcopal Church Committee on Work

The preliminary commission of the Episcopal Church on a World Conference of Faith and Order, of which the Rt. Rev. Frederick J. Kinsman, of Delaware, is a member, has sent out reports of the work it has done. The purpose of the commission is to invite other churches to appoint commissions, and then to have these bodies unite in a conference to discuss their differences.

CENTRAL PASTOR TALKS OF ELIJAH

"Adorning the Gospel" will be the theme of the morning sermon at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning in Central Presbyterian Church.

The evening service will begin at 7:45 o'clock, the subject being, "God's Call." This is a popular gospel service with gospel singing and teaching. The series of sermons on Elijah is being continued and much appreciated. The regular musical numbers will be given by the choir.
