STRONG SERMON STIRS AUDIENCE

VISITING PASTOR'S TALK UNFETTERED

SAYS GOLDEN RULE IS NOT USED IN BUSINESS

Rev. Dr. Dodd of Baltimore Causes Hearers in Auditorium Thrills of Surprise by Bold Strictures

SHOTS FROM BATTERY OF REV. DR. CHAS. DODD AT TEMPLE BAPTIST

"I dare make the sweeping statement that the business world of this country is considered impossible to live up to the Golden Rule or to practice the teachings of Christ."

Rich communicants and hide-bound dogmatists squirmed together yesterday morning at Temple Baptist church when Rev. Dr. Charles Hastings Dodd, pastor of the Eutaw Place Baptist church of Baltimore, spoke his mind in a sermon that held the crowded auditorium spellbound.

$1.00 Bedspreads for 85c

Completing the July Bedding Sale comes this special sale of bedspreads; all reliable sorts:

There are some ten different patterns and prices, between those of $1 grade at 85c, up to the heavy hemmed ones of $2.25 grade, at $1.75

Some fifty different numbers of the finer grades; one particularly good value for special mention—imported heavy Marseilles spreads; extra large; $4 grade at $3.25

TABLE LINENS

Every table set (cloth and napkins to match) now priced at $10 or above is sharply reduced.

REV. CHARLES T. RUSSELL "I DO NOT BELIEVE in a hell of fire and brimstone, nor do I believe in a heaven of harps and music, and nothing else."

REV. DR. CHARLES T. RUSSELL, pastor of the Brooklyn tabernacle, formerly presided over by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, has been one of the prominent speakers of the convention and has attracted large audiences.

LOWER PRICED SILKS

Every one of these silks bears a lower price than it originally did; not because it is undesirable in any way but because we are making room and reducing stock for the midsummer inventory:

Table with 3 columns: Item, Former Price, Present Price. Includes items like Body Brussels, Axminster, Wilton Velvet, etc.

JULY BEDDING SALE

This July Sale of bedding of all good sorts is proving extremely helpful to scores of thrifty housewives, keepers of lodging houses and hotel men who realize that savings are noteworthy and qualities the best:

White and colored blankets, 12, 11 and 10-4 sizes, are on special sale at prices from $2 to $25; regularly $2.75 to $30 a pair.

INEXPENSIVE HANDKERCHIEFS

We're daily surprising customers with the splendid qualities that we are fortunate enough to be able to offer in all-line handkerchiefs at very low prices:

For example—at ten cents ($1 dozen) we show the best all-line handkerchief in town, and at 20c (6 for $1) there is another line of very sheer, soft linen styles.

ART BY KATHRYN RUCKER

AN EXHIBITION at the Steckel gallery, which will continue indefinitely, with changes from time to time, presents to us a most interesting collection of paintings, both oil and water color.

Mr. Rinch paints flesh that is full of life in color and texture. The garden of chrysantheums, large canvas by Fanny Duval, who is now studying in Paris, is shown.

J. Bond Francisco's landscapes are excellent examples of this versatile artist's interpretation of nature. The Yosemite Valley and Mariposa Big Trees, Francis M. Larkin, S. T. B. Ph. D., Redlands.
