22 YEARS IN SCHOOL WORK

Dr. Ferguson to Tell of Activities for Church on the Plains

SPECIAL MUSIC AND SUNDAY SCHOOL FEATURE

At 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning in Central Presbyterian Church, King street, below Eighth, the service will be of especial interest and a large audience is expected to hear the Rev. R. Ferguson, D. D., superintendent of Sunday School Missions in Iowa, Missouri, and Kansas. Dr. Ferguson has been engaged in Sunday School work on the plains for twenty-two years, and was instrumental in establishing one hundred and seventy-five churches throughout the territory which he covered. The Sunday School which will meet at 12 o'clock also will be addressed by Dr. Ferguson.

The Y. P. S. C. E. will meet at 6:45 o'clock. It will be a Temperance meeting, with Harry Conner as leader. The evening service will begin at 7:45 o'clock. The minister, the Rev. J. H. Crawford will give an address on the subject "Man's Need of the Church." The choir will sing two anthems. The musical program is as follows:

10:30 o'clock, organ prelude, Prelude in G Minor; Chorale, "The Night is Far Spent, Steane"; offertory, solo, O Divine Redeemer, Gounod; Mrs. Dodson; organ postlude, Ewing.

7:45 o'clock, organ prelude, Berceuse in A Flat, Reade; anthem, Softly Fades the Twilight Ray, Fennimore; offertory, Come Unto Me, Cohen; organ postlude, Postlude in F. West.

First La Grippe, Then Bronchitis
That was the case with Mrs. W. S. Bailey, McCreary, Ky. "My wife was taken down with a severe attack of la grippe, which run into bronchitis. She coughed as tho' she had consumption and could not sleep at night. The first bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound gave her so much relief that she continued using it until she was permanently cured."

BAPTISTS TO HEAR VISITOR

Regular services will be held tomorrow in Second Baptist Church. The Rev. Thomas P. Holloway will not preach because of hoarseness, but Prof. E. E. Ayres, D. D., one of the faculty of Crozer Theological Seminar will conduct the worship both morning and evening. The church choir will sing the following selections:

Morning—"God is a Spirit," Bennett; "Te Deum," Lloyd.

Night—"My Shepherd" (male voices), Koschat; "The Penitent," Van De Water, T. C. Terry.

The series of Sunday night sermons the minister had intended to begin tomorrow night will not be begun until the first or second Sunday of April.

A Warning Against Wet Feet.

Wet and chilled feet usually affect the mucous membrane of the nose, throat and lungs, and a gripe, bronchitis or pneumonia may result. Watch carefully, particularly the children, and for the racking stubborn coughs give Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It soothes the inflamed membranes, and heals the cough quickly. Take no substitute. N. B. Danforth, Market and 2d Streets, Wilmington, Del.—Adv.

CHOIR TO SING CANTATA.

The chorus choir of First Presbyterian Church, augmented to forty or forty-five voices, will sing on Sunday evening, March 31, one of the favorite compositions of the churchgoing public, "Penitence, Pardon and Peace," by Maunders. It represents the experience of the soul in passing through repentance and in the realization of pardon and peace.

The solo parts by R. D. Eaton, and Clarence Hope will be given effectively. William P. White, chorister, has been rehearsing the choir for several weeks.

SPECIAL FEATURE AT AVENUE CHURCH

Large crowds have been attending Delaware Avenue Church since the addition of the improvements. The Rev. N. C. Lassiter will have for his morning theme tomorrow, "Prayer." The Bible school meets at 2 o'clock and the U. U. Bible class at 2:30 o'clock in the auditorium, taught by the pastor. An organ recital of fifteen minutes will be given at the opening of the evening service at 7:30 o'clock followed by a song service of ten minutes. The pastor's evening theme will be "Practical Evidence of Genuine Repentance." At the evening service the pastor will sing by special request, "Who Could It Be?" and the chorus choir will sing a special selection, expressive of the change the improvements have made in the auditorium.

The musical program for the day is as follows:

Morning—Organrelude, I'm a Pilgrim, Ashford; anthem, Praise the Lord, Suxx; organ postlude, March in F. Swift.

Evening—Organ recital of 15 minutes; organ prelude, La Quintaine, Marie; anthem, Send Out Thy Light, Gounod; quartette, Lead Kindly Light, D. Buck; postlude in C. Ashford.

On Thursday evening, March 28, the Bible School will celebrate its anniversary.

DR. WATT AT MT. SALEM.

At Mt. Salem Church after the class meeting at 9:30 tomorrow, the Rev. Dr. Robert Watt, who is visiting the pastor will preach. Dr. Watt will also preach Sunday evening.

The Sunday schools of Mt. Salem and Riddle Memorial will hold their sessions at 2:30 o'clock. The Epworth League which is constantly growing in attendance and interest will begin their service at 6:30 o'clock. City, Md.
