

City Pastors Prepare Special Sermons for the Sunday Worshippers

BIBLE STUDY INTERESTS MEN

West Presbyterian Church Class Grows in Interest Every Sabbath

SPECIAL MUSIC AS ADDED ATTRACTION

At West Presbyterian Church tomorrow the Rev. Alexander Allison, Jr., will occupy the pulpit both morning and evening. His sermon themes will be "Having the Master's Mind" and "Reaping What We Sow," both discourses being practical. The note of the evening hour at West Church is always distinctly evangelistic and there is nothing in the religious life of the city more inspiring than the hearty singing of the great congregations that gather here week after week. A musical edition of Alexander's gospel songs is provided for every worshipper and the old-time and new songs are sung with a will. The chorus choir directed by Professor J. T. Clymer with Will M. S. Brown at the organ, will have attractive numbers tomorrow, both at 10:30 and 7:30 o'clock.

West Sunday school in all its eight departments will meet at 2 o'clock. Promotion of 270 pupils was made last Sunday afternoon and there are now a few seats available in all the grades for those who desire to enroll. Children will be assigned to grades according to age, and adults will be taken care of in the women's class, taught by the parish helper, and the men's class, taught by the pastor. These two classes have an enrollment at present of over 250, and new members are received each week.

That business men are keenly interested in the Bible has been demonstrated by the rapid growth of the men's class, which for more than a year has gathered a great company of men each week to study it. A signal test of their zeal was that of last Sunday afternoon, when in spite of rain, nearly one hundred were present. There are always discussions and the singing of male voices is a feature, the music being led by a quartette, cornet and the organ, played by Will M. S. Brown. The pastor's teaching topic tomorrow afternoon will be "The Building of a Character."

DR. REED TO SPEAK OF PROBLEMS OF DAY

"Captains Courageous and the Problems of the Day," will be the theme of the Rev. Dr. George Edward Reed, in Grace Methodist Episcopal Church tomorrow morning. The third of the minister's series on "Water From the Well of Jacob," will be given in the evening at 7:45 o'clock, the theme being "The Living Witness or the Power of Personal Testimony."

Dr. Reed's address in the senior department of the Sunday school last Sunday was highly appreciated.

Tomorrow is "Bring One" Sunday in the Sunday school, each member of the elder departments having been requested last Sunday to invite some one who is not attending any other Sunday school to attend the sessions tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The following is the music for the day:

Morning:—Anthem, "Now Thank We All Our God," Gounod; Shelley; "Gently, Lord, Oh Gently Lead us," Hawley.
Evening:—Anthem, "Bow Down Thine Ear," Frank; tenor solo, "Repentance," Gounod, Mr. Holmes.

A Medicine That Gives Confidence is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Mrs. T. J. Adams, 522 No. Kansas Ave., Columbus, Kas., writes: "For a number of years my children have been subject to coughs and colds. I used Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and found that it cured their coughs and colds, so I keep it in the house all the time." Refuse substitutes.

THE SECOND TEMPLE'S FOUNDATION

Esra III, 1-4; 5-10; Oct. 22. "Enter into His Gates With Thanksgiving and Into His Courts With Praise."—Psalm c, 4.

The journey from Babylon to Jerusalem required about five months. Esra with his smaller company subsequently made the journey in four months. We can well imagine the enthusiasm of this company of captives of all the tribes, people of all ages, a few of the very aged remembered having seen the land and the city in their childhood. Arrived at their destination they found terrible dilapidation. The crumbling hand of time had co-operated with the destructive fires of Nebuchadnezzar's army, seventy years previous. To live in the city was scarcely practicable. The people scattered in the country round about for a distance of twenty miles. First, attention was properly paid to making themselves comfortable, preparing dwellings, training olive trees and vines. But shortly after the religious sentiment stirred them to prepare for offering formal worship to the God whose favored people they were delighted again to be.

First, the altar was built on the height of Mount Moriah, supposedly the very spot where Abraham offered his son Isaac—the very spot which was made the site of the altar in Solomon's temple. Divine worship began, and the Feast of Tabernacles was observed in the seventh month. By the next spring they felt ready to begin the reconstruction of the temple, and a start was made by laying its foundations. The enthusiasm of the people for the worship of the true God is noted in connection with this service. A foundation celebration with this service. A foundation celebration was held, and the people shouted and

CHINESE GIRL IN THE PULPIT

Miss Carlton to be Sunday Morning Speaker at Mt. Salem

DR. MORGAN ALSO WILL TALK OF TEMPERANCE

An interesting service will be held in Mt. Salem Methodist Episcopal Church tomorrow morning, the occasion being the anniversary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the church. Miss Mary Carlton, a native Chinese young woman, who is completing a course of education at Goucher College, Baltimore, will make the address. This young woman spoke on the occasion of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society anniversary at the Wilmington Conference at its recent session in Asbury Church, this city.

Besides being a charming speaker Miss Carlton also sings well. An added interest will be the fact that Miss Carlton will appear in native costume.

The usual services of the day following this service will be held including an address by Dr. Morgan in the evening on temperance in different sections of the world as learned from representatives in the recent Ecumenical Conference, Toronto, Canada.

DR. HOFFECKER TO BE AT COOKMAN

went by turns as they thought of God's goodness and sought again to apply to themselves the Divine promises. Some wept, perhaps in appreciation of the fact that the temple they were founding would be much less glorious than Solomon's.

The news of the return of the people and of their start to rebuild the temple of the Lord spread amongst the people of the land who, in some respects at least, had been recognized as Israel's enemies. Now, however, they desired to join hands and become participants in the building of the new temple. They made overtures to this effect, saying: "Let us build with you, for we seek you God as ye do; and we do sacrifice to Him since the days of Esar Haddon, king of Assyria, which brought us up hither."

However, this kind invitation was refused with the answer, "We have nothing to do with us, to build houses unto our God; but we, ourselves, will build it unto the Lord, the God of Israel, as king Cyrus, the king of Persia, hath commanded us." Then these people, repulsed, sought to delay the work and to hinder its building. They even hired attorneys to frustrate the matter at the court of king Cyrus in Persia, and through the days of his son, Cambyses, until King Darius came to the throne. The latter followed out the original policy of Cyrus and gave full authority to proceed with the work at Jerusalem.

Was the Proper Course Taken?

Many have said that the Jews in this matter showed themselves narrow-minded and bigoted; that they should have been glad to have the assistance and the co-operation of their neighbors in the building of the temple, and in all the arrangements for God's worship—they should have had the missionary spirit.

Not so, we reply. Their course was the only proper one when we understand the terms and conditions under which God was dealing with Israel. It was not their commission to make Israelites out of all nations; they, as one nation, had been elected or selected by God to establish and to offer the sacrifices and worship which God had ordained through Moses. They were not at liberty to change or amend the Divine proposition and to bring others into the "elect" nation. There was indeed a method by which outsiders, non-Israelites, might become Israelites—by becoming proselytes of the gate; but in no other than in such an open, public renunciation of their wife and by devotion to Jehovah could any one become a participator in the Divine promises made only to the seed of Abraham.

The Jews are still following the Divine arrangements for them in keeping aloof from other religions and by refraining from inter-marriage with other peoples. God has thus preserved that nation separate from all others and He tells us why. For them He has a great place in the Divine program. They are again to become God's people, God's representatives on the earth, after the Elect Church shall have been completed and shall have been glorified on the heavenly plane. The latter will constitute the Spiritual Seed of Abraham and the Spiritual Kingdom of God, while the former will constitute the earthly seed of Abraham, and be the earthly representatives of God's Kingdom to the world.

These two seeds are referred to in God's promise to Abraham, saying, "They shall be as the stars of heaven and as the sands of the sea shore." And through these two seeds the spiritual and the natural, God's blessing of restitution is shortly to be showered upon mankind in general, under the reign of Messiah for a thousand years.

Spiritual Israel's Policy.

The same policy should be observed by Spiritual Israel—"The Temple of God is holy, which Temple ye are." No outside, unconsecrated stones are used in this Temple. Let the world build its own—God Himself is the Builder of the Church, which is the Body of Christ, the Temple of the Holy Spirit. God permits His consecrated ones to be associated with Himself in the building of this Temple; as St. Jude declares, the saints, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, are to "build one another up in the most holy faith" (Jude 20). There is absolutely no place for worldly workers in conjunction with this great work of God now in progress.

Incalculable harm has resulted from the failure to note this matter properly. The children of this world and the children of the Kingdom of God too frequently join, after the manner suggested in our study. The effect always is to bring in worldliness and to give the worldly mind a measure of control in respect to spiritual things of which they have no real knowledge. The natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God, neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.—1 Corinthians 11, 14.

The Lord's consecrated people are in training for a throne. Our Father is the Great King and He has promised that The Christ shall sit upon His throne, and we have been invited to become parts of The Christ, the Anointed, The Messiah. Shall we wonder that we need training for this important position? Shall we be surprised if disciplines are imposed and requirements made of us more than are imposed upon those not intended for this high position! Surely not!

ONE DOSE MAKES INDIGESTION GO

Heartburn, Gas, Sourness and Other Stomach Misery Vanishes

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or you feel bloated after eating, and you believe it is the food which fills you; if what little you eat lies like a lump of lead on your stomach; if there is difficulty in breathing after eating, eructations of sour, undigested food and acid, heartburn, brash or a belching of gas, you can make up your mind that you need something to stop food fermentation and cure indigestion.

To make every bite of food you eat aid in the nourishment and strength of your body, you must rid your stomach of poisons, excessive acid and stomach gas, which sours your entire meal—interferes with digestion and causes so many sufferers of Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Biliousness, Constipation, Griping, etc. Your case is no different—you are a stomach sufferer, though you may call it by some other name; your real and only trouble is that which you eat does not digest, but quickly ferments and sours, producing almost any unhealthy condition.

A case of Pape's Diapepsin will cost fifty cents at any Pharmacy here, and will convince any stomach sufferer five minutes after taking a single dose that Fermentation and Sour Stomach is causing the misery of Indigestion.

No matter if you call your trouble Catarrh of the Stomach, Nervousness or Gastritis, or by any other name—always remember that a certain cure is waiting at any drug store the moment you decide to begin its use. Pape's Diapepsin will regulate any out-of-order Stomach within five minutes, and digest promptly, without any fuss or discomfort, all of any kind of food you eat.
