THE VALUE OF IDEALS TO CHURCH AND WORLD

Conceived in Sin, Misshapen in Iniquity.

Birthmarks—Hereditary Blemishes. How Counteracted—Motherly Ideals. Fatherly Ideals—Business Ideals. Social Ideals—Neighborly Ideals. Christian Ideals.

PASTOR RUSSELL

Kansas City, May 16.—Pastor Russell spoke here today on the text, "Shapen in Iniquity, in sin did my mother conceive me."—Psalm 51:5.

The entrance of sin and its death-penalty into the world brought serious impairments—mental, moral and physical—to our race, the speaker said. It is no longer natural to do right, but contrarywise. As St. Paul declared, "We cannot do the things that we would."

Many are grasping after this great truth, and attempting human uplift through eugenics, etc.; but they appreciate imperfectly what they teach, failing to see the matter from the Bible standpoint. The mind, the will, the body, should be entirely submitted to God's will. Thus only can the highest good be possible.

The Pastor then showed that the Bible divides the world into two classes; the mass of sinners condemned of God and out of fellowship with Him, and the few who have come back into relationship with Him through the merit of Christ. The speaker addressed the world first, and suggested that while they cannot hope to lift themselves up to perfection and everlasting life, they can do much toward the uplift of themselves and their children by conforming to certain Scriptural ideals.

All appreciate to some extent the value of a good example, of good training in the family. The child that continually hears coarse, rude expressions in the home will surely grow up not much better than those surroundings. But while encouraging high ideals in the home—cleanliness, gentleness, kindness—the pastor called special attention to the duty of parents toward their children before birth. Few seem to realize that the general attitude of a mother's mind birthmarks her child for good or ill.

Christian Ideals the Best. God sets before the Christian the very highest ideals, the speaker declared: "Be like unto your Father in Heaven." Only God can know when His people are doing their best; and He assures them that He will judge them, not according to their success, but according to their endeavor, according to their ideals and their sacrifices made to attain those ideals.

Having been taught in the School of Christ, true Christians understand that the Spirit of Christ manifests itself in meekness, gentleness, patience, long-suffering, brotherly kindness and love; and that any other spirit is of the flesh and the Devil.

Many are Christians in name only, having never entered into a covenant with the Lord, and therefore have neither part nor lot in the things of God. Others, truly His, have been sadly neglected as respects lessons in the School of Christ. The great religious institutions of the world are not teaching the highest ideals, but are separating the people from those ideals by misrepresentations of the Divine character and Plan.

Business and Social Ideals. The remainder of the discourse was devoted to the discussion of the Christian's ideal in business and social relationships. The Bible is addressed to Christians only. A Christian business man's ideal is the Golden Rule, which applies to his buying, his selling, his advertising, his dealings with his clerks as well as with his customers.

The true Christian should remember that nothing less than the Golden Rule may follow at any time. He must see that his children, his chickens, his dog, etc., do not disturb his neighbors in their proper rights. He must do for any one in distress what he would have a neighbor do for him if he were in trouble. He is to do good to all, especially unto the Household of Faith. On post-card request I will loan my readers a book on "Practical Eugenics." Address me Brooklyn, N. Y.

The Scrap Book

Giving Himself Away. "It was during the days of the music hall," Joe Weber was saying the other night. "Pete Dalley, Charles Ross and myself were seated in a cafe near by, when our party was interrupted by a rusty individual asking for alms. He declared that he was an old time actor in need of food and lodgings. While we all agreed that if this was true he would help him, we also felt that we would like to know what he had done."

NEATLY TURNED A CART WHEEL.

But as he did so there was a jangling sound and in every direction flew half dollars, quarters, dimes and nickels and even pennies, all coming from the acrobat's pocket. "When the beggar gathered up his funds and took an inventory it figured a trifle over $7. 'I'm still $4 shy,' declared the acrobat, as he sorrowfully moved toward the door, 'but I'm pretty lucky at that. I ought to have known better than to take a chance with a bunch of actors.'"—Indianapolis News.

Different Now. Somebody quotes Shelley's definition, "Poets are the hierophants of an unapprehended inspiration." Unhappily, they don't seem nearly so hierophantic as they did in Shelley's day.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Not That Sort. "The poet, my friend, is a seer." "Maybe so, but I've noticed he is seldom a financier."—Exchange.

Restored to Good Health. "I was sick for four years with stomach trouble," writes Mrs. Otto Gans, Zanesville, Ohio. "I lost weight and felt so weak that I almost gave up hope of being cured. A friend told me about Chamberlain's Tablets, and since using two bottles of them I have been a well woman." Obtainable everywhere.

Deluded. The reason a man is not smarter than his wife is because she lets him think he is.—Dallas News.

Thirty-six for 25 Cents. Dr. King's New Life Pills are now supplied in well-corked glass bottles, containing 36 sugar coated white pills, for 25c. One pill with a glass of water before retiring is an average dose. Easy and pleasant to take. Effective and positive in results. Cheap and economical to use. Get a bottle today, take a dose tonight—your constipation will be relieved in the morning, 36 for 25c, at all druggists.

In the Same Boat. "That amateur farmer is doing his own sowing." "So is his wife."—Baltimore American.

Bilious Attacks. When you have a bilious attack your liver fails to perform its functions. You become constipated. The food you eat ferments in your stomach instead of digesting. This inflames the stomach and causes nausea, vomiting and a terrible headache. Take Chamberlain's Tablets. They will tone up your liver, clean out your stomach and you will soon be as well as ever. They only cost a quarter. Obtainable everywhere.

A WOMAN'S BACK

The Advice of This Emmett Woman is of Certain Value

Many a woman's back has many aches and pains. Ofttimes 'tis the kidney's fault. That's Why Doan's Kidney Pills are so effective.

Many Emmett women know this. Read what one has to say about it: Mrs. J. L. Moulton, First street and Hawthorne avenue, Emmett, says: "My back nearly killed me it pained so badly. I had backaches for weeks at a time and I could hardly get around. In the morning I was weak and lame and felt tired and nervous. I was a wreck. The kidney secretions caused me great misery. Doan's Kidney Pills gave me relief from all these ailments and helped me in every way. Another of my family has used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on when having trouble like mine and he has always had the very best of results." (Statement given June 13th, 1910.)

OVER TWO YEARS LATER, Mrs. Moulton added: "I gladly confirm the endorsement I gave Doan's Kidney Pills some time ago. They did me a world of good." Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Moulton had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

THE WORD HELL

A Little Book That Contains Some Startling Information. A little book selling at only five cents, postpaid, is having a very wide circulation—running up into the millions. It contains some very startling information respecting the meaning of the word Hell. It claims to demonstrate, both from the Hebrew and the Greek of our Bible, that Hell is NOT a place of eternal torment, but merely another name for the TOMB, the GRAVE, the STATE OF DEATH. It affects to show that man was not redeemed from a far-off place of eternal torture, but quotes the Scriptures proving that he was REDEEMED from the GRAVE at the cost of his Redeemer's LIFE and that the Scriptural Hope, both for the Church and the World, is a resurrection hope based upon the death and resurrection of Jesus. The book is certainly worth the reading. The information it furnishes is certainly valuable, far beyond its trifling cost. Order it at once from the Bible and Tract Society, 17 Hicks Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

An Effective Cough Treatment. One-fourth to one teaspoonful of Dr. King's New Discovery, taken as needed will soothe and check coughs, colds and the more dangerous bronchial and lung ailments. You can't afford to take the risk of serious illness when so cheap and simple a remedy as Dr. King's New Discovery is obtainable. Go to your druggist today, get a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, start the treatment at once. You will be gratified for the relief and cure obtained.

Swiss Flags. The Swiss flag is red, and it bears a Greek cross in its center. The Switzers declared their independence in 1307, and at the battle of Morgarten, 1315, where the Austrians were defeated, they carried a plain red flag without any device. During the seventeenth century a white cross was added, though it is said that the cross appeared on some Swiss flags as early as 1330. The different cantons of Switzerland have different coats of arms and different flags.

Greatly Benefited by Chamberlain's Liniment

"I have used Chamberlain's Liniment for sprains, bruises and rheumatic pains, and the great benefit I have received justifies my recommending it in the highest terms," writes Mrs. Florence Slife, Wabash, Ind. "If you are troubled with rheumatic pains you will certainly be pleased with the prompt relief which Chamberlain's Liniment affords. Obtainable everywhere."

His Finish. Junior—I fear Briggs got into a lot of trouble with that girl he was going with.

Soph—Yes? How's that? Junior—He married her.—Denver News.

From the Chestnut Tree. "What goes around a button?" "A buttonhole." "No. A coat."—New York World.

Neuralgia Pains Stopped. You don't need to suffer those agonizing nerve pains in the face, head, arm, shoulders, chest and back. Just apply a few drops of soothing Sloan's Liniment; lie quietly a few minutes. You will get such relief and comfort! Life and the world will look brighter. Get a bottle today. 3 ounces for 25c at all druggists. Penetrates without rubbing.

Liberty a Gift. The God who gave us life gave us Liberty at the same time.—Thomas Jefferson.

Said action is brought to obtain a decree of this court for the foreclosure of a certain mortgage, described in the complaint and executed by the defendant, Marshall F. Dean, on the 12th day of February, 1913, to secure the payment of a certain promissory note of that date made payable in three years in favor of plaintiff in the sum of $3000.00, described in the complaint, on which there was paid $100.00 on March 12th, 1913, and which by non-payment of interest, has become due, and alleging that the balance of said note, to-wit: $2900.00 with interest thereon at the rate of 8 per cent per annum from said 12th day of March, 1913, is now due the plaintiff, together with reasonable attorney's fees, and costs of suit; that the premises conveyed by said mortgage may be sold and the proceeds thereof applied to the payment of said note, interest, attorney's fees and costs, and in case such proceeds are insufficient to pay the same, then to obtain an execution against the said defendant, Marshall F. Dean, for the balance remaining due, and also that the defendant, and all persons claiming by, through, or under them, may be barred and foreclosed of all right, title, claim, lien, equity of redemption, and interest in and to said mortgage premises, and for other and further relief.
