AUDIENCE LOOKING AT "CREATION"

What is conceded to be the greatest motion picture production at the present time in both subject and magnitude of production was opened at the Vining yesterday afternoon when the first part of the biblical story of "Creation" was thrown upon the screen.

The Vining will carry this film until August twenty-seventh, with the exception of Saturday night, August twenty-second, which is reserved for one of their serial films. Two shows will be given daily, at three p. m. and eight p. m.

"Creation" deals with the life of man from the first until the present time and in telling the story thirteen reels are used as well as five hundred hand-colored slides. Most of the films are also hand colored. A large phonograph is used in lecturing the films as they are thrown upon the screen. This is not to be understood that the films are featured as talking pictures, as no dialogue is spoken. The lecture is merely a scientific one—explanatory of each picture as it is shown. The story is divided into four parts and each part is given as one show. Each part makes a complete story in itself, and should a person attend but one performance he would be able to witness a full and complete show.

The story of the life of Christ is given in four beautifully hand-colored reels and makes one full evening's show. This portion of the show was produced in the Holy Land and is considered one of the most expensive motion picture films ever made. The entire engagement is absolutely free—there being no collection, no selling of books or tracts or any other small scheme for the raising of funds. The films have just closed a remarkable engagement at the Heilig Theatre in Portland, where they were run for a week.

The International Bible Students Association have opened this show and will use the screen and high-powered lights to tell the stories of the Old and New Testament. Nothing short of magic would such a performance have seemed in days of old. Nebuchadnezzar reading his doom on the walls in letters of fire knew no greater miracles than this which has been wrought by the Divine intelligence working on the brain of man.

Religion has adapted itself in past ages to the manners and customs of a people, and so in the present time it is availing itself of the habits of a modern race as modified by many inventions.

Stock Exposition In Union Yards

A Pacific-International Live Stock Exposition will be held at the Union Stock Yards December 7-12, 1914. The exposition is one of the first of its kind, on such a large scale, ever held on the Pacific coast. All stockmen are eligible to enter their animals. Liberal prizes are to be given. As the title states, the event will be international. Many stockmen are planning to make exhibits.

That old friend the Vital Issue is with us again, and is likely to remain until after the polls close in November, 1916.

Game Season Is Temporarily Closed

On Monday Governor West issued a proclamation closing the season for hunting deer until September 1, because of the many forest fires and the dry condition of the forests. The proclamation was issued at the request of the forestry department, which will co-operate with the game department in promulgating and enforcing the proclamation.

Would Sell Bonds And Buy Ships

Washington, Aug. 20.—President Wilson's plan to issue thirty million dollars worth of Panama canal bonds to buy merchantmen is enthusiastically supported by all members of congress. Plans for the sale of the bonds have been given to congress by Secretary McAdoo and bids will be advertised for soon.

But it costs at least ten times as much to live according to the dictates of fashion as it does to live according to the demands of nature.

More Abuse Of Postal Frank

The absurd uses to which the U. S. postal frank of members of congress is put is shown by the receipt at this office of a pamphlet giving instructions for raising winter wheat in the eastern United States, sent under the frank of Senator Chamberlain of Oregon.

Some men are not content with being treated well; they want to be treated often.

FULLER'S PURE PREPARED PAINT

$1.75 PER GALLON

Talk about your BARGAIN PRICES in PAINT and then beat that if you can. Pure Prepared Paint is made by the W. P. Fuller Paint Company and is one of their two highest grades of paint that ordinarily sell at $2.40 per gallon.

Standard Varnish Works' highest grade Architectural Varnishes that ordinarily sell for $3.00 and $3.50 per gallon now at $1.75 per gallon while it lasts.

Oil has raised and will continue to do so. We bought heavy in oil before the raise came and will not take advantage of "war time" prices and while our stock lasts it goes at 90c per gallon.

This is no special stunt but just our "every day" prices. This stock is limited and we advise our patrons to act quickly. The prices will not raise but stock will not last long.
