H. R. Tabor Gets a New Trial.

The Supreme Court has passed upon the case of H. R. Tabor who last September was convicted for the killing of C. C. Callicoat and sentenced to fifteen years in the penitentiary. It will be remembered that Mr. Tabor was directed to the state farm rather than stay confined in jail. This case has been hotly contested throughout. On his first trial in March 1919 there was a hung jury. Hon. H. D. Stephens was then prosecuting attorney. In September 1910 he was again tried and convicted and in this prosecution Hon. R. H. Knox looked after the interests of the state. Mr. Tabor had as his counsel the well known law firm of Falkner, Russell & Falkner, who have contested the state's case from beginning to end and the last decision of the Supreme court is an endorsement of the fidelity, skill and ability that always characterizes the work of this firm. The case was handled in the Supreme court by Hon. Lee M. Russell, whose able presentation of the case before the court on Monday, May 29th, won for him much favorable comment and his contentions were so forceful that the counsel for the state were frank enough to say that the defendant's contentions should be sustained. The case was reversed upon incompetent testimony and erroneous instructions for the state. Mr. Tabor is now at home and under the law is entitled to bail.

Now is the time to see if you and your friends have properly registered—you have but a few days more. You may think you are O. K., but see to this in person. Then select the best man for every office; do not be misled.

Masons Hold Lodge of Sorrow.

The Masonic funeral of a wife was held at the grave of the late J. J. Alderson at Pine Hill Lodge on Sunday last. Many of the Masonic fraternity of this and other sister lodges were there and participated in the ceremonies. Mr. Alderson was highly esteemed by his neighbors and his worth was recognized by his brethren in this ancient and impressive ceremony.

The funeral oration was delivered by Hon. Lee M. Russell whom it is said delivered a most impressive, instructive and eloquent address. In addition to the Masonic ceremony there was an all day singing and a bountiful repast served by the community all of which was enjoyed by one of the largest gatherings ever assembled at Cambridge.

Read Vardaman's Record if You Want Real Truth.

And, always, we hear the same rhodomontade from the same dull sources—from Percy and Alexander—of Vardaman's deficiencies, in office, and never a word of their own demonstrated efficiencies, in the same capacity, because they have had no opportunity to demonstrate them.

Mr. Percy made one notable speech, in the Senate of the United States, and defended his position as an opponent of the direct election of United States Senators, by the people, on the ground that the Fifteenth Amendment might embarrass that condition. Then he comes home and denies that that amendment has any relation to our politics. The rhodomontade scarcely deserves an answer. What Vardaman did as Governor is written in a record honorable to himself and to Mississippi, requiring no word of apology or explanation. There was presented a wide field of criticism an attack; before that came his record as a member of the Legislature; why were not both assailed?

Simply because both were unassailable. And that is why the rich and ambitious lawyers, now aspiring to the dignity which they have not earned, in any public service whatever, resort to methods that are bad in their conception and infamous in their execution.

Everybody in Mississippi who knows anything at all, knows that James K. Vardaman is an honest man; they know that if he was a dishonest man that his opportunities as Governor of the State, might have made him rich in the exercise of that function. He came out of that poor and as proud as when he entered upon it. A brave, pure and honest man.—The Mississippiian.

TRIE WOMANLY BEAUTY.

No woman can be truly beautiful who has a yellow complexion caused by a torpid liver. To be beautiful a woman must have good health, and this can be accomplished by occasionally using St. Joseph's Liver Regulator (either liquid or powders, as you like best). It keeps the bowels open, passing off the poison, gives matter and in this way purifies the blood and assists in clearing the complexion. All women should occasionally use St. Joseph's Liver Regulator. Liquid 50 cents a bottle; powders 25 cents a box.

New York Dots.

After an absence of several weeks will come again. The farmers in this part seem to be getting along nicely with their work. Crops seem to be very good so far, though some are a little dry, but we think if the people will drive old Beck and stir the ground often it will be much better than so much rain.

We are glad to say that little Gayle Crawford is getting along nicely after the sad misfortune of getting his arm broke and had to have it amputated. It was sad to think of so small a child to give up his arm, but the little fellow seems to look on the bright side.

Mr. W. L. Adams and family visited their sister, Mrs. Esker Butler near Oxford Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Tommie Keel attended the burial of her little niece, Mr. John Luther's little girl at old Midway Friday.

The health of this neighborhood is very good, except some little sickness.

Mr. James Davis and wife have a new boarder at their home. It is a boy.

Mrs. Crawford and son, Thad, visited little Gayle Crawford Sunday as he is still in Oxford where the Dr. can attend his arm.

As news is scarce will ring off hoping to hear from all the correspondents. I am still.

Hightower Farm News.

The health of this neighborhood is not so good at this writing. The farmers taking the advantage of the pretty weather now the crops are late in this section, but are looking fine.

We are sorry to say the death angel visited the home of Mr. John Luther Thursday and took their darling little Bessie, but the Lord knows best. The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away and he will give us as many children as we can bear.

She was three months and four days old. Sleep little Bessie till the resurrection morning. It was so hard to say good bye in death, but it was all for the best. Her remains were laid away in the cemetery at Midway by the side of relatives and friends Friday. So farewell little Bessie until we all meet on the other shore where there will be no parting there. What a blessed thought it is to know we can see little Bessie again.

So with best wishes to the dear old EAGLE and its readers. A Subscriber.

From the Experience of Oxford People. We are fortunate indeed to be able to profit by the experience of our neighbors. The public utterances of Oxford residents on the following subject will interest and benefit thousands of our readers. Read this statement. It is emphatic and convincing. No better proof can be had.

Mrs. J. W. Ward, College Hill street, Oxford, Miss., says: "I knew my kidneys were disordered, as the kidney secretions were unnatural. My back pain became a great deal and there was a soreness across my loins and kidneys. At night I could not lie still and a nervous restlessness clung to me all the time. I finally began taking Doan's Kidney Pills and they soon corrected all fault with my kidneys, strengthened my back and made me feel better in every way. I used but two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and then discontinued taking them, as I was entirely relieved. I can recommend this remedy in the highest terms."

The speaker called attention to the fact that the Prophet Joel mentions two distinct outpourings of the Holy Spirit. One of these upon the servants and handmaidens of the Lord, found its fulfillment at Pentecost; and during the more than eighteen centuries since, God's spiritual blessing has been with, not only the Apostles, but all the footsteps-followers of Jesus—all of God's servants and handmaidens.

To The Public. We do a general credit business it is true, but also sell for CASH and as cheap as anyone.

We carry a general stock of merchandise suited to the needs of our farmer friends and if you will give us a chance think we can convince you that the idea that you can not buy goods from a credit house for CASH as cheap as from anyone is a mistaken idea.

We are now making some very low prices on many items in our line and extend to you a special invitation to visit our store and be convinced.

Yours Respectfully, The Sisk, Lawshee Co.
