

WHERE ART THOU?

Sinners Are Fearful, Saints
Are Joyful on Hearing
God's Voice.

St. John N. B., August 20th.—Pastor Russell of Brooklyn Tabernacle today addressed large assemblages of Bible students. Many students of his books and of his widely published sermons came from neighboring cities to hear him. We report one of his addresses from God's words to Adam, after he had sinned and sought to hide from his Maker—"Where Art Thou?" (Genesis III, 9.)

The speaker declared that fear is one of the greatest maladies to which humanity is subject, and he quoted the Apostle's words, "Fear hath torment." Although people differ greatly in their mental makeup, the Pastor believed that fear is common to all mankind in some form or other. The only exceptions he admitted are the saints of God, who have turned from sin and given their all to the Lord as followers of Jesus. These gradually come to understand their Maker and to have confidence in His loving provisions for them in all their affairs. As love comes into their hearts fear departs. As the Scriptures declare, "Perfect love casteth out fear."

Although no human being is perfect, for all have sinned and come short of the glorious standard, none are totally depraved. An element of the Divine character still remains in all. All have some realization of right and wrong, and some appreciation of responsibility to do right and to avoid wrong. Whenever sin is committed, with it naturally and properly goes some appreciation of Divine displeasure, of unworthiness of Divine love and favor. In such hearts there is of necessity a restlessness, because humanity is so constituted as to crave the supervision and love of an All-Wise and All-Powerful Creator.

Adam, the Sinner, Ashamed.

The Scriptures clearly inform us that although Mother Eve was deceived by the Serpent, Father Adam was not. The Serpent represented to Mother Eve that God was striving to keep His creatures in ignorance, and recommended disobedience as the road to knowledge and happiness. Mother Eve, unacquainted with her Creator, was deceived into disobedience to His command.

Father Adam, not deceived, understood perfectly that the wrong course would not bring happiness, but the death penalty. His deliberately wilful sin was evidently prompted by love for his wife. He put his wife in the place of his Creator, and sacrificed his life to share her penalty.

The guilty pair realized their unworthiness of the fellowship of their Creator, which they had previously enjoyed. They hid from God. So, said Pastor Russell, it is with all sinners. They endeavor to hide from God.

The Times of Restitution.

Adam was not a murderer and, even if his crime might be called a theft, it was a small one—only an apple. Had he been imperfect, as are his children today, his penalty might seem unjust. We are to remember, however, that he was perfect, and that his real crime was disobedience. God's voice calling to the sinner should be hearkened to, for although He speaks in tones of justice, He tells also of "Love Divine all love excelling." It assures us that our Creator has not forgotten us nor entirely cast us off because of sin.

Such of our race as are in the right condition of heart hearken to the voice of God and retrace their steps, seeking to return to Divine favor under the call of this Gospel Age—to become joint-heirs with Jesus Christ their Lord and Redeemer, as members of His Bride. By these the great disaster of sin and its death penalty may be overlooked, as a special blessing which will permit them to attain, through faithful following in the footsteps of Jesus, the glory, honor and immortality promised the "elect."

But a very large class fall entirely to hear God's voice. Many of them have gotten into heathenish darkness and doubt. Others hear very imperfectly, and think the Lord is merely breathing out threatenings against them. None of these can be blessed at the present time. But the Bible informs us that God is not content to let any sinner go without hearing His voice of mercy. Hence He has provided that those who, for any reason, cannot hear His voice and be blessed by the High Calling of this Age, must ultimately hear.

Accordingly, the Bible tells us of God's glorious arrangement for the Kingdom of Messiah, which will blind Satan and set at liberty the prisoners of sin and death, and bring all to a clear knowledge of the Divine character through the blessed opportunities provided in the Redeemer. All the blind eyes will then be opened, and all deaf ears will be unstopped. Restitution to human perfection and to an earthly Eden everlasting will be offered to the obedient, and willful rejectors will be utterly destroyed (Acts III, 19-23).

NOTICE.

NOTICE TO ALL SHEEPMEN

The following is the sheep inspection line between summer and winter range in Elmore County:

Commencing at the mouth of Soldier Creek and running West up Malad and leaving Malad going west to Little Camas Creek, thence down Little Camas Creek to Boise river, thence down Boise river to Ada County line.

According to law, all sheep must be inspected before crossing this line and for violation of same owners and persons in charge lay themselves liable to fine.

All owners are warned not to cross this line without holding a clean certificate and are requested to notify the Live Stock Inspector in plenty of time when they will cross the line so he can inspect their sheep without delay.

Sheep will be inspected not only for scabies but for contagious foot rot and either disease must be eradicated before a certificate is issued.

All sheep owners are requested to notify the inspector at once if they have any symptoms of foot rot among their sheep, that it may be eradicated before they reach the line and prevent delay and congestion at the line.

COLE'S HOT BLAST

Wonderful Heater and Fuel Saver

Cost of Stove Saved in Fuel

One-half the carbon available for heat in soft coal is gas, the same coal gas which is being used to-day for fuel and for illumination in many cities and towns in this country. The ordinary stove in burning soft coal allows this gas, half of the fuel, to pass up the chimney unburned, thus wasting it as a heat producer.

The Original Cole's Hot Blast Stove

that has a PATENTED HOT BLAST DRAFT used in connection with other patented features, which distills this gas from the upper surface of the coal, utilizes it as a heat producer along with the fixed carbon or coke in the coal, thus making a $3.00 ton of soft coal or lignite or a $2.00 ton of slack or coal sittings do the work of a $9.00 ton of Pennsylvania hard coal.

Cole's Hot Blast is AIR-TIGHT and guaranteed to remain so. Imitations open at the seams and leak at the joints, making their fuel eaters rather than fuel savers. Cole's Hot Blast is so perfect in construction that fire keeps all night, and when the draft is opened in the morning will burn two or three hours with the fuel put in the night before. No other stove does this. Fire, therefore, never goes out, and the rooms are kept at an even temperature all the time.

For Hard Coal

On account of the Air Tight Construction, Hot Blast Draft and Large Radiating Surface, Cole's Hot Blast is the most economical hard coal stove in the world—requires no change for hard coal, soft coal or wood.

NOTE—Cole's Hot Blast has many imitations. But they all lack these special features because they are fully patented and protected. The name, "Cole's Hot Blast from Chicago" will be found on the feed door of each stove. Be sure that you get the "Original Hot Blast."

$3.00 Soft Coal Does the Work of $9.00 Hard Coal.

Guarantee

We guarantee every stove to remain absolutely air-tight as long as used.

We guarantee a uniform heat day and night with soft coal, slack, sittings or hard coal.

We guarantee that the rooms can be heated from one to two hours each morning with the soft coal put in the stove the evening before.

We guarantee the feed door to be smoke-proof and that the stove will hold fire with soft coal thirty-six hours without attention.

We guarantee a saving of one-third in fuel over any lower draft stove of the same size.

The stove guarantee is made with the understanding that the stove is operated according to directions, and set up with a good fuel.
