

"My Avery Farm Truck is Doing the Work of 3 Teams and 3 Men at Cost of 1 Man and 1 Horse"

That's what one Avery Farm Truck owner writes about the work his truck is doing. Others are having similar results. No wonder men are selling their horses and getting Avery Farm Trucks to do their hauling and other work. Just think what an Avery Farm Truck does. It hauls 3 tons on its own bed and will also pull a loaded wagon behind. Travels at speeds of from 2 to 12 miles per hour.

Avery Trucks are being used for hauling grain, hogs, sheep, lumber, coal, sand, gravel, crushed rock, milk and cream, fruit and vegetables, flour and other farm and manufactured products. They are money and time savers.

Have special cast steel rim wheels designed particularly for hauling on country roads. No tire expense as with rubber tires.

Reo the Fifth The Olds-Built Car

We have on show the latest car built by R. E. Olds.

The car that marks his limit after 26 years of car building. The greatest in its class.

A car built with 50 per cent over-capacity to give immense margin of safety.

Built of analyzed steel, made to formula. Built with gears which have been tested in a 50-ton crushing machine.

AN UNUSUAL CAR

This car has 15 roller bearings. It has 190 drop forgings. A $75 magneto—a doubly-heated carburetor.

It has oversize tires—34x4. It has big brakes, big springs.

It is built to endure—built for rough roads—built to cut upkeep cost. It is built to run in five years from now just as it runs when new.

NO LEVERS

This is the car with the simple control. All the gear shifting is done with a center rod, entirely out of the way. It is done by moving this rod only three inches in each of four directions.

There are no levers, side or center. Both brakes are operated by foot pedals. Thus both front doors are clear.

And this car, like all the leading cars, has the left side drive.

ONE MODEL

The Reo factory is famous for its efficiency. All the parts of the car are built there.

Every machine, tool and jig is devoted to this single model. This fact alone saves about 20 per cent.

That is why such a car, built as this is built, costs such a little price.

Every man who is interested in motoring should see this ideal car.

WILL PUNISHMENT BE EVERLASTING?

Sins of Ignorance Will be Forgiven, but All Willful Sins Will Be Punished, According to Pastor Russell.

Bible Students Now See That They Were Miled by the Creeds of the Dark Ages—They Interpreted the Bible Illogically—Enlightened Study Makes God's Word More Reasonable and More Precious Daily.

Worcester, Mass., January 26.—Pastor Russell had crowds to hear him today. We report his discourse from the text:—"These shall go away into everlasting punishment; but the righteous into life eternal."—Matthew 25:46.

The speaker declared that mankind recognize two great facts: (1) that all are sinners, imperfect; and (2) that a just penalty for sins is proper. This can be admitted even by those who deny that the Bible is inspired. He believes that our forefathers added to Scriptures, without realizing it.

The Baptist "Underworld."

Our Baptist friends, in their new translation of the Bible, use the term "underworld," instead of hell, in translating Sheol and Hades. This is a step in the right direction. All educated people know that Sheol and Hades signify the death condition. Why should Christian ministers spend years in seminaries to learn these things, and then fear to tell people the facts? Do they not realize that the misunderstanding of this subject is stumbling thinking people into Higher-Criticism, Infidelity, etc., and leading to atheism and anarchy?

What the Bible Does Teach.

The Bible declares death to be the extreme penalty of the Divine Law—as of human law. Adam's execution was a tragedy—930 years of dying. His descendants share his condemnation. The death sentence would have ended our race, had not Divine Mercy provided Jesus as our Redeemer. He is to deliver mankind from bondage to death, during the Millennium.

Meantime, this Gospel Age has been introduced for gathering His Church. When it is completed, the Kingdom will be inaugurated for blessing all mankind. Then whosoever will may return to full harmony with God and attain everlasting life.

The Parable of the Sheep and the Goats belongs to the Millennial Age. We recall the Scriptural promises that when Jesus shall appear in glory, His Church will appear with Him; and thus we know that the parable is not yet fulfilled. After the completion of the Church, Messiah will establish His Kingdom.

Mankind will then be on trial to determine who desire to be the Lord's sheep, and who will manifest the wayward, goat-like disposition. A thousand years have been apportioned to separate sheep from goats. At its close, all having the sheep disposition of meekness will be at the Mediator's right hand of favor, but all having the goat disposition will be at His left—place of disfavor.

The sheep will receive the kingdom originally given to Adam. The goats will be sentenced to everlasting fire—destruction. Elsewhere they are said to go into "the lake of fire," the Second Death.—Revelation 20:14.

Gehenna Fire Unquenchable.

Gehenna is the Greek name for the valley outside Jerusalem, where oil was destroyed. Fires were burned there to kill the germs of putrefaction. Into that valley were cast dead dogs, cats, etc., upon which worms fed. This picture Jesus used to illustrate Divine Government in the end of His reign. Willful evil-doers will perish in the antipical Gehenna—the Second Death.

Another suggestion by the Master was that hands, feet and eyes had better be destroyed than that the individual go into the Second Death. No one thinks that the Lord meant us literally to cut off our hands and feet; nor should we think that He referred to literal fire. The lesson taught is that everlasting life is worth any sacrifice. If a sin seems as precious as a hand or an eye, we should separate from it at any cost, to attain everlasting life.

"Into Everlasting Punishment."

Our text declares that the goat class will go into everlasting punishment. What is the nature of that punishment? The Scriptures say that "the wages of sin is death"—not eternal torment. So the Master really said that the goat class will go into the Second Death. None will be rescued from it in any manner.

DIVINE JUSTICE IN THE DELUGE

The Deluge Rightly Understood Was an Act of Mercy, Delivering Man From Slavery.

Pastor Russell's Interpretations Unlock Bible Mysteries—Dark Statements Made Luminous—Lucifer by Rebellion Became Satan—How His Evil Example Was Permitted to Test the Loyalty of All the Holy Angels.

Dayton, Ohio, February 9.—Great crowds heard Pastor Russell today at Memorial Hall. He spoke twice. We report his discourse on the Deluge from the text, "The flood came, and took them all away."—Matthew 24:39.

I continue today my subject of a week ago at Brooklyn. I am confident that many of you keep in touch with my weekly discourses through the newspapers. Last Sunday we considered the physical causes which led to the Deluge, and found them most reasonable, in full harmony with history and geology. Today we consider the Deluge from a different standpoint. We shall show from the Bible why God permitted the Deluge, and that He was fully justified in blotting out humanity, except Noah and his family.

The Pastor showed that Adam, created perfect, could have maintained that perfection by continued obedience to his Maker. When Satan obsessed the serpent and guided it to eat the forbidden fruit, he produced a temptation. Eve saw that the serpent was not poisoned by that fruit, but that it was the wisest of the animals. She thought increased wisdom would make her husband and herself like gods.

Only the Divine command stood between her and the highest ideals. She partook of the fruit and recommended it to Adam. He knew that death would surely follow disobedience; but he preferred to die rather than to be separated from Eve.

Disobedience led to expulsion from Eden, and the gradual execution of the sentence, "Dying thou shalt die." Adam died within the thousand-year Day in which he ate—nine hundred thirty years old. His race inherit his dying tendencies. Humanity are under the curse of death, said the Pastor.

The Deluge a Deliverance.

Pastor Russell proceeded to show that according to the Bible the Deluge was a blessing in disguise. Mankind had gotten into slavery, and would have been wiped out by a new race, most peculiarly intruded upon humanity. The Bible states that this race consisted exclusively of males, propagated by the human female. These were giants, "men of renown."

The fallen race, he continued, were unable to cope with the superior strength of the intruders. Robbed of their wives and daughters, and compelled to drudge for their new masters, mankind found life a burden. The new race was vicious, brutal, immoral. The Bible declares, "The earth was filled with violence." Noah, however, was of pure Adamic stock—"perfect in his generations." See Genesis 6:4-11.

The Pastor declared that we have not studied the Bible carefully enough. The origin of the giants is clearly told there. Satan, a glorious angel, defected to sin because of ambition, thought to establish a separate empire on earth. If he could become master of the first pair, their children would be his subjects.

When Satan perceived humanity growing weaker under the curse, he formulated a new plan. To the angels permission had been given to help humanity. These possessed the power to materialize. Satan suggested the begetting of a new race, with human mothers. To these, the angels could impart their own virility.

The Pastor then showed that the children of this illicit union were giants, renowned at a time when mankind rarely reached maturity earlier than a century. Genesis 6:4 proved that these bestial giants filled the earth with violence.

Hope For the Antediluvians.

Pastor Russell pointed out that these giants cannot be included in the redemptive work of Jesus, who died only for Adam's posterity. (1 Corinthians 15:22) The antediluvians of Adam's race have the same hope of a resurrection that the remainder of mankind have. This means, he said, a hope of restitution, to the perfection lost in Eden. This hope rests on God's promise that all the families of the earth shall be blessed in Abraham's Seed, "which Seed is Christ"—Jesus, the Head, and the Church, the members.

In the Messianic Kingdom the Seed will accomplish the blessing foreordained. St. Paul says, "If ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's Seed, and heirs according to the promise." Next Sunday Pastor Russell will show what penalty Divine Justice has imposed upon Satan and his angelic rebels. Those not in touch with any of the hundreds of newspapers publishing his sermons are invited to drop him a card to Washington Temple or Brooklyn Tabernacle, if they desire further reading matter.

How the Mighty Are Fallen.
Descendants of proud Polish kings live a decadent life in one of the wild-est mountain regions of Europe, holding fast to Inner Galicia. They have become primitive and clothe themselves in suits of blanketing and furs, fashioned at home, with which to withstand the long and rigorous winters. They wear their hair long, live in rude slab board and log huts, and altogether strangely resemble the North American Indian in his semicivilized life today in the American northwest.—Argonaut.

Golf Links.
The orthodox number of eighteen holes, it seems, was fixed by pure chance. There were originally twenty-two holes on St. Andrews links, and so it continued till 1764, when the first four holes were converted into two. Thereafter every full course has been laid out to correspond with the alma mater.—London Saturday Review.

Interesting Affliction.
"I shouldn't think that you could love a young man who stutters so?"
"Why not?"
"It is such a distressing affliction. It must take him an hour to tell you good night."
"It does. He not only stutters in his talk, but in his kissing."—Houston Post.

A Spelling Test.
The catch question has often been asked, "How many words in the English language end in dous?" The common answer is four—hazardous, jeopardous, tremendous and stupendous. As a matter of fact, however, there are five, and the word often overlooked is hybridous, meaning mongrel or mixed sort.

She Was So Waggish.
Who says women have no sense of humor? A New York girl invited a number of her friends to a chicken dinner, then took them out into the yard to watch her feeding her poultry.—Boston Transcript.

Kitty's Counting.
"See how I can count, mamma," said Kitty. "There's my right foot. That's one. There's my left foot. That's two. Two and one make three. Three feet make a yard, and I want to go out and play in it!"—Chicago Tribune.

At the Reception.
He (back from the punch bowl)—Just look across th' room, m' dear. Did you ever see a homelier man? She (in a tragic whisper)—Loun't disgrace yourself, George. That's a mirror!—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

She Was a Countess.
Squiggs—Say, Squiggs, is there anything in the story that your nephew married a countess? Squiggs—Well, yes, I suppose there is. The young lady ran the adding machine in Bughouse & Bingle's office.

Ravenous Rabbits.
It has been computed that eight or ten rabbits eat or destroy as much grass as one sheep.

Where Many Have Grown Lax.
General Grant used to lay great stress on what he called the "go-off." It is an important thing, the keynote of the day's work often thus being set. If on arrival at the store instead of putting your stock in proper order to sell you discuss last night's "good time" with your neighbor the chances are you will fool away the whole day. But if you start right you will probably keep right. As at first minutes are bent so swing the hours.
But, whether you agree to this or not, your daily rule should be to put your stock in order as soon as you reach the store. At once doesn't mean fifteen minutes after arrival, but immediately.—Philadelphia Ledger.

A newspaper is the cheapest thing you can buy. It comes to you every day or week, as the case may be, rain or shine, calm or stormy, bringing you the best news in the neighborhood. No matter what happens, it enters your door a welcome friend, and bringing sunshine and happiness. It shortens the long winter day, and enlivens the long winter nights. No man is just to his wife and children who does not give them a home paper to read.—Ex.
