Jet in All Its Varieties Holds Sway—Jet and Fur Used Together on Three Tiered Skirts—Girdles Made Up Entirely of Bands of Fur and Jet Worn With Dressy Suits—Eton Styles Becoming More Popular—Fur Cloth Suit and Hat to Match—Recipe for Egg and Cheese Salad—Two Other Excellent Recipes.

FUR AND JET COMBINE AS A DRESS TRIMMING

The vogue of the brilliant bead which was predicted as long ago as midsummer has outdistanced in its tremendous popularity all that the clever presence of the milliners gave out to an ever eager public. And of all its many varieties jet is the specific kind which has made its presence felt over and above all the others. Not any great amount of jet applied in profuse manner to evening gowns and wraps, but rather as a single indefinable mark sparkling across what would otherwise be but a shadowy mass of velvet and ribbon and lace.

So vast is its prevalence indeed that it might well be compared to that of furs, and the combinations effected are growing more and more daring all the time as far as colorings and fabrics are concerned. Each woman is permitted to interpret her own style according to her own taste or that of her modiste through the medium of almost every imaginable combination. Skirts are being trimmed in two or three materials, these in turn edged with still different trimmings, and the coat worn with this composed of quite contrasting goods. In this matter of varied trimmings on the same gown jet and fur make splendid alternatives. One flounce is edged with a soft silky band of black lynx, while the one just beneath it has jet caught about its edge, the fluffiness of the one a pleasing relief to the hard brilliance of the other.

Petticoats that fall drip with jet ornaments are shown beneath dance frocks and evening gowns. Fur is even combined with the jet on these underskirts, the whole garment elaborate in the extreme and contrasting strikingly with the simplicity of the outside skirt, which is often slit toward the waist line on the side in order to show off the complexity of the petticoat. One extremely smart evening gown of black velvet was opened two inches from the hem to the waist line at the left side. This aperture was laced with tiny bands of white ermine through jet encircled eyelets. The underskirt was of ivory white satin, heavily embroidered with jet, jet nearly a foot from the hem directly in the middle of the back, where the outside skirt was caught up to reveal the gorgeousness of the lining.

Girdles made up entirely of bands of fur and jet are a novelty worn with the more or less dressy suit. The belt is a solid strip of fur, jet edged, of narrow, medium, or extravagant width and caught in front with a glittering buckle of jet. Sometimes fur ends are hung down directly in front and finished with jet tassels. The fur is being made to take the place of ribbon by some extremists is exemplified by one model lately seen at the Maison Carlos. The gown was of full turquoise charmeuse and in the middle of the back was a huge butterfly bow entirely of fur. The bands of the fur, about a foot wide, were stiffly wired and twisted into a fetching knot. The fur was ermine, and a trimming of rhinestones and jet glittered from the edges of the ribboned fur.

One back panel of a Chinese blue satin gown was of yellow fox. The panel fell into a deep train, which train was lined with a gorgeous brocade satin that was much in evidence when the wearer moved about. Another rather queer inroad for fur to make these days was seen in a velvet suit of raven blue with a detachable waistcoat of pale blue fox. This waistcoat was made to keep on in the house if desired, having the sheerest sleeves and bodice of beaded tulle.

From all indications, one would have no right to be surprised if fur waists and skirts and evening gowns were soon to be offered the Parisian public, the most blasé and accordingly the greatest novelty lover in the world.

One smart suit of broadtail and trimmed with fox, made up along the lines of the Eton styles, was worn with an equally chic little toque of the same broadtail cloth and edged with the fox. This matching of the fur cloth suit with the fur cloth hat is modish in the extreme at the present moment.

RECIPES.

Rhubarb Jam.

Allow one pound sugar and one lemon to each pound of rhubarb. Peel the lemon as thin as possible, taking care to get none of the bitter portion, put into a large bowl with lemon pulp, leaving out seeds. Cut the rhubarb in inch pieces, put on top of the lemon, and the sugar on top of this. Cover and let stand overnight in a cool place. Next day put into a preserving kettle and cook slowly with frequent stirring for forty-five minutes. Take from the fire, turn into jars, cool and seal.

Egg and Cheese Salad.
Boil twelve eggs one-half hour, grate one-half pound full cream American cheese, chop fine five medium-sized sour cucumber pickles. Arrange lettuce leaves around sides of dish, slice eggs evenly over platter, pepper and salt at discretion, turn grated cheese over eggs, and pour a salad dressing over this and sprinkle the minced pie over all.

Casseroles of Rice and Cheese.
Mix one cup boiled rice and one-half grated cheese, add one green pepper chopped. Salt and pepper to taste. Pour over all one cup sweet milk, turn into a baking dish and bake in a moderate oven half an hour.

PRIVATE JOHN ALLEN BREAKS LONG SILENCE

St. Louis, Jan. 2.—Private John Allen of Mississippi, who served sixteen years in congress, is inclined to agree with Congressman Whitacre of Ohio, who quits because a congressman cannot be intellectually honest. "And he cannot please his party," said Allen, who as usual illustrated his point with a story. "I once voted to unseat Charlie Joy, a Republican, who probably was duly elected to congress, but, as I told him at the time, it was easier to vote wrong than explain my vote afterward to my party."

PELKY STILL HOPES TO REACH THE TOP

San Francisco, Jan. 3.—Arthur Pelky still hopes to be heavyweight champion of the world. He realizes that his defeat at the hands of Gunboat Smith in Thursday's battle has temporarily placed him in the discard, but he declares he will yet reach the top of the ladder. "After a brief rest," said Pelky today, "I will begin all over again and fight my way to the top. While I do not want to make any excuses, I did not show my true form yesterday. I can do better and I am going to prove it."

Tommy Burns, Pelky's manager, dismissed Pelky's defeat with the brief remark that the Canadian, not only did not run to form, but failed to follow instructions. Burns appeared more eager to present his claims for a chance at the title than he did to make excuses for Pelky. But Manager Buckley is firm in his determination to take Smith to Paris for a match with Jack Johnson, and there seems little chance that Burns will be accommodated.

LAWYERS DIFFER AS TO JACK RABBIT LAW.

Blackfoot, Idaho, Jan. 2.—A great deal of agitation is abroad these days as to the extermination of the rabbit pest. Rabbit bunts and drives are the order of the day, but Roy Palmer, deputy game warden, thought the enforcement of the game laws was of more importance than the extermination of rabbits when he arrested and brought to the county attorney's office about forty of the leading farmers of the New Sweden district, who were enjoying the first day of the year by hunting jack rabbits. Palmer says Attorney General Peterson has ruled that these pests cannot be legally killed with guns, excepting when the hunter holds a game license. Attorney Good of this county seemed to be of the opposite view, as he permitted the accused men to go without a reprimand and bade them "Go do it some more."

CLUB KEEPS OPEN HOUSE.

Pocatello, Idaho, Jan. 2.—More than 1000 people were the guests of the Commercial club yesterday afternoon. All afternoon a happy crowd streamed in and out of the clubrooms. The spirit of the New Year was on everyone and a pleasant program was enjoyed.

GRANTED LICENSE TO WED.

Provo, Jan. 2.—A marriage license has been issued to Ray Bjarnson of Springville and Flora Gourdin of Mapleton.

DWIGHT G. PLATT DEAD.

Idaho Falls, Idaho, Jan. 2.—Word was received late last night from Long Beach, Cal., announcing the death, Wednesday night, of Dwight G. Platt of this city.

AN ALL-BLACK GOWN.

Striking, among the brilliant colors, are the all-black gowns effected now and then. This one has a waist of taffeta with a satin stripe. The girdle is held by a jet buckle and is cut to represent a bodice, the upper part being sewed to the waist. The three-tiered skirt is of velvet, each flounce being cut in scalloped outline with picot edges.

CHURCHES GIVE BIG SUM FOR MISSIONS

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 3.—The total foreign missionary contributions of American Protestant churches for the last year was $16,398,000, according to a statement made to the Student Volunteer convention today by J. Campbell White of New York City, general secretary of the Laymen's Missionary movement.

Dr. James L. Barton of Boston, secretary of the American board of commissioners for foreign missions; J. H. Franklin, foreign secretary for the American Baptist Foreign Mission society, and Dr. R. F. Horton, of London, also spoke.

VISCOUNT STEALS TO GET IN JAIL

Paris, France, Jan. 3.—Viscount Charles Eugerand de Marigny, scion of an old French family, penniless and starving, yesterday snatched a pocketbook from a woman in the street here, that he explained to the police he might be sent to the prison where he would be given food and shelter from the bitter cold. The viscount's father once was wealthy, but lost all in a bank failure.

Viscount de Marigny served with the French cavalry forces in the Morocco campaign and was awarded a medal. Recently he was discharged from the army, his term of service having expired. He spent his savings, he said, vainly seeking employment.

The police complied with the request of de Marigny and sent him to jail.

EXPLORER TO VISIT AMERICA

New York, Jan. 3.—That Ernest Shackleton intends to visit America before starting on his Antarctic expedition is stated in cable advices from London today. This visit, it is said, was decided on by the explorer to permit him to discuss his proposed expedition with scientists here and to visit several of the large number of Americans who have made application to join his party.

Scientific men who have worked with other expeditions, naval officers, airmen, soldiers, sailors, lawyers and clergymen have all offered their services.

MINTAGE INCREASES ALMOST $2,000,000

Philadelphia, Jan. 3.—Almost $2,000,000 more money was coined in the United States mint in this city during the year 1913 than during 1912. There was a general increase in the coinage of almost all metals, but most of the increase represents the manufacture of the new buffalo nickels. In the annual report of John H. Landis, superintendent of the mint, which was compiled yesterday, it is shown that during 1913 there were 169,067,626 pieces of money coined from all metals, amounting to $26,182,841.

During 1912 the coinage was 121,652,122 pieces and the money value $18,342,483. Last year there were $3,042,611 worth of nickels struck, while in the year previous the nickels amounted to $1,111,835. No money was coined for foreign countries at the mint during the last year, although in 1912 a large number of dimes were struck for Costa Rica and more than $500,000 in silver dollars were coined for San Salvador. The coinage of

AUTO REGISTRATION DOUBLES SINCE 1911

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 3.—The number of automobiles registered in the United States has more than doubled since 1911. In that year, according to compilations made public today by the secretary of state here, the number was $23,000. Last year 1,128,000 cars were registered. New York state leads with a total registration of 135,000 and Nevada brings up the rear with 1140.

$500,000 FOR THE UNIVERSITY

Baltimore, Md., Jan. 3.—A check for $500,000 will be handed to Cardinal Gibbons next Tuesday as a contribution for the Catholic university at Washington from the Knights of Columbus of the United States. It is proposed to found fifty scholarships for young men studying for the priesthood at the university.

NEW ITALIAN OPERA IS MARKED FAVORITE

New York, Jan. 3.—A new opera by a little known Italian composer was presented last night for the first time in the United States at the Metropolitan opera house. The opera was "L'Amerle del Tre Re," the composer, Italo Montemezzel. Another incident of the evening was the first appearance of a tenor known here hitherto only by name—Edoardo Ferreri-Fontana. The principal singers were recalled many times and there was every evidence that both the work itself and the performance had been received with marked favor.

NAUTICAL SCHOOL IS ABANDONED

Philadelphia, Jan. 3.—The Pennsylvania Nautical school, which for the last 24 years has fitted young men for commands in the merchant marine, passed out of existence yesterday when the school ship Adams was returned to the secretary of the navy. The failure of councils to make an appropriation and Governor Tener's veto of the state appropriation caused the abandonment of the school. The students who are now on holiday leave were notified not to return and the board of directors held what they say was a final meeting.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN CALLED BY DEATH

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 2.—Elliott Callender, aged 71, commander of the United States steamship Marjoram during the latter part of the Civil war and later a banker and one of the most prominent citizens of Peoria, Ill., died here today.

When the war broke out he enlisted in the Eleventh Illinois cavalry, but later was transferred to the navy, serving on several gunboats during the Vicksburg campaign.

Mr. Callender came here several years ago for his health.

OFFICERS INSTALLED.

Provo, Jan. 2.—The installation of Bonnevillie encampment No. 6, I. O. O. F., took place this evening in the Odd Fellows' hall. The ceremony was followed by a banquet and a social session.

MRS. ANNA MILLER DEAD.

Provo, Jan. 2.—Mrs. Annie Miller of Eureka died here Thursday from epilepsy, at the age of 35 years. The remains will be shipped to Goshen for burial by O. H. Berg & Son.

WINNING CHRIST, LOSING ALL ELSE

The Prize of All Eternity God Is Now Offering.

What Winning Christ Means—It Signifies More Than a Reformation of Life and a Pursuit of Righteousness. More Than Merely Believing in Jesus as Our Savior—It is Preceded by a Devotion or Consecration of Our All to God—And God's Acceptance of Our Consecration—Then the Race Begins—Its Outcome Will Determine Whether or Not We Win Christ—St. Paul an Exemplar—Saints From Every Nation and Denomination Winners—Their Matchless Reward.

PASTOR RUSSELL

Pastor Russell gave two addresses here today. We report one, from the text, "Yea, doubtless, I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, * * * that I may win Christ."—"Philippians 3:8."

The Pastor said that even saintly Christians seen but imperfectly to grasp the New Testament teachings respecting membership in the Body of Christ. Some assume that it is to be had on a basis of favoritism, and trust to be of the Elect. Others vaguely hope that they belong to the right Church and will attain whatever the others get. Errors of the Dark Ages absorbed in childhood have been responsible for these vagaries and for our general neglect of proper Bible study.

Conversion Not Winning Christ.

What is ordinarily termed conversion is not what St. Paul refers to as "winning Christ." Conversion signifies "a turning about." It implies a change from a wrong course to the right one. The wrong course is the sinful one, which brings injury and injustice on others. Conversion is merely the operation of a sane mind in turning about from things recognized to be injurious. Many are converted without real knowledge of Christ's Gospel. They merely know that they were going in the wrong direction, and turned about to take the proper course. Only strong characters can successfully pursue a right course, and these are in the minority. But whether strong or weak characters, great aid will be experienced from a knowledge of Christ's work and teachings.

"Present Your Bodies"—Sacrifices.

The Pastor then showed how one might reform his life, have knowledge of the future life secured by Jesus' death, and of the fact that we reap what we sow, and yet not be a Christian, in the Bible sense. Reformatory steps are necessary, however, before anything further can be attained.

Next the speaker discussed Christianity from the Bible standpoint. The Scriptures assure us that a Christian is a New Creature—not merely a civilized person. To such "old things have passed away; all things have become new." Old ambitions and prospects, however honorable and good, give place to new ones. This is what the Apostle had in mind in our text.

What Winning Christ Means.

The Pastor then briefly outlined the Gospel, an appreciation of which is necessary to the understanding of our text. The Divine Plan for human recovery from sin and death God first declared to Abraham: "In thy Seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed."—Galatians 3:8.

Later on, God revealed the fact that Abraham's Seed would constitute a Kingdom class to rule all nations for their uplift. When Israel, by failing to keep the Law, failed to prove itself the holy nation, God declared that He would send a special Messenger of the Covenant, through whom the holy nation would be established.

At His First Advent, our Lord laid the foundation for this work by dying for the sin of the whole world. Then He began to select the Kingdom class. This election has been the work of the entire Gospel Age, everything else being secondary. Soon the work will be finished, and the overcomers will share in the First Resurrection—Rev. 20:6.

"Abraham's Seed, and Heirs."

Next the Pastor demonstrated that this Kingdom class will be the foreordained Seed of Abraham. Jesus was of Abrahamic stock through His miraculous birth. After His resurrection He became Abraham's Seed on the spirit plane—a New Creature. His Church are to be on the same plane.

To Abraham's earthly seed belong certain earthly promises; but these cannot go into effect until the Spiritual Seed have been perfected in the First Resurrection. St. Paul tells us that this Seed of Abraham, Jesus and the Church, are unitedly The Christ. Using the human body as an illustration, he points out that Jesus is the Head and the Church the Body of Christ. Thus we see that St. Paul was anxious to win membership in the Body of Christ, not the probationary one of the present, but the actual Body of the future.

No wonder St. Paul counted all he had sacrificed as unworthy of mention when contrasted with the blessings which had come to the Gospel Church.

The Pastor Russell's letters for six weeks past have gone astray, and have just arrived. They will now be published daily until all the missing letters have appeared.

One of the few publications issued for extended circulation by the Brothers of the Book is entitled the Links of Ancient Rome. It is in Latin, and purports to show that the dignified game of golf was played on early Roman greens by characters who are famous in history. The Brothers of the Book is an organization of idealists in more or less widely separated cities. The headquarters are in Chicago.

The Attraction.
A rather eccentric man, calling on a family blessed by an observant little son, wore kid gloves that had been cleaned. The little boy, seeming to be much attracted by the visitor, stayed close at his side. "You like to stand by Mr. Blank and hear his funny stories, don't you, Jimmie?" presently asked Jimmie's father. "I don't care about his father," replied the honest youngster, "but his hands smell just like our automobile."

No Doubt About That.
"I wouldn't say she is pretty," said the Simple Mug, as the light-haired woman of doubtful age handed her money to the conductor, "but she is passing fare."
